Thin, Pale Children

One satisfaction in giving Scott's Emulsion to children is they never object to it. The fact is, they soon become fond of it. Another satisfaction is because it will make them plump, and give them growth and prosperity. It should be given to all children who are too thin, or too pale. It does not make them over-fat, but plump.

It strengthens the digestive organs and the nerves, and furnishes material for rich blood.

We have a book telling you more on the subject. Sent free for the asking.

OLD-TIME SOUTHERN SPORT.

Members of Hunting Clubs on Whom Big Fines Were Imposed.

Among the sports of olden times the hunting clubs were prominent everywhere, says the Atlanta Constitution. In Camden county one of the most famous of clubhouses in this country was built at Bear Hammock and kept under the supervision of Gen. John Floyd. It was there that the Camden County Hunting club organized in 1832, held its meetings, made its rules and imposed its fines.

The charter members of the club were Charles R. Floyd, Richard Floyd, Henry Floyd John Floyd, Ben Hopkins, J. H. Dilworth, James Holzendorf, John Holzendorf, Alexander Holzendorf, P. M. Nightingale, William Berrie and Henry de Bignon. Several members joined afterward. The club dress was a scarlet jacket and black pantaloons and a fine of 500 copper caps was imposed on Alexander Holzendorf at one meeting for not having on the regulation dress. No member was to be absent from the meetings unless by good excuse, and James Holzendorf was fined 1,000 copper caps for one absence. After the day's hunt, sometimes with the luck of 16 deer, an elegant dinner was served before dispersing.

The 16th rule read: "Game is considered by the club to be deer, bear, hogs, cows, bulls, wildcats and turkeys." Wild cattle and hogs abounded in the woods in those days, the latter living to an old age, which was told by the tusks, sometimes eight to ten inches long.

PASSING OF THE FAKE AUCTION.

One Kind of Business That is Happily and Permanently Suspended.

Where has the jewelry auctioneer gone? Up to three years ago there were at least a dozen places on the South side where a gaudy display of watches, diamonds and revolvers in the windows called attention to a scarcely less gaudy auctioneer within. He stood on an elevation behind the counter; he had "cappers" both inside and outside the place, and his sonorous tones were ringing all the time. He watched the stream of passers-by on the street and "backed the play" of the cappers. He said all manner of watches, and he always "got the best of it."

As a rule, says the Chicago Post, these salesmen were excellent auctioneers and knew all the wiles of their craft.

Up to two years ago some of them were still running, but they gradually faded out, and now there is not one, with the trifling exception of a Saturday night fling in West Madison street. They must do a good business, selling quantities of material at an excellent price. But there was an end of all things in their line and the jewelry auction has vanished.

Gambling in India.

Amongst the Hindus throughout the whole of India there is a holiday celebration in honor of Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth and good fortune, whereon gambling is universally regarded as a religious duty. It is known as the festival of lumps, and on that day all classes indulge in games of chance with shells, coins, cards, dice, etc., and the future of the individual, whether good or bad, is looked upon as a forecast of his wealth or poverty during the ensuing year. The women take a most intense interest in the proceedings, and, if fortunate, expend their wifings in the purchase of sweet-meats and fruits, as gifts to all their friends and relations, toys for the small children and fireworks for the boys. At Benares, their sacred city, as night approaches, small earthen lamps, fed with oil, are kindled, making the outlines of every mansion, palace, temple and minaret visible. All vessels in the river are also illuminated; so that the whole city is one blaze of light.

Soap Foam excels all other washing compounds. a2-3m

INSECTS.

M. DE L'ISLE discovered an animalcule that could run six inches in a second, and calculated that it must move its legs no less than 1,200 times in that brief period.

The millers are greatly annoyed by worms which appear in the flour from time to time and then mysteriously disappear, without impairing the value of the flour.

LATHRILLE once cut off the antennae of an ant, and its companions, evidently compassionate its sufferings, appointed the wounded parts with drops of fluid from their mouths.

The aphides are the milch kine of the ants, and are regularly approached and milked by the latter. Ants have been known to keep the aphides in captivity, as cows are kept in cities.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

Nobility consists in virtue.—Don Quixote.

BETTER not be at all than not be noble.—Tennyson.

MODESTY, prudence, wit and civility are the elements of true nobility.—German Proverb.

CHARACTER is not cut in marble, it is not something solid and unalterable. It is something living and changing, and may become diseased as our bodies do.—George Eliot.

THE face of a woman, whatever be the force or extent of her mind, whatever be the importance of the object she pursues, is always an obstacle or a reason in the story of her life.—Mme. de Staël.

Just Retribution.

"Did you hear about Andy?" asked one reminiscence westerner of another. "No? Well, Andy made a strike of sixty-five thousand dollars at Cripple Creek. As soon as he got the money in his hands he went down to Denver and blew it in. Rum, cards and fun. You know how it is. The morning that he woke up sober and found all his money gone he set out to punish himself by walking to Cripple Creek. He wouldn't borrow a cent. A fellow who was tending for me overtook him and offered him a lift, but he wouldn't get in, and he plugged along muttering to himself: 'Walk, curse yer, walk. Blow in your dust, will yer? Then walk, you fool. It'll do you good. No, you needn't stop at no spring. Ain't you drunk enough?' Go dry, you son of a gun. Light out and walk, you durned jackass." And he did.

Be Charged the Day.

"During the era of 'reconstruction' in South Carolina one Pompey Smash, a coal-black negro, became a 'trial justice.' It was not long before Pompey had a case before him. When the jury arose and began moving toward the adjoining room for consultation one of the lawyers interposed and said: 'May it please your honor, you have not charged the jury.' Whereupon Judge Pompey gathered himself up, and, with all possible dignity, said: 'Gentlemen of the jury, as dis is de first time I have had you before me, I charge each one of you one dollar and a half.'
