MOYER CLEARANCE SALE

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD. IT'S SO

The MOYER has frequently in the past given SALES that have surprised the public, but never before have we offered such INDUCEMENTS as we propose giving for the balance of this year. As a rule it is neither reasonable nor profitable to inaugurate a CLEARANCE SALE at the height of the season. Our reason for taking this step now is we have decided to ADD a SHOE DEPARTMENT to our already large stock, feeling that we can give our patrons better service. To MAKE ROOM we are compelled to cut out a part of our FURNISHING DEPARTMENT, and will close out very many lines AT COST. The only comment we have to make is that WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD. IT'S SO. WE shall name the prices—YOU will do the rest.

NO BRIDGES FOR SULLIVAN'S GULCH

COMMITTEE OF EAST SIDERS DENY THAT PEOPLE CANNOT GET WHAT THEY WANT UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS—SEE CITY TO STRENGTHEN UNION AVENUE.

"We want bridges, need them sorely, but under present conditions, cannot get them," is a summary of the conclusion reached yesterday afternoon by the mass meeting committee of the east side, with respect to Union and Grand avenue crossings of Sullivan's gulch.

After getting legal advice and consulting all interests affected, the committee believes that they would not be able to erect elevated roadways or wooden bridges at this time. This opinion was expressed in Joseph Butcher's office.

The only avenue of relief open to them, and which the people of the east side believe is their right, is to have the city repair the present standing structure. The secretary of the meeting was authorized to present a petition to the executive board praying that such repair work be done. It was the belief of members present that the bridge could be put in shape for vehicle traffic at an expense of $1,030 or less.

Expressing the general sentiment of east side residents, the committee further put itself on record as favoring a bond issue for such work as that over Sullivan's gulch. It was the sense of those present that the legislature should be appealed to for an amendment to the charter permitting such improvements to be made from bond issues, rather than district assessments.

The situation has at last taken positive form. The east side will not get relief from the present, distressing condition until the city repairs the Union avenue bridge. Business interests feel that it will be impossible to get action on a new structure. Who this is chargeable to does not enter into present considerations. The people who would be taxed wanted a cheap, wooden structure, but the council formulated a resolution

AMATEUR COOKS WILL BAKE FOR PRIZES

Bread, cake and biscuit makers will have an opportunity of displaying their culinary art at the county fair which will be held in Grange hall, on the Section Line road, October 26. Several prizes have been offered by George H. Himes, who desires to promote the art of good cooking. For breadmaking the following prizes will be given to young women under 20 years of age: First, $1.50; second, $1.00. Cake (same conditions): First, $1.50; second, $1.00. Biscuit (same conditions): First, $1.50; second, $1.00. There is some objection in the neighborhood over the age limit, as most of the young women are over 20 years old, but this will be adjusted. A. F. Miller, F. E. Beach, Edward Peterson and F. S. Dunning are also offering $10 in two cash prizes for green fruit collections—$25 for first and $10 for second prizes.

ASKS BUSINESS MEN TO FIGHT GAMBLING

Quoting Dr. Parkhurst, that "if the perseverance of the saints was as great as the perseverance of the sinners, the church would be certain of victory," Dr. J. W. Brougher, at the First Baptist church, last night made an emphatic protest against a return to the wide open gambling policy of city government in Portland. He called upon the business men in the church to get busy, to see their aldermen, to urge enforcement of the law, and to uphold the officials who are trying to do their duty.

"Frequently the good citizen permits crime to go on rather than leave his business to fight the devil. The bad man takes advantage of this condition, and by waiting his opportunity regains his power. Let the business men see to it that their aldermen stand by the mayor's veto of the poolroom ordinance."

GUGLIELMO HERE BY ERROR, COURT SAYS

UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH, NUMBERED IN BROUGHT TO COUNTY JAIL AWAITING DEPOSITION OF JAIL GARD ON APPEAL BY SUPERIOR COURT.

In the opinion of the members of the circuit court a mistake was made by the state officials in ordering that Frank Guglielmo should be brought back to the county jail from the Salem penitentiary, pending the disposition of his case, which is now on appeal in the supreme court.

Not only is the detention of Guglielmo at the county jail held to be contrary to the plain intent of the law, in view of his being sentenced to death by Judge Cleland, but it is pointed out that his escape from the county jail could be effected much more easily than from the penitentiary. This is evidenced by the fact that six conspirators would have succeeded in murdering County Jailor Grafton and breaking out of prison a few days ago had not Martin Lenzini divulged the plot.

Section 1478 of the codes reads as follows: "If, before the granting of the certificate (of probable cause), the execution of the judgment have commenced, a further execution thereof is suspended and defendant must be restored by the officer in whose custody he is, to his original custody."

