ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

Tomorrow, Valentine, the patron saint of all lovers, especially amateurs, will receive proper recognition all over the civilized world.

The name is, or was a very common one, and we find on going back into the time of the Emperor Claudius (Gothicus) that there was another Valentine, who was a presbyter and martyr.

It was perhaps on account of the day having two or more patron saints that it was selected as the day in which happy love might give vent to its feelings.

We hope THE CHRONICLE readers—especially the young perusers of our invaluable sheet—will all receive a quantum suff. of billing doves, pierced hearts, and the divers and sundry emblems that show how much and how anguishingly they are beloved.

Palmer & Rey, in their patent outside and inside for the country papers, have reprinted the pictures of the state officers, and the members of the legislature.

Ten days loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher.

Unusual British Sentiment. LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Pall Mall Gazette, in an editorial on the Hawaiian question, says: "There seems to be no hope for Hawaii save in a protectorate. America is a good friend and cousin of ours, and if some one must have the islands we know of no power with a better right to it."
