

GLIMPSES OF FARM AND RANCH IN OREGON WHICH HAVE PRODUCED 313 MILLIONS THIS YEAR

RANDOM scenes illustrating the varied agricultural and livestock output of the state. 1—Band of sheep on an Eastern Oregon range. 2—Strawberries are an important crop every year. 3—The aggregate value of Oregon's 90,500 horses is $8,000,000. 4—Oregon farms produced 47,000,000 pounds of loganberries during the past year. 5—Turning the sod in Eastern Oregon by tractor-drawn plows. 6—Oregon's wheat yield for 1922 aggregated $23,000,000. 7—Hogs worth $21,000,000 are included among Oregon's farm wealth. 8—Seven million boxes of apples were produced in the orchards of the state. 9—Cattle worth $12,000,000 roamed the great Central Oregon ranges. 10—More than $7,000,000 represents the worth of Oregon's dairy herds. 11—In the Willamette valley. 12—Oregon's wealth in poultry and eggs totals $30,000,000. 13—An Oregon orchard in blossom time.

