U.S. SENATORS MAY GET A HARD JOLT

Their Attempt to Organize the Oregon Legislature and Shoulder in Kuykendall as President of the Senate Likely to Be Set. at Naught by E. V. Carter.

MULTNOMAH DOESN'T HOLD THE BALANCE OF POWER

It is Thrust into the Background by the Clumsy Playing of Their Cards by the National Leaders - Slate-Breakers Present a Strong United Front.

Lane for the presidency of the state senate.

Carter has been a candidate for the place for many months and the fact has been jubijshed in almost, every newspaper in the state. His candidacy received little attention, however, from the local Republican press for the reason that Carter's aspirations were opposed to the plaus formulated by Mitchell and Fulton, when they undertook the dangerous task of programing the organization of the legislature. That undertaking excited general surprise, since at the coming session no senator is to be elected, and there was no apparent excuse for such interference, yet it received the support of the machine and machine organs.

From the outset it was apparent that Mitchell and Fulton had overestimated their power to sway the choice of the legislators for president of the state senate. Ruykendall was not a strong candidate. Outside of Multnomah county the only state senators whose votes he could claim with any degree of assurance were R. A. Booth of Josephine, Douglas and Lane counties, Jay Tuttle of Clatsop, John L. Rand of Baker, Harney and Malheur, and George C. Brownell of Clacksmas, Brownell's adherence was given reluctantly under strong pressure and Rand's loyalty has been questioned.

ell of Clackamas. Brownell's adherence was given reluctantly under strong pressure and Rand's loyalty has been questioned.

Obviously Kuykendall would not be in the running without the seven votes from Multnomah county and even with them and his own vote he would still lack one, for it will take 13 votes to control the caucus of Republican sensitors. This one vote was to be gathered in somehow, however, through the potent influence of the machine, and by pressure from Mitchell and Fulton.

Multnomah Ect a Vital Power.

A rude jar has been given to the programers by the belated discovery that the slate breakers are still doing business and that even the wishes of United States senstors may not be all powerful. Incidentally it is being discovered that Republican organs in this city are awaking with manifest alarm to the strong probability of defeat for the legislative elate arranged three months ago by Senator Mitchell and Senator Fulton. With a lightning change of front the same papers that were announcing three weeks ago that the program was absolutely sure to go through are now proclaiming as though it were a newly discovered fact that E. V. Carter of Jackson county may smash the slate and may defeat Dr. Kuykendall of Lane for the presidency of the state senate.

Carter has been a candidate for the place for many months and the fact has been jublished in almost, every newspaper in the state. His candidacy received little attention, however, from the local Republican press for the reason that Carter's aspirations were opposed to the plans formulated by Mitchell and Fufton, when they undertook the dan fufform, when they undertook the dan frufton, when they undertook the dan frufton of the legislature. That undertaking excited general surprise, since at the coming session no senator is to be elected, and there was no apparent excuse for such has played its cards so badly that assured success has been changed into almost equally assured defeat.

It is quite within the possibilities that Carter has been a single vote from Muit-nomah county. He is credited from Muit-nomah county. He is excited presiden Moreover the Multnomah delegation is by no means a unit and circumstances might arise when a split would occur, giving Carter at least, one vote from giving Carter at least one vote from this county.

The effort to program the legislature for Kuykendail is now regarded as one of the gravest blunders that has been made in recent years. Defeat will upset the plans formed for the session of 1907 and Multnomah county will be stripped of its rightful influence, as has been the case in all recent sessions of the legislature.

The insane man created something approaching a panic on the street as he ran down it flourishing his iron bar and threatening to brain any person who hindered his progress. Probably nothing but the storminess of the day, it being bitterly cold, prevented more serious consequences, as the street, which is usually thronged with pedestrians, was exceptionally empty. The insane man was taken to the hospital, but has not been identified.

Pretoria, Dec. 16.—The funeral today of Mr. Kruger was made the occasion for a great demonstration of the respect and affection in which the memory of the late president is held by the people of the Transvaal. The sentimental interest attached to the occasion was increased by the fact that today was the anniversary of that day in 1880 when, under the leadership of Mr. Kruger, the Boers met and swore to fight for independence. Substance of Previous Testimony Shows He Made Many Threats Against Bennett.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Hillsboro, Or., Dec. 16.—At 16 o'clock this morning court convened. The large court room was crowded to the doors with both men and women expecting to hear the trial of Bert Oakman, charged with the murder of Frank Bennett.
Hoff. B. B. Huston, on behalf of Oakman, stated to the court that Mrs. Figley, Oakman's sister, was prostrated with grief and unable to attend the trial and that Oakman for her sake desired to withdraw his plea of not guilty and enter a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree, and receive a life sentence.

District Attorney Harrison Allen stated to the court that such proceedings would be satisfactory to him and that Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, the parents of the deceased, informed him that they would be better satisfied to have Oakman have a life sentence than to hang, if he was found guilty. Oakman was then allowed to plead guilty to murder in the second degree and he will receive a life sentence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The jury was dismissed.

Jury Completed.

The Oakman murder trial was commenced vesterday, but it was not until late in the afternoon that the first witness was colled to the stand. The Jury which was not completed until almost 3 o'clock, was comprised of the following:

J. A. Kirkwood. Pred Road, Ben Patton, Ed Ward, George Stitt, O. M. Galloway, J. A. Ray, Dan Berkhalter. Joseph Hayes. William Martin, J. J. Mencham and William Hollenbeck. Immediately upon relecting the jury the opening statement was made by the respective ecunsel, when the introduction of evidence was begue.

Mether Pirst Witness.

The first witness was Mrs. C. Bennett.

The first witness was Mrs. C. Rennett, mother of the murdered man, Frank A. Bennett. Mrs. Bennett testified that she had known Bert Oakman about one year, and that the first difficulty arose between Oakman and her deseased son June 5, last, when Oakman became angry because her son had broken his bicycle. Mrs. Bennett and her daughter talked with Oakman after this quarrel, at which time Oakman informed Mrs. Bennett that he would kill her son Frank some time. She said to him: "You know what will become of you if you do."

He said: "I don't care." Several other witnesses were examined, the substance of their testimony being that Oakman had made many threats against Bennett and that he struck the first blow on the night of the murder. Court then adjourned until this morning.
