LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.

Many Timely Topics Tersely Treated.

A COURSE OF TWO LECTURES.

Petition for Writ of Review in the Bank Matter.

Be wise! Have Vogle fit your eyes. All kinds of job printing at reasonable rates at this office.

County warrants taken at par for merchandise at Nolan and Callahan's. Orders taken for O. A. C. regulation uniforms at $14.50.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, was in town this week on legal business. To rent—an elegantly furnished lower front room near the court house, apply at this office.

Mrs. Vogle was visiting friends near Jefferson and not at Belknap Springs as we stated last week.

Alba R., daughter of A. J. Richardson, died at her home in Portland yesterday and will be buried tomorrow at Salem.

The old dwelling back of S. L. Kline's warehouse is being torn down and Mr. Kline will build a two story house in its place.

Dilly the bicycle repairer goes on his usual hunt Nov. 15th. On these occasions all the bear and deer in the mountains lide for two weeks.

The Racket store will open up in its new quarters nearly opposite the post office with a fresh stock of everything in its line, at lower prices than ever.

"At the Commercial Restaurant they are putting up first class meals at 20c. They have also finely furnished rooms to let at reasonable rates. Fresh oysters and clams always on hand."

Newspapers are the wings that carry human experience, order, and law all over the country. If they were dropped, society would fall back a thousand years.

That is what Henry Ward Beecher said. Hon. W. R. Ellis our congressman for the second district was in Corvallis for a few days visiting his son, who is a student at the O. A. C. He made this office a friendly visit and we acknowledge the courtesy.

Jimmy Hays has some friends who caused him some uneasiness last Monday. On Sunday night they removed his patent gate, and it could not be found until Jimmy's sad look made the jokers weaker, and the gate was produced.

Halloween passed off much quieter than usual owing to the excellent arrangements made by the chief of police and the night watchman. Some sidewalkers were overturned and a good deal of noise made, but no damage of consequence was done.

Chief of Police Wells is doing excellent work on our crosswalks and sidewalks and if he keeps up his lick Corvallis can soon claim to be the handsomest town in the state. Nothing has prevented that claim from being made and allowed but rotten sidewalks.

The farmers have been utilizing every moment of the fine weather to put in their fall wheat. John Rickard has about 400 acres in and 300 of it is growing. He has about twenty horses in the field plowing, but the ground is getting too dry again, and more rain is needed.

A petition for a writ of review in the circuit court has been filed with the clerk by John Burnett. The petition asks for a review of the proceedings in the county court by which the action of the board of equalization was changed in the matter of assessment of the First National Bank.

The S. P. railroad have not cars enough to do the business that is offering, and lately they borrowed forty cars from the O. C. & E. The business of the O. C. & E. is improving also but at present they are in great need of additional steamboat service from the bay. It seems impossible to get vessels, as commerce is improving everywhere, and the Alaska excitement has drawn off all the surplus steamships.

The Mite, a neat little three column folio, well edited by Claude Riddle, and containing all the college and city news made its appearance this week. It is deserving of success on its merits. Mr. Riddle edited and published a seven column paper at his home in Riddle, Douglas county, called the Riddle Mite, which was a very credible paper, and though a young man, he is an excellent all-round paper man. He says he means to make it a life work, and there is no doubt whatever of his success. Such young men as he is don't fail.

O. A. C. Entertainment. Rev. Henry A. Barden will deliver two lectures in the O. A. C. Chapel on Nov. 5th and 6th on the Civil War. The lecturer was a soldier during the war, and his discursions are from experience. It will be illustrated by life size pictures on a canvas fifteen by sixteen feet, and promises to be interesting and instructive. Besides all this it is gotten up by the college Athletic Association and ought to be patronized. The price of admission is low, being twenty-five cents for adults or twenty cents each for both lectures. An entire change of programme for the lectures is announced and wherever it has been delivered it is highly spoken of. We hope to see the college chapel crowded tonight and tomorrow night.

Prof. Henry A. Barden will deliver lectures on Nov. 5th and 6th in the O. A. C. chapel for the benefit of the Athletic Association.

Prof. Priehard was presented with a Lyre, in which to lead the singing. It is a very handsome tuning fork and was donated by the students.

