WORTHY OF NOTE. - Last evening Mr. N. W. Randall handed us an apple of last years growth. It is of the variety known as, the "Yellow Newtown Pippin," and, from its present appearance, it would keep until next October. He had several bushels of these apples, kept them in an open cellar, and had them for use until within a very short time, this one, being the last of the lot. It is to be regretted that Mr. Randall did not save a few and put them on exhibition at our coming State Fair.

THE PERITENTIARY .- While in Salem last week, we visited the Penitentiary upon the invitation of Major Berry, Superintendent. Under his control, every thing | the proceeds paid over punctually, goes on in cleek like regularity and sys-
