WANTED! 1-O-O-O

WEEKLY STATESMAN!

Premium Announcement!

Two Papers for the Price of One, or Four Papers for Less than the Price of Two.

An excellent farmers' paper given away with the STATESMAN.

THE AMERICAN FARMER, a sixteen-page agricultural magazine, published at Fort Wayne, Ind., is one of the leading agricultural journals of the country. It is devoted exclusively to the interests of the Farmer, Stock-breeder, Dairyman, Gardener, and Householder, and every species of industry connected with that great portion of people, the farmers. Farmers can not well get along without it. It puts new ideas in their minds. It teaches them how to farm with profit. It makes the home happy, the young folks cheerful, and the growler contented. The subscription price of the FARMER is $1 per year. It is published monthly—twelve numbers a year.

To all new subscribers to the Daily or Weekly STATESMAN who, after August 1st, 1886, subscribe and pay one year's subscription in advance, the American Farmer will be sent one year free of charge.

Old subscribers to the STATESMAN who pay up all arrears and one year in advance will receive the American Farmer one year free of charge.

Old subscribers who will pay up all arrears and one year in advance, may subscribe for another copy of the Weekly STATESMAN for $1.50, and the American Farmer will also be sent to the new name, thus giving four papers for less than the price of two; but the additional name must be that of some person who is not a subscriber to the Statesman—a new subscriber. If you are not a subscriber, and you have a friend who is also not a subscriber, you may each receive the Weekly STATESMAN and the premium paper for $3.50, which is 50 cents less than the price of the Statesman alone. Send the Weekly and the premium to friends in the east. It will be appreciated.

This premium announcement refers only to cash subscribers.

This proposition holds good only till January 1st, 1887, after which date no subscription will be taken on these terms.

Subscription price: Daily STATESMAN, per annum, $6; Weekly STATESMAN, per annum, $2.
