WILL BE RATIFIED

Hawaiian Annexation Advocates Confident of Victory.

FIFTY-SEVEN FOR RATIFICATION

Eleven Are Undecided, and From These the Three Votes Lacking Will Probably Come.

New York, June 17.—A Herald special from Washington says:

There are 57 senators who can be counted on to vote for the ratification of the Hawaiian annexation treaty. This is just three short of the requisite two-thirds. There are 11 other senators who are undecided as to how they will vote and 21 who are opposed to the treaty. Those in favor of annexation are:

Aldrich, Allen, Allison, Baker, Burrows, Cannon, Carter, Chandler, Clark, Cullum, Davis, Deboe, Elkins, Fairbanks, Foraker, Frye, Gallinger, Gear, Heitfeld, Hoar, Jones of Nevada, Kyle, Lodge, McBride, McMillan, Mantle, Mason, Morgan, Morrill, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Pettus, Pritchard, Proctor, Quay, Rawlins, Roach, Sewell, Shoup, Spooner, Stewart, Teller, Thurston, Turner, Turpie, Warren, Wellington, Wetmore, Wilson, Wolcott, Platt of Connecticut, Platt of New York, Hale, Hanna, Hansbrough, Hawley.

Those who are undecided are: Butler, Daniel, Gorman, Kenny, Harris of Kansas, McLaurin, Mallory, Martin, Mitchell, Murphy, Smith.

Those opposed to the ratification of the treaty are:

Bacon, Bate, Berry, Caffery, Chilton, Clay, Cockrell, Faulkner, Gray, Harris of Tennessee, Jones of Arkansas, Lindsay, McNary, Mills, Pasco, Pettigrew, Tillman, Vest, Walthall, White.

This is the result of a careful canvass of the senate. The advocates of annexation are confident of their ability to secure the necessary votes and bring about the ratification of the treaty. Some of the senators who are noncommittal are inclined to favor annexation, but want to hear the arguments on both sides before finally deciding. Others are inclined to oppose the treaty, but they are open to conviction if its supporters can bring forward convincing arguments.

An Englishman's View of It.

PLYMOUTH, England, June 17.—Bishop Willis, of Honolulu, has just arrived here from Hawaii. In an interview he is quoted as saying the feeling in the islands is against United States and greatly in favor of British annexation. He said he thought if Great Britain would not take the country the next best course was for Japan to reinstate Queen Liliuokalani.

Referring to the proposed annexation of the islands by the United States, the bishop said the proposal was only advanced in order to please certain politicians, as America did not want the islands, because the Chinese exclusion act would become nullified if Hawaii was annexed. The bishop is quoted as saying there is no doubt Japan will enforce her claims in Hawaii, in which country her commercial prospects are good.

Liliuokalani's Grievance.

NEW YORK, June 17.—A Journal special from Washington says: In an interview ex-Queen Liliuokalani said, of the proposed treaty between the United States and Hawaii:

"Fifteen hundred people are giving away my country. The people of my country do not want to be annexed to the United States nor want annexation. It is the work of 1500 people, mostly Americans, who have settled in Hawaii. Of this number those who are not native born Americans are of American parentage.

"None of my people want the islands annexed. The population of the islands is 109,000. Of this number, 40,000 are native Hawaiians. The rest are Americans, Germans, Portuguese, Japanese, Chinese, English and small portion from other countries. The 1000 Americans who are responsible for what was done today are running the affairs of the islands.

"There is no provision made in this treaty for me. In the Harrison treaty I was allowed $20,000 per year, but that treaty never went into effect. I have not received one dollar from the United States. No one looked after my interests in the preparation of this treaty. Yet my people, who form so large a part of the population of the islands, would want justice done me."

AGAINST DEPUTY MARSHALS.

Desperate Battle in the Wilds of Indian Territory.

WICHITA, Kan., June 17.—A battle was fought between deputy United States marshals and outlaws in the heavily timbered country about 30 miles northeast of the town of Antlers, I. T., last night. The posse of deputies was headed by Deputy United States Marshal McEwan, of Leigh, I. T., and the leader of the outlaws was R. M. McCarty, who has an unenviable record as a "killer."