The Alpha Club of the Ladies' Dormitory was entertained by the Cauthorn Hall Club to a dinner on Saturday night. After dinner games were played until 10 o'clock.

The "scrub" eleven is practicing hard these evenings; preparing to give the 'Varsity their final practice for Eugene on Nov. 20th. This year's eleven will be the strongest that has played under the college colors.

VARIETY OF SUBJECTS

Of Especial Interest to An Exacting Public.

DEATH OF MRS. ROBT. MATHANY.

Stock Now Walks to Market Just As in "The Good Old Days."

Death of Mrs. Mathany.

Grace M., wife of Robert F. Mathany died at her home in Wrenn on Wednesday last at 5 o'clock after a severe illness. She was the daughter of W. H. Dilley and has lived in this county for 14 years. She leaves a husband and one child, an infant for whom she yielded up her young life at the age of 18. She was universally beloved and leaves a gap in the community where she lived that will never be filled. The funeral took place on Thursday at Kings Valley.

Commissioners' Court.

The following business was transacted and the Court adjourned yesterday.

The sheriff was ordered to publish a list of all delinquent taxpayers on the delinquent rolls for the years 1883 to 1896, inclusive, notifying said delinquents that if taxes were not paid within 20 days after said notice the property would be sold.

Ordered that advertisement be made for bids for re-indexing all deeds and mortgages relating to real property in Benton county. Books to be furnished by the county.

In the Alex Simes road matter; viewers reported that Simes and Grey were entitled to $50 each, the report was accepted and clerk ordered to draw warrants for the amount.

Petition for vacation of Scott's addition was granted.

Resignation of J. Q. Post as constable at Summit, accepted.

Fixing tax levy for 1897 postponed. Surveyor Mercer filed notes of survey to establish corner to Sec's 21, 22, 27 and 28 in T. 11 S. R. 6 W.

Regular bills allowed.

Live Stock.

Last week Louis Burk drove 675 head of cattle from Corvallis to Portland and paid out in this county $7500. On the way he bought enough more to make 16 car loads; which with 5 car loads of sheep made a train of 21 cars of stock sent from Portland to Nebraska to be wintered and then shipped back to us in the summer as dressed beef and mutton.

Mr. Castle is now on the way to Portland driving 718 sheep which were also purchased in this county and cash paid for them. The casual observer in Benton county would hardly believe that there was that number of cattle and sheep in the county, and yet a dealer here who knows says that he could load another train with cattle from Benton county in 5 days; the truth is we do not know how rich we are.

Why all this stock can be driven to Portland from here, all the way along the line of a railroad and driven cheaper than the road will haul them is a question that concerns the business management of the railroad, but it looks as if there was something wrong about freight charges from here. 20 car loads of stock have been driven over the road to Portland from here in the last 8 days, and the cost of driving and feeding is over 25 per cent less than by train.

The Crystal Lake Cemetery.

Recorder Gellatly has just finished up an excellent bit of work, in his Cemetery Plat records. The Plat of Crystal Lake Cemetery has been filed, and on inspection this proves to contain some valuable information, which concerns many of the people of Corvallis.

The ground for this cemetery was deeded by J. C. Alexander, on Jan. 20, 1890, to the Masonic Lodge, and laid out into a cemetery, and platted, but the plat was never recorded until recently. The Lodge places the affairs of the cemetery in a committee, who attends to everything connected with it. As some uncertainty came to exist after long years, and some deeds were found to contain wrong descriptions, the present cemetery committee went to the grave stones and such sources of information as were available, and prepared the plat which contains, besides the diagram of the cemetery and the necessary requisites imposed by statute, the names of the owners of every lot which has been sold or which is occupied in the whole cemetery, and hence the record of it shows the ownership of each lot, which will prevent any confusion as to who owns this or that lot at any time in the future. From the committee a Union reporter learned that there are 363 graves in that cemetery at the present time, and a brief history of each person buried there is in progress of compilation which when completed will be of great value in preserving their identity. A great deal might be said about the value of every cemetery having such a history, but space prevents. It is gratifying however to know that this cemetery keeps such a record, and of those who are buried there a sufficient history is always accessible to any one desiring information of them.
