Americans Are Making It Warm for the Samar Rebels—Lubban is Anxious to Negotiate Terms of Surrender.

MANILA, Dec. 3.—Advice from Catbalogan, capital of the island of Samar, report that the insurgent General Lubban has offered to negotiate terms of surrender with General Smith. To this offer the American commander replied that the time for negotiations had passed.

Lieutenant Commander James M. Held, commanding the United States gunboat Frolic, during November destroyed 147 boats engaged in smuggling supplies to the insurgents.

General Smith has ordered all male Filipinos to leave the coast town for the interior. In order to be allowed to return they must bring guns, prisoners or information of the whereabouts of insurgents.

Five hundred natives of Catbalogan have volunteered to fight insurgents in order to bring peace to Samar. Of these 100 have accepted. They are armed with bolos and spears, and are doing scouting duty under command of Lieutenant Compton.

At daylight yesterday Lieutenant Baine, of the Ninth Infantry, attacked and destroyed a rebel fort, inflicting heavy loss, and captured the officers' breakfast, which included canned goods. He found at the fort an arsenal with appliances for making and reloading cartridges.

The American marines are working havoc with the insurgent cause in the southern part of Samar. Lieutenant William B. Fletcher, commanding the gunboat Quiros, has destroyed twelve salt manufactories, thirty-five tons of hemp, twelve tons of rice and several barricos, which served as rendezvous for the insurgents.
