The troubles in Porto Rico over the change from the silver to the gold standard gives the Bryanites some idea of we shall undergo if we make dard works against the laboring man, but because a change of standard, of whatever kind it may be, always works to the advantage of those who have other things than labor to sell. The laboring man has not yet the power of determining what shall be the reward of his toll, and must of necessity take what is offered, for he cannot live in idleness. The capitalist can charge pretty much what he pleases and the purchaser is helpless. So in Porto Rico the cost of living is doubled with the change of standard, and concessions to the workingman will be gradually given from time to time, till WHITE COLLAR LINE in a few years his wages may posses

In an article in the current number of Johnston, of the Bengal civil service who has made a study of Oriental probtems baying peculiar facilities for many years, predicted the present troubles in China. He based his prediction of trouble, not directly upon a war upon foreigners, but on the conflict between the radicals and conservatives The emperor is a zealous and radical reformer, who desires to see China follow in the footsteps of Japan and go forward as rapidly as possible to civil-Iration, appreciating that China must seek regeneration through progression The conservatives under the empress dowager are opposed to progress and civilization, and consequently are bitter against Europeans, or "foreign dev-

The missionaries, as well as the engineers and railway builders and other Europeans, have fallen victims to this fanatical determination of the Chinese conservatives that no progress and enlightenment shall obtain in the empire Europeans were the apostles of progess and enlightenment and therefor they were put out of the way.

No doubt the rapacity of Russia and Germany, in encroaching on Chinese territory, by taking possession of Port Arthur by the former and of Kajo Chon by Germany, have added fuel to the flame of hatred of foreigners. Shantung, which passed under control of Germany with Kalo Chou, is sacred ground. Confucius and Menicus are buried there, and there was great excitement over the presumption of barbarians taking this holy ground.

The enlightenment that China needs first and most is regarding the power of the civilized nations to resent the outrage that has been put upon them to secure reparation and to take such steps as will prevent a recurrence of such scenes, and make China as safe for Europeans as are England, Germany or the United States.
