The Oregonian has made another of its surprising discoveries. According to yesterday's issue, the Astoria editors "for months have berated Portland and the O. R. & N. Co. for not providing a service sufficient to stop the flow of Oregon products to rival ports on Puget sound."

There is only one good seaport in Oregon and that is Astoria. The Oregonian has followed the course of "the Astoria editors" more carefully than we have, but we have failed to note any protest on their part against an alleged inadequate service at Portland to stop the flow of Oregon products to Puget sound.

NO DANGER IN THE FUTURE

S. F. Journal of Commerce. The talk of an international alliance against the United States with the purpose of repressing her export trade seems unlikely to cause serious anxiety if considered in the light of recent commercial history.

Even in the case of Russia, whose recent action with reference to certain American products has been already announced, the effect is up to this time scarcely apparent.

porter. Our dairy products have also been the subject of more or less attention from Europeans who had looked askance at oleomargarine butter and filled cheese. The sugar legislation and laws of the United States have furnished a basis for certain restrictive regulations with reference to certain products of our manufactures and the war with Spain was looked upon by many as likely to practically destroy the commerce between that country and the United States.

What has been the result of all this commercial friction, commercial hostility, and of these national and international combinations against American commerce? To answer in a word: a steady increase of American exports to the countries in question and in many cases a decrease of American imports from those countries.

Take the case of Germany, for instance, where restrictive legislation or regulation with reference to certain American products has been frequently applied and in some cases actually applied. The figures of the treasury bureau of statistics show that our exports to Germany have increased from eighty-three million dollars in 1893 to 187 million dollars in 1900, while the figures for the eight months ending with February, 1901, show exports to Germany valued at 134 million dollars, against 124 million dollars in the corresponding months of last year and 111 million dollars in the same months of the fiscal year 1899.

In France certain American productions, especially those of agricultural origin, have been the subject of more or less restrictive legislation or regulation; yet our exports to France which in 1893 were forty-six million dollars, were in 1900 eighty-three million dollars, and in the eight months ending with February, 1901, are fifty-six million dollars against forty-three million dollars in the corresponding months of 1899. Meantime our imports from France have not materially changed, the imports of 1893 having been seventy-six million dollars and those of 1900 seventy-three million dollars, while for the eight months ending with February, 1901, they show an increase of a little less than one million dollars over the corresponding months of last year.

To Spain our export trade instead of being destroyed or materially reduced, has increased and the exports during the present fiscal year seem likely to be greater than in any other year, with possibly a single exception. In our history, having been for the eight months ending with February, 1901, $10,545,880, against $8,565,271 in the corresponding months of 1900, and $6,011,065 in the same months of the fiscal year 1899.

Even in the case of Russia, whose recent action with reference to certain American products has been already announced, the effect is up to this time scarcely apparent. Our exports to Russia during March of the present year, the first full month following the announcement of the discriminating rates against the United States, were $1,199,882, against $1,246,621 during March of last year.

Eric Olson is filled with a dark yellow brand of yoe. He sees the happy

You are much more liable to disease when your liver and bowels do not act properly. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove the cause of disease. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

We believe that the average dying woman suffers more about the condition of the house she is leaving than about her heavenly home.

The least in quantity and most in quality describes DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous pills for constipation and liver complaints. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Children are kept so scrubbed-up these days that their skins are becoming positively old-fashioned.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers search the remotest parts of the bowels and remove the impurities speedily with no discomfort. They are famous for their efficacy. Easy to take, never gripe. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

It is an affliction that a woman regards as a very dear friend when she quits getting out her cut glass for you.

Skin affections will speedily disappear by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Look out for counterfeiters. If you get DeWitt's you will get good results. It is the quick and positive cure for piles. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Be bold enough to say, "I don't know." And if you can screw your courage up to it, add, "And I don't care."

Mr. W. J. Baxter of North Brook, N. C., says he suffered with piles for fifteen years. He tried many remedies with no results until he used DeWitt's Little Early Risers, which cured him.

It is always easier for a busy man to find extra time to work than it is for a loafer.

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The cough was mastered, her little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

Some women would rather listen to a story about a spell of sickness than read a novel.

"I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable to eat any food. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly." Thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

There is usually something the matter with a man who carries a woman's watch.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. Preparation such as Kodol's Dyspepsia Cure, which does no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. CHAS. ROGERS, Druggist.

The only man who can truthfully say he has never forgotten to mail his wife's letters is the one who never had a wife.

THOUSANDS SENT INTO EXILE. Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. Don't be an exile when Dr. King's new discovery for consumption will cure you at home. It's the most infallible medicine for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astonishing cures result from persistent use. Trial bottles free at Hart's drug store. Price 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

Petty crime is rampant at Joplin. A policeman was killed in that town the other night.

Miss Mammie Smith, of Middleboro, Ky., writes: "My little sister had the 'croup' very bad. I gave her several doses of Foley's Honey and Tar and she was instantly relieved. It saved her life." Hart's drug store.

Captain Carter sought to review his determination to sue for libel. Does he think that lawyers can live on hot air only?

Thomas Maple, Birkbeck, Ill., writes: "I had a very bad case of kidney trouble and my back ached so that I could not straighten up. The doctor's treatment did me no good. "I had a running sore on my breast for over a year," says Henry R. Richards, of Wilkesville, N. Y., "and tried a great many remedies but got no relief until I used Banner Salve. After using one-half box I was perfectly cured. I cannot recommend it too highly." Hart's drug store.