A bullet from McEwan's gun killed McCarty and seriously wounded a man who sat in front of him on his horse. McCarty was dead when the officers came up, but his companion was game and fought with pistol and knife until overcome. The rest of the outlaws escaped. One or two of the posse received slight wounds, but none were hurt seriously.

The wounded outlaw refused to give his name and told the officers just to call him "Judge". He has been lodged in the federal jail at Antlers on a charge of assault to kill a United States officer.

A MAN OF MANY NAMES.

Each Claimant for His Money Gives Him a New One.

MONTREAL, June 17.—Roland Israel Gideon Barnett, of No. 98 St. Francis Xavier street, this city claims to be a brother of the late Barney Barnato, the South African diamond king. Barnett states that Barnato's real name was Barney Isaac Aldri Barnett, and that he was one of four children, three boys and a girl, of whom Roland I. G. Barnett was the eldest.

The father was a musician, connoisseur of paintings and well-known picture restorer, and for years had charge of the estate of the old Earl of Dudley. He gave his children a first rate education. Barney was educated at Heidelberg, and the reason that he wore glasses was that he spoiled his eyes studying the strange German characters.

Barney, Roland asserts, was never a circus performer. The brothers parted in anger in England, Barney going to Kimberly and Roland coming to America. Roland will immediately open correspondence with the executors.

Too Much for Mrs. Craven.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—When the trial of the Angus-Craven case was resumed yesterday, Mrs. Craven's relations with Attorney J. R. Aitken and the cause of the latter's retirement from the ranks of counsel for the defendant were again gone into. It was sought on the part of the plaintiff to show that the attorney had declined to give false testimony even under a contract awarding him 5 per cent of the property which he was engaged to wrest from the estate of Fair, but Mrs. Craven was taken sick suddenly, the strain of the past four days having proved too much for her, court adjourned.

One business man wanted in every city (not already taken) for exclusive sale of manufactured goods. Applicant must furnish few hundred dollars cash capital to carry small stock of saleable merchandise with which to supply his own customers after orders are first secured. Two hundred dollars monthly profit assured over all expenses. State references, qualifications, etc.

"SAILOR" TO THE RESCUE.

An Entire Crew Saved by the Intelligence of a "Dog."

About twelve miles from Halifax, writes a Canadian correspondent, lies Cow bay, a picturesque inland sweep of sea, where on the calmest day the waves break in long lines of surf and foam, rushing shoreward with a tumult and an exhalation of strong, invigorating sea air. But under the lash of a southeast storm the waves come tumbling furiously landward, towering mountains high and thundering upon the sandy coast with a roar that can be heard miles away.

It was in such a gale in October, 1891, that the schooner Dora, laden with codfish and bound for Halifax from St. John's, Newfoundland, was driven into Cow bay, and on the dangerous shoals lying some way out. There she lay laboring heavily, disabled by the loss of her mainmast, with the sea sweeping her deck, breaking the deck-houses and bulwarks and smashing the boats.

The crew, fearful of being washed overboard, lashed themselves to the standing rigging. They had nothing on board to signal the shore except a pneumatic fog-horn, which was kept moaning out the sounds of distress. They were heard by a family named M—, living close to the beach, and by some fishermen, who all hastened down to see if anything could be done. But the rope that was flung out time and again only fell far short into the sea.

At last, when all efforts seemed in vain, Mr. M— thought of sending out a line by his dog "Sailor," a fine Newfoundland and a powerful swimmer. A cod line was fastened to his collar. The noble animal seemed to understand what was required of him, as with a bound he bravely answered the guiding hand and voice of his master.

He plunged into the sea, and, though swept ashore several times by the immense waves, at last reached the schooner, where he was hauled on board by the shipwrecked crew.

A small rope was fastened to the line by those on shore. Next a hawser was sent out and made fast to the mainmast, and then to a tree some way up the beach. A cradle made by the crew was then placed on the hawser, and by its means all the sailors reached the shore.
