SENATE IS AT WORK

Committees Appointed and Bills Introduced.

JOHNSON OF LINN GETS FIRST BILL

General Lee Denies Sending Any Message to Secretary Olney by Senator Money.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 12.—The senate was promptly called to order at 10 o'clock by President Simon. Divine blessing was invoked by Rev. J. Bowersox, after which yesterday's journal was read and approved.

President Simon then announced the appointment of standing committees as follows:

Assessment and Taxation—Hughes, Patterson (of Marion), Price, Mulkey, Mackay.

Education—McClung, Harmon, Mulkey.

Elections and Privileges—Mulkey, Gesner, Smith.

Engrossed Bills—Gesner, Reed, Mitchell.

Revision of Laws—Patterson (of Washington), McClung, Reed, Hobson, King.
Medicine (Pharmacy, Dentistry)—Calbreath, Driver, Daly.

Military Affairs—Price, Haseltine, Gesner.
Penal Institutions—Driver, Hodson, Selling.

Mining—Johnson, King, Holt.
Municipal Corporations—Haseltine, Harmon, Calbreath.

Printing—Michell, Mackay, Smith.
Public Buildings and Institutions—Hobson, Patterson (of Washington), Wade.

Public Lands—Patterson (of Marion), Mulkey, Dawson, Haseltine, Wade.
Railroads—Brownell, Gowan, Patterson (of Washington), Mackay, Dawson.

Roads and Highways—Dawson, Carter, Hodson, Brownell, Daly.
Ways and Means—Taylor, McClung, Selling, Hughes, Dawson.

Under the head of petitions, memorials and resolutions, Mackay introduced a concurrent resolution that standing committees on printing in the senate and house be made a joint committee to investigate the cost of state printing and that the committee be empowered to employ two experts. The committee is also to report what, in its judgment, will effect a saving to the taxpayers. The resolution was adopted.

Reed of Douglas introduced a concurrent resolution that a committee of two from the senate and three from the house be appointed to confer with a similar committee from the state of Washington to consider the interests of both states, especially the fishing industry; the resolution was adopted.

On motion of McClung, the secretary of state was requested to supply each senator with $5 worth of postage stamps and $1 worth of paper wrappers. Harmon introduced a concurrent resolution that a joint committee of two from the senate and three from the house visit the state agricultural college and report upon its efficiency and management.

The next order of business was the introduction of bills. Johnson of Linn secured the honor of introducing the first bill. His bill provided for the abolition of the state board of equalization. Twenty-one bills were introduced during the morning session, as follows:

By Daly, to repeal the act creating a board of railroad commissioners; Brownell, to abolish the railroad commission; Price, to amend the code relating to the collection of taxes; McClung, to define the term "land and real property" for the purpose of taxation; Mackay, amending the pilotage laws; Price, to secure more convenient assessment and collection of school taxes; Harmon, a bill providing for a registry law; McClung, fixing the rate of interest at 6 per cent. and 8 by special contract; King, incorporating Baker City; Selling, to regulate and fix the compensation of the prosecuting attorney, assessor and other officers of Multnomah county. The bill fixes the salary of the prosecuting attorney at $4000 per annum. Brownell, fixing the rate of interest at 5 per cent.; Daly, relating to assessment and collection of taxes; Dawson, requiring county treasurers to pay half the state taxes on the first Monday in April, the other half in October; Mackay, permitting the appointment of corporations as guardians, executors and administrators; Price, providing for a lien upon crops for labor performed; McClung, to define the qualifications of school electors; Smith, requiring bonds of contractors on all public works; Patterson of Washington, providing for county boards of health.

He Was on the Three Friends.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. Jan. 12.—Cubans are greatly worried over the appearance before the federal grand jury of P. M. Dawley, an artist, who was supposed to be on the Three Friends during her last trip. Dawley refused to say a word, however, claiming that he would incriminate himself.

Owner Biebe is disappointed at not receiving permission from Washington for the Dauntless to clear for Nuevitas. He has a very large and valuable cargo waiting for him, including two dynamite guns.

It is understood through a private dispatch from Washington that the Spanish consul there is doing all he can to prevent clearance papers from being issued, as he fears the effect of the successful landing of another expedition.

The revenue cutter Colfax steamed up last night, making two cutters here and two fleet men-of-war at the mouth of the river.

THE TACOMA OVERDUE.

Fears Are Expressed That She May Be Lost.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Jan. 11.—Great fear is entertained here for the safety of the Northern Pacific steamer Tacoma, now eight days overdue, and 22 days out from Yokohama. The steamer Aganpanthus, which left Yokohama on the same date as the Tacoma, arrived four days late, and reported the worst trip of her career from rough weather. On several former occasions the steamer Tacoma has made the trip in 13 days. Her cargo consists of tea, rice, silk and Chinese goods.

Tea is "good" when you like it; not good when you don't.

If you don't like Schilling's Best, the grocer pays you back your money; we pay him to do so.

It is a good tea, well cured, and fired in San Francisco—not in Asia.

LEE AGAIN DENIES IT.

He Sent No Message by Money to Olney.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A Herald special from Havana says:

Consul-General Lee has authorized your correspondent to deny the truth of the statement telegraphed him by the Herald as follows:

"Money reports that on leaving Havana you gave him the following message: 'See Olney: tell him I am more firmly convinced than ever that Spain cannot put down the insurrection, and that every day it continues it means loss of life and property without the remotest encouragement for Spanish success. I long since told him the insurrection would succeed, and my judgment receives daily confirmation.' Will you kindly cable the Herald whether this is so.

"How can I best put the denial?" your correspondent asked.

The general seized a pen and wrote in vigorous characters:

"I gave Mr. Money no message to Mr. Olney of any nature," said the general, as he signed the message. Do you believe that Senator-elect Money is the correspondent of a New York newspaper, as alleged by La Lucha today?"

"Moot certainly I do."

A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Tribune will be mailed to you.