This was the section on which was based the action of the state officials in refusing to keep Guglielmo at the penitentiary pending the disposition of his case on appeal. It is maintained by the court, however, that this section plainly does not apply to Guglielmo. The section became a law long ago, when no executions were held at the Salem penitentiary, but in the county in which the crime occurred. It is taken to refer to cases in which confinement in the penitentiary constitutes execution of the sentence.

Guglielmo was not sent to the penitentiary to be imprisoned, but to be executed for murder. Execution of the sentence in his case, it is contended, would mean only the carrying out of the penalty prescribed for his crime. In December, 1903, the legislature passed a law dealing directly with such cases. Section 1466 of the codes, dealing with the execution of criminals, is amended to read as follows: "When judgment of death is pronounced a warrant, signed by the judge of the court and attested by the clerk, must be drawn and delivered to the sheriff of the county. It must state the conviction and judgment and appoint a day on which the judgment is to be executed, which must not be less than 30 days from the time of judgment, and must direct the sheriff to deliver the defendant within 20 days from the time of judgment to the superintendent of the penitentiary in this state for execution."

According to this reading, it is asserted, Guglielmo, who was sent to Salem 10 hours after the death sentence had been pronounced, should have remained there. The signing of the certificate of probable cause, it is pointed out, was not granted until he had reached Salem. As imprisonment there did not constitute the execution of his sentence, he should still be at the penitentiary.

COUNTY CLERKS AND RECORDERS TO MEET

CONVENTION WILL BE HELD IN PORTLAND NEXT MONTH—IMPORTANT SUBJECTS WILL BE BROUGHT UP FOR DISCUSSION—HOSTS OF QUESTIONS SENT OUT.

Topics of interest to every taxpayer in the state will be discussed at the convention of county clerks and recorders to be held in this city in the latter part of November. Among them are the making of the tax roll, election matters, the question of direct primaries and making the office of recorder self-sustaining.

The list of subjects prepared by the committee having the arrangements for the convention in hand has been mailed by County Clerk Fields throughout the state. Subjects have been assigned to the various county clerks and recorders as follows: What do you think of the Torren system? County Judge Lake of Wasco. How do you audit claims? Auditor Brantley of Multnomah. Should the office of recorder be self-sustaining? Combs. How are supplies furnished and how should they be? Moses. Probate fees, Slight. Reporters' fees, Clinton. Are county clerks entitled to fees for certified copies? Henderson. Should civil service be applied to county offices? Smith of Crook. What is your opinion as to circuit court fees? Smith of Curry. Should the assessor make the tax roll? Hoge. What do you think of direct primaries? Putwood. What law needs amending more than any other? Niven and Turner. How do you distribute taxes? Mothershead. Are the salaries of county clerks high enough? Orth. Should there be a state examiner? Cheahire. Should road petitions be charged for? Chastain. Should there be a recorder in all counties? Manning. How do you check initiative and referendum petitions? Lee. How do you handle general elections? Wade. How do you handle marriage licenses and return? Payne. Should deputies give bonds to their superior? Thomson. How do you register voters? Roland. Sale of property for delinquent taxes. Crawford. How to treat the public fields. Should the constitution be changed so that clerks and recorders will be elected for four years? Smith of Polk. How do you take homestead proof? McDaniel. What is your opinion on probate fees? Lamb. What do you think of book-keepers? Saling. How do you handle the tax roll? Gilham. Branding marks, French. How do you handle the commissioners' journal? Bolton. Road poll taxes, receipt and collection? Goodman. How are estrays handled? Butler. How do you handle articles of incorporation? Jones. What do you think of miscellaneous records? Henry. Indexing records. Vincent. Should the office of recorder be abolished? Stevens. How should mining claims be handled? Dow. What do you think of patent indexes? Francis. Should females be employed in political offices? Selgum. Are the salaries of recorders high enough? Folsom. What do you think of the loose leaf records? Kurtil.

ROCKEFELLER ADDS AN EAGLE TO COLLECTION

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Oct. 17.—To his other earthly possessions John D. Rockefeller has added an eagle—not the American eagle yet—but a very fine specimen of Cincturus or sea eagle, which was captured 150 miles from land by the crew of the tank steamer Excelsior of the Standard Oil company on its voyage from Rotterdam.

It was off the coast of Nova Scotia that the bird, apparently tired out, took refuge in the rigging of the Excelsior and though its nature is fierce, readily submitted to capture.

An ornithologist went aboard the ship at Bayonne today and after the eagle had been properly classified as a rare species in these waters, it was caged and sent to Rockefeller's place at Tarrytown.

The capture of the eagle brought to light a curious bargain that the Standard Oil king had with the masters of all the ships in his service.

When a bird is captured at sea it is brought to port and if pronounced by ornithologists as worthy of a place in Rockefeller's collection, it is sent to Pocantico Hills, where, under the agreement with the captain who made the capture, Rockefeller keeps it until the bird dies, when it is stuffed and presented to the captain as an ornament for his cabin. In this way Rockefeller has gathered a collection of birds from all parts of the world.
