WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE GETS INTO POLITICS—AND TROUBLE

He built a revolving transparency for Papa's "Business Men's Campaign Club."

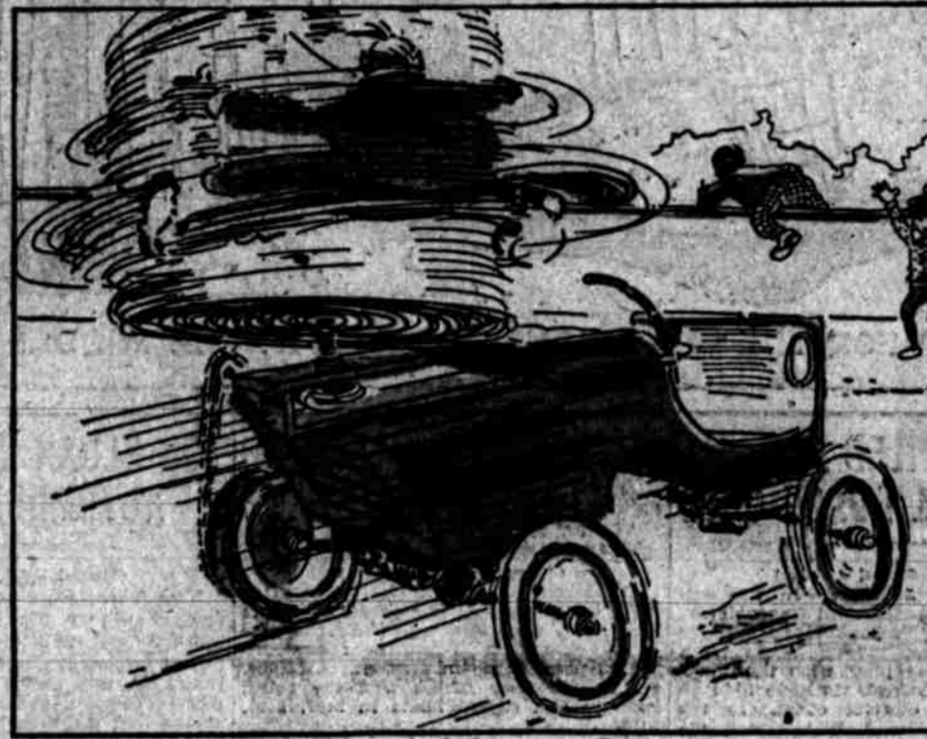

It was geared to revolve slowly, and Papa was tickled 'most to death.

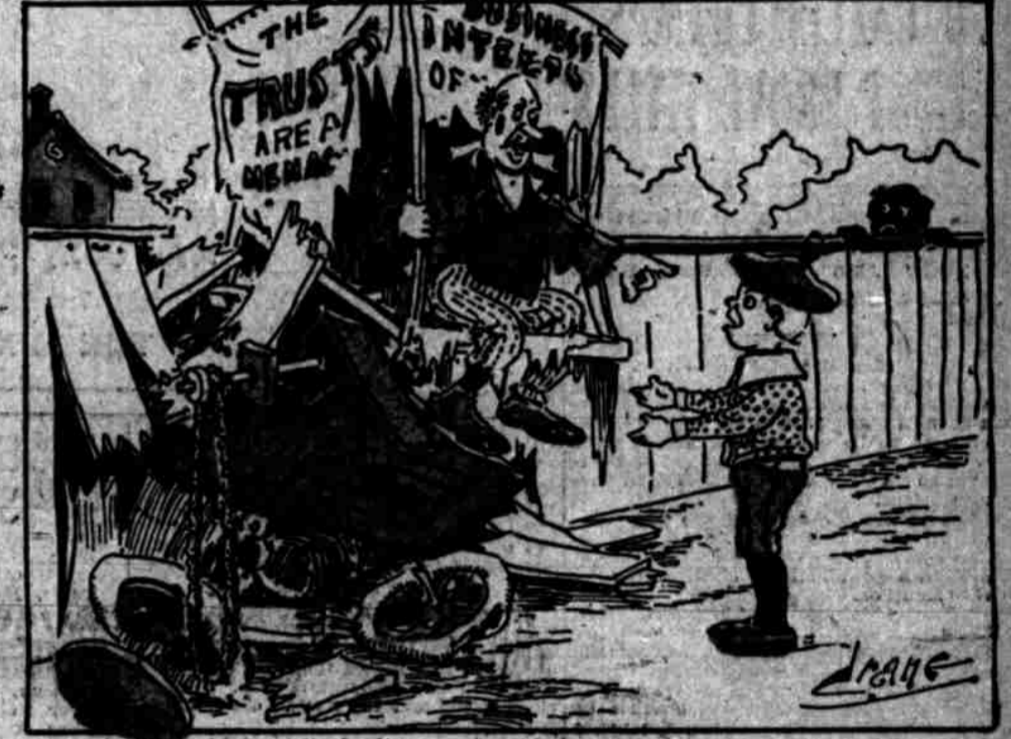

The night of the parade Papa and Jim got the big and little wheels reversed—

And of course this made the transparency go round like a humming top.

Then Papa's coat got caught, and he went around with the campaign mottoes.

The thing never stopped until it was a wreck; and then Willie was blamed.
