

$10 in Gold for a Name
 For the public avenue that passes directly through the center of our stores, connecting Fifth and Sixth streets. For particulars of both above matters see Sunday papers.
 The competition lasts all week. Remember—it's a name for the broad aisle, avenue, street, or whatever you may call it, we want, not the store. Should a name be decided on by the committee that more than one person suggests the money will be divided equally.

A great poet has said, "I can call spirits from the deep"
 And a prosy sort o' fellow says: "Yes; but do they COME when you call 'em?" Many a good store has been known to become so absorbed in making claims that they seemed to forget the fact that THEY WERE MAKING NO PROGRESS. Folks who have watched the great throngs here this week, know this has been, and is every day, Portland's busiest store. Busiest because the character of the merchandise, the variety and immensity of assortments and the overwhelming superiority of its values made it so. No store can continuously break all past selling records (as we have done every month this year) and make annual gains of hundreds of thousands of dollars (as we have done), by merely calling upon people to come. We have done it by placing before our shopping public the products of the foremost and most progressive producers of the world at FAIR PRICES. We have climbed steadily to the position of power we hold today in the mercantile world, securing special advantages in values without hurt or hindrance to any one, yet bringing real benefits to our customers. Isn't it but natural that this has grown to be not only Portland's BEST store, but now its LARGEST? We enliven the week's selling with a host of extra values for tomorrow's
