

Gotham Baseball Fans Most Ready to Give Gibbons Logical Opponent for "Carp"

New Yorkers Appear to Be Out of Races

By Jack Velock, International News Service Staff Editor. NEW YORK, July 11.—Baseball fans of Gotham are beginning to look with doubt on the chances of the Yankees and the pennant races. At the outset of the season both New York teams were highly touted as possible flag winners, but with the schedule played out and neither club having shown sustained winning ability, New York's hopes of supporting a world's series next fall have been greatly weakened.

Each New York team has shown flashes of fine form, winning many games against the strongest clubs in their respective leagues, but each has faltered against the weaker teams and neither has had the consistent pitching necessary to force their way into the leadership. In contrast the world's champion Cleveland Indians have breezed along evenly since the season opened. Tris Speaker's team never seems to know when it is being beaten, and is rolling along today with a 3 1/2 lead over the Yankees, a clip 18 points better than the 434 percentage with which it captured the 1920 pennant.

Hutchinson's Win in Open Golf Play Not Very Popular

NEW YORK, July 11.—(U. P.)—Somebody just "handed Jack Hutchinson the cup" after he had won the British open championship, according to the American golfer's version of the much-discussed episode. Hutchinson arrived yesterday from Scotland. "I guess they did not like me because I turned American. The only friends I had on the course were my father and the Americans in the gallery. After I had won some of the better prizes I handed me the cup. There wasn't the usual speeches," he said.

Jim Morris Wins Way to Hearts of Portland Casters

THE casters who attended the all-day program at Jim Morris' place on Oswego lake Sunday certainly were entertained royally. Jim had things arranged so that the casting events were held in the morning, followed by lunch, and then came three more contests. Some mighty good scores were turned in and things look bright for Portlanders to give the Eastern entries in the annual national fly and bait casting tournament, billed for Sellwood park next month, under the auspices of the Multnomah Anglers club, a run for fight honors.

Portland Swordsman Retains His Crown

Scoring 15 points, Carl Nelson of Portland successfully defended his title as broadsword champion of the world, against C. W. Prince of San Francisco, Sunday, on the Vaughn street grounds. In Sunday's match, 28 charges were made before Nelson won the match, which consisted of 29 rounds. No points are scored, however, where both make hits at the same time. A severe cut on the forehead, sustained as the result of wearing a small mask, resulted in Nelson losing a lot of effectiveness during the last stages of the contest.

Big Schedule of Tennis Matches Is Billed for Today

The preliminary and first round of the twenty-third annual Oregon state tennis tournament is scheduled to start at 10 o'clock this morning on the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club courts. Because of the unusually large entry list, the committee in charge has deemed it necessary that all matches be played at the time scheduled, and failure on the part of the contestants to appear within 15 minutes of the appointed hour will result in a default.

Gibbons and "Carp" Would Be Good Bout

By James J. Corbett (Former World's Heavyweight Champion) Written Especially for International News Service. NEW YORK, July 11.—George Carpentier versus Tom Gibbons! Here's a match that will be worth while. It ought to be a hammer, a match full of action. I imagine, too, that it would fill Tom Rickard's big Jersey City arena.

Dempsey Admits He Was Dazed His Own Story of Second Round

By Sam Hall Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, July 11.—Jack Dempsey, during his visit here, admitted that he was hurt and dazed by that now famous right hander that Georges Carpentier landed on his jaw in the big fight at Jersey City last night. Carpentier being a little slower in landing the second blow—and struck a little harder, it might have been a different story. The first blow to the jaw dazed Dempsey, but the second tended to "brush the cobwebs from my brain," as Jack explained it.
