sel, and it recronsed the harbor to its former moorings.

These mysterious flights across the harbor were repeated a number of times in the presence of hundreds of astonished spectators, who were utterly at a loss to account for the phenomenon. The migrations ceased as suddenly as they began. Not till then did the back and undulating flukes of an immense ocean vampire, appearing above the water of the harbor, disclose the motive power that caused it all.

One of the curious habits of the fish is to throw somersaults, sometimes at a considerable distance beneath the surface, sometimes at the surface, sometimes in the air above the surface. The reason for this peculiar practice, which is kept up for hours, has, so far as the writer knows, never been conjectured. 'At times the great fish will jectured. At times the great fish will throw himself bodily perhaps as much as 19 or 12 feet into the air.

GRANT WAS RIGHT.

From the Brooklyn Engle. rederick Douglas and Andrew D. Whits, were right in urging the annexaon of San Domingo, and that Summer, churz and others, who opposed that "This literary journal," remarked the newspaper man, "contends that the modern book-reader skips."

"It isn't always the book-reader," said the great merchant; "sometimes at a the book-per."

A Little Enlightenment

A few words of introduction will doubtless aid you considerably in perusing Journal Want Columns. Many new ads. appear daily, and it will pay you to look for them.

The "Male Help" classification is a universal favorite. Are you especially interested in it. Read it and see. Notice what "H-11" and V. D. Smith say. Under "For Rent — Housekeeping Rooms" are several advertisements that will prove attractive to those desiring such living quarters, either furnished or unfurnished.

Notice the "For Rent — Furnished Rooms" ads. One, from 255 Eleventh street, is a very short ad, but to the point. Surely worth looking up. An-other ad announces the vacancy of a large front room that can be rented for $25.

Possibly you want to rent a house What size? 5 rooms? 7 rooms? Well, there are several nice houses and cottages advertised under "For Rent—Houses."

How would something under "Fo

Ender "Business Chances" are advertised several opportunities to buy good businesses, rooming - houses, etc. Have you any money to invest? Rend the ads.

Have you read the "Personal" adver-tisements? Anything of interest in a for you today?

Remember, if you are out of work and there's nothing under "Male Help, that appeals to you, bring in an adver tisement to run under "Situation Wanted." It will be inserted two day free of charge.

which he drives himself furiously in the verter or yaults high in the air, through which he skims like some enormous bird; his feelers (commonly called horns) projecting several feet beyond his mouth, and paddling all the small fry that constitute his food into that capacious receptacle—and you with have an idea, though an imperfect one of this extraordinary fish."

The so-caffed "horns" to which allusion is made are a singular feature in this animal.
