EASTERN NEWS.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

A Quorum in the Senate Present, But not Enough in the House. Washington, Jan. 2.-There was more than a quorum of Senators present.

Among the petitions and memorials presented and referred was one by Edmunds from the branch of the Woman's Relief Board of Salt Lake City, remonstrating against any action of Congress looking to the admission of Utah as a State. Edmonds said he was happy to think there was not much danger of any such action at this session. Another by Hoar to prohibit disenfranchisement on account of sex. One by Sherman from the Boston board of trade for suppression of the pur-chase of silver bullion and the coinage of silver dollars.

Not more than seventy-five members were in attendance after the reading of the journal. The speaker proceeded to call on the committees for reports, but none were submitted. A bill was passed granting annual leave of absence of thirty days to employes at the bureau of engrav-ing and printing, in place of fifteen days.

THE WOOL MARKET FIRM.

The Demand for Wool Steady in Beston Holders Indifferent About Selling.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 2.—The demand for wool is steady. The proportions of the sales is good. The prices remain very firm and unless the outside values can be obtained, holders of desirable wools are indifferent about selling. A small stock of domestic wool is reason enough for dealers to hold on to their supplies. In Territory and other unwashed wools have been sales of scoured on a basis of 50@63 cents for fine and medium. Pulled wools will sell at 40@42 cents and Western superfine at 33@35 cents principally.

THE SENATE IN SESSION.

Those Present, and How They Straggled in The Tariff Bill Taken Up.

Washington, D. C. Dec. 2.—There was almost the usual quota of Senators present when Chaplain Butler made the opening prayer in the Senate to-day. Senators Paddock, Herkingson, Davis and Chandler were early in the chamber. Saulsbury arrived some minutes before noo, and sitting down at the side of Senator George explained to him at great length the political status in Delaware. length the political status in Delaware. At noon, when Senator Ingalls called the Senate to order there were present Senators Morrill, Platt, Hoar, Paddočk, Davis, Chandler, Gibson, George, Bates, Saulsbury, Pasco, Teller, Allison, Manderson, Hiscock and Edwards; McPhersod entered during the prayer. Before the reading of the journal concluded Cockrill entered. Messrs. Dolph, Hale, Wilson of Iowa, McCullom, Pugh, Ransom, Vance. Payne, Coke, Palmer, Stewart, Aldrich and Sherman entered before the end of the morning hour. A quorum was present. The galleries were filled. The Misses Hasting, who are guests of President Cleveland at the White House, occupied the executive guests of President Cleveland at the White House, occupied the executive gallery. A large basket of flowers adorned the desk of Senator Stanford. At the close of the morning hour the consideration of the ariff was resumed, the pending question being the amendment, making the rate on yarns 35 per cent. ad valorem, instead of ten cents per pound.

MORE PISHERIES DISPUTE.

Senator Hoar Introduces a Resolution Con-corning Seal Fisheries. Washington, Jan. 2.—Senator Hoar to-day introduced a resolution which was adopted, asking the President to trans-mit to Congress any correspondence he has had with Great Britain concerning real fisheries in or near Behring Straits. especially as to the seizure of any vessel of the United States or other countries, and what regulations governing the fisheries have been adopted by this government. Hoar says there have been, and are still, widespread complaints of unjust discrimn made against American vessels that while they are not permitted to take seals out at sea, which is perfectly proper and right, no interference is made with the operations of vessels of other countries. particularly those of Great Britain, and he wants to know why.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 .- Mr. Morrow, of California, to-day presented to the House a memorial of the chamber of commerce, a memorial of the chamber of commerce, of San Francisco, calling attention to the aggressive action of the German government in the Samoan Islands, which it characterized as destructive to American interests, cruel and unjust to native inhabitants, and hostile to the United States. It states that the German government intends to subjugate the island, and such is its evident intention. The chamber of commerce, in the name of the Pacific coast, calls on Congress to take such decided action in Samoa that the American interest may be considered, the American interest may be considered, American citizenship respected, and the agreement by Germany with Britain and the United States in regard to the inde-pendance of the islands held inviolable.

PROPOSED AGREEMENT.

A Very Liberal Offer to the "Cow Countles." The following communication (unsigned) was received : Was received:

PORTLAND, OR., Jan. 1, 1889.
Hon. J. P. Wager. To the Honorable, the Senators and Assemblymen of the State of Oregon, representing Country

Counties:

Gentlemen:—We, the political representatives of the people of Multnomah county, convened in preliminaray caucus, have devised and propose for your consideration the enclosed political emergency contract. Please consider its provisions carefully. We think the amount of patronage apportioned to the country counties is more than they could with reason demand, but, in consideration of your faithfulness in the last great national struggle, and the little help you then afforded us, we feel more than usually generous this year. If you have business managers instruct them to sign for you, and countersign with their own name, that we may know whom to treat with Counties:

The Express Hag and the Mail Box Riffed of Their Contents.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Jan. 2.—The stage from Montesano was held up this evening at Bush prairie, three miles from this city, and the treasure-box of the Northwestern Express Co. and the mail bags were taken by the robber. No clew can be obtained as to the identity of the person, as he was masked and his feet were travel during the year 1889. (To Senators you will not feel the burdens incident to travel during the year 1889. (To Senators just elected we will extend passes from year to year covering the term of their office.) If, under the present damnable Democratic postal irregularities, any of these passes have gone estray, or those of 1889 don't reach you in due time, please notify our executive committee and the return mail will see you properly rese notify our executive committee and the return mail will see you properly possessed. It is to be hoped the enclosed contract may be signed by you as forwarded, but should the assinine characteristics be developed in some of your members, we will permit you to vote for a Speaker of the House from a country country, but in no other particular will we allow you any discretion. We sincerely hope the old adage, "There is honor among ————" may not be disproved in our intercourse with one another, for we are treating this matter as strictly confideninfercourse with one another, for we are treating this matter as strictly confidential and with a sincerity rendered superlative by its vital import. We give it to you, strictly in charge, do not discuss this matter with any one save a brother Legislator, and should there be any among your members so ignorant of the customs and usages which have herefore the governed the distribution of logislafore governed the distribution of legisla-tive patronage as to think that Multaomah is exacting too much under the provisions of this contract, we can assure him we are asking no more than have always been granted our predecessors and their man-agers, and we desire only to perpetuate a time hon-red practice. At this point it may be well to suggest with as much force as policy will permit that we oc-cupy the vantage ground and may ad-vance the interests of our friends or se-Paris, Jan. 2.—Boulanger held a reception last evening, which was very largely attended.
