

RUSSIAN LOVE FOR THE CZECHS

Sentiments of Good Will at Pan-Slavic Congress.

General Rittich's Greeting Shared By the Whole of Thinking Russia—The Source of True Slavic Power and Might.

General Rittich's Greeting Shared By the Whole of Thinking Russia—The Source of True Slavic Power and Might.

Correspondence of the Associated Press ST. PETERSBURG, Saturday, July 14.—"Sokol," or Turner societies, play a leading political role in the Polish provinces of Germany and in Bohemia, being rallying points for Polish Nationalist and pan-Slavic propaganda respectively. An international "Sokol" congress has just been held in Prague.

Its doings have been telegraphed by the official Russian agency with surprising fullness. The Russian delegation was led by Lieutenant-General Rittich of this city. It is not known whether he went there with the sanction of the Russian government and armed with a mandate. Certain it is his speeches and farewell letter with which he honored the Bohemian Turners were telegraphed here in full and were printed in the Official Messenger as the leading news of the day.

The farewell letter and the telegram about it and somewhat unusual documents, being remarkably frank statements of the political programme of the pan-Slavs.

The Bourse Gazette which represents business sentiment fairly accurately, says in a leader:

"Thus can one speak only in moments of real enthusiasm. The sentiments expressed towards the Czechs in the letter of General Rittich are shared by the whole of thinking Russia."

The telegram about General Rittich's letter was:

"Prague is generally pleased with the letter which General Rittich sent the city government at the moment of his departure."

The general's letter is in part: "To the Czechs, greeting—I came from the far Slavic east, from the slumbering forests of the old north and the endless steppes of the Black Sea to testify our Russian love for you and to tell you that you can place entire confidence in the power of Russia and above all to remind you that you must study this immeasurable Russian Slavic land and must make yourselves acquainted with it. Only when you Czechs have made yourselves better acquainted with Russia will you learn where lies the source of the true Slavic power and might."

"I wish with all my might that God would awaken the Czech people and give them knowledge of true popular liberty, awaken in them knowledge of themselves, spread abroad their language and their civilization and grant them superiority of earthly goods. Successors of earthly goods will you Czechs have when your commercial connections extend from the Adriatic to the Pacific. Amen, amen, I say unto you. Put your faith and trust in the God of the Slavic earth. He is great. He created your mighty Slavic Russia."

KILLED HER BABY. Paper Goes Wrong While the Mother is Defending Her Honor.

CHICAGO, July 18.—A special to the Board-Herald from Phoenix, Arizona, says:

While defending herself against drunken Indians, Mrs. Irving accidentally sent a bullet through the brain of her baby, which was playing on the floor.

The tragedy happened last night in a mother's cabin on the Mariposa reservation about forty miles south of this city. "Mariposa Jim" an Indian accompanied by several young boys, and three drunk attempted to assault Mrs. Irving. After the shooting she escaped from the cabin and under shadow of darkness ran to the cabin of another Indian, who gave her the alarm.

An armed force of settlers returned to the scene of the tragedy but the Indians had disappeared. It is presumed that they fled to the mountains. A posse is in pursuit. There are about 100 Indians on this reservation.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Invitations to the Asquith dinner, says the London correspondent of the Tribune, which began with a select, intimate circle, have not been extended to the Liberal members but only some thirty have signified their intention of attending most of the others feeling the odium that the dinner is bringing.

Interest is heightened by the fact that country to his agent, Lord Rosebery will speak contemporaneously at the City Liberal club. It is understood that Sir Edward Gray's criticisms are responsible for this change of plans. Whether Lord Rosebery intends enlarging upon or explaining his accusations in the manifesto or placing himself at the head of those Liberals who are anxious to acclaim him as leader is being eagerly discussed, though few believe that the latter course is possible.
