SEASON'S FIRST "EVENT."

Tennessee's Pardner, Comedy-Drama, at the Frayer Thursday Next. Major Monte is to be congratulated for securing for his patrons the most successful of such a powerful play and as a "Tennessee's Pardner" will be seen at Frayer opera house, Thursday, December 6. "Tennessee's Pardner" is a comedy, and was suggested by one of Hart's stories of "Hoarding" but the original plot has been modified in order to admit of dramatic situations. The concluding names of a number distinguished players, including Corcoran, James M. Brophy and Williams. The play is handsomely staged, and is undoubtedly one of the most entertaining attractions on the coast. The success of "Tennessee's Pardner" has earned in past seasons for local playgoers of a treat to be related in the play's presentation in city next Thursday. No ad-vice will be made in the prices for engagement except that the first rows of the dress circle will be at $1.

THANKSGIVING SHOOTING.

Pigeons, Blarlocks and Live Turkeys were the targets in the shooting on Thanksgiving under auspices of the Pendleton Sports Association was greatly enjoyed by the shooters themselves, as well as spectators. The live pigeons were flyers and more than 100 were used from the traps. In shooting live pigeons H. J. Stillman and Fat were stood at the head of the class, former with 10 straight killed and latter with five straight. In the cock contest Al Despain got to front with a score of 90. Dr. C. J. Baker superintended the shooting. Live turkeys and had 15 big

MANHOOD RESTORED "CUPIDENE"

...the best of all...
FOR SALE BY TALLMAN & CO., DRUGGISTS, PENDLETON, OREGON.

THE WESTON NEIGHBORHOOD.

An Aggregate of 18,000 Bushels of Wheat Sold at 43 Cents.

The East Oregonian is indebted to the Weston Leader for the following items:
 The Leader learns from Mayor Blair that he intends shortly to close out his mercantile business.
 The following parties sold wheat at 43 cents a bushel this week: G. DeGraw, 6612 bushels; G. W. Stages, 6793; Mrs. Sarah Stages, 1492; Jake Clark, 900; Iven O'Harris, 1708; Thos. F. McCabe, 303; C. E. Jeffries, 389.
 The sickness of J. R. Killgore, assistant cashier of the Farmers' Bank of Weston, has developed into typhoid fever, and will keep him absent from the bank for several days more. "Bob" is missing from behind the counter, and meantime President Jamieson and Clerk Will Jamieson are doing double duty.
 Uncle William Lislehall went to Pendleton Saturday, accompanied by his son, J. P. Lislehall, to consult Dr. Smith. The physician said he would build up the health of the old pioneer as much as possible, but could not promise a cure of the chronic ailment from which he has so long been suffering.
 Dan B. Kirk and C. E. Flock started Monday for Franklin county, Wash., to "settle on" their new homesteads. This county, which contains the once celebrated sandy city, Pasco, upon which everyone was invited to keep his eye, has heretofore boasted of about 150 voters only. However, it is now rapidly being settled in the vicinity of Lake station. Two other Weston men, Will McDaniel and J. Gore, have taken up homesteads in Franklin county.
 Within a few days, probably by Saturday night, the electric lights at Weston will do their first glimmering. A good many houses have now been wired, and pole-setting was begun last Tuesday at noon. Tuesday afternoon, five men put up seven poles in two hours, which is considered a good record for inexperienced hands. Thursday the line will be strung, and many lights the municipality will order, and where they will be located, is a matter not yet settled.
 City election in Weston occurs Monday next. There are a mayor, four councilmen, a recorder and treasurer. To elect. The councilmen who retire are: Marvin O'Harris, Frank Salinger, J. C. Turner and B. R. Hall, the latter having resigned when he moved to Pendleton. Only two members of the board, M. A. Bryson and George Williams, are left as "nest-eggs."

A LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION.

A meeting to be held in Portland for the purpose of organizing a livestock association in Oregon. Active steps have been taken towards the formation of such an association and it is believed by those who have the scheme in charge that before the beginning of next year an association will be in operation that will be of the greatest value to all breeders and dealers in live stock. A meeting for the purpose of organization has been scheduled to be held at the office of "The Rural Spirit," in the Hamilton building, this city, December 10. At this meeting many of the breeders and dealers will be present and it is the general belief of those who are interested that an organization that will carry with it great weight and influence will be effected. At the present time this state has a woolgrowers' association and an Angora goat association. Each of these organizations fills its particular place of usefulness, but it is very evident that the breeders of cattle, hogs, horses, etc., stand in great need of some form of an organization. With such an association as is contemplated at this time the breeders of cattle throughout the state can improve their herds. New breeds can be introduced into the state and the expense to the association will be moderate, and every member can receive the benefit from the new stock at so small a fee that he will feel encouraged at the opportunity afforded him of bettering his herds. As it is today a farmer may be ever so desirous of raising fine stock and introducing new blood in his stables, but the expense is so great that it is absolutely impossible for him to follow out his desire.
 It is the general belief that with the organization of this association a new spirit will be shown among stock raisers in every part of the state. The contemplated organization is one that can certainly have but one result upon Oregon's livestock and that is its general perfection.

OREGON WEATHER BUREAU.

The Service it Has Been Rendering and is Going to Render Farmers in Particular.
 Portland, Nov. 30.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning Weather Bureaus caused dispatches to be sent to all the ports in this weather district, Oregon and Washington, forecasting a gale of wind and a rain storm. Information gathered from all the weather stations throughout the northwest pointed to such a storm and it was on this information that the warnings were ordered displayed. There were disturbances moving over Vancouver island with considerable velocity and this was believed to be a sure indication of gales. No information has as yet been received stating whether or not the storms came in accordance with the prediction.
 Thursday Weather Bureaus received orders from the agricultural department at Washington requesting him to make arrangements to send forecasts daily to the postmaster at Suver, in Polk county. Mr. Beale will wire the predictions to the official as soon as they are prepared in the morning. It is believed that they will reach the suver postoffice in time to enable the postmaster there to stamp the forecast on small sheets of paper and give the slips over to the rural mail delivery man before he starts out of his route in the morning. He will be instructed to provide every farmer on the route over which he travels with a copy of the weather predictions for the day, and the recipient will then be able to govern his day's work without fear that he will be caught in a rain storm when he is a mile from home with a load of hay or grain. In course of all these assertions seem absurd to one not acquainted with the accuracy with which predictions are made at the weather bureau, but it is a fact that the forecasts come to pass in the majority of instances.
 The agricultural department hope to bring the circulation of the weather reports to a stage of greater perfection after the close of congress which is about to convene. An appropriation will be secured from this congress for the purpose of making the rural mail delivery more extensive, and with the extension contemplated it will be possible to circulate the weather reports and predictions more generally. If our grandfathers could but know that the agricultural department at

Washington, at the present time, is endeavoring to establish a system to enable the farmers to determine whether they shall haul wood today in the sunshine, or shall rather cut the wood in the woods, where they would be under shelter and secure from rain, they might well exclaim, "What hath God wrought!"
A Thinking Machine.
 A famous inventor declares he has devised a machine that will abolish warfare. This machine is a boat that will go without men on board, and can be controlled for any distance without wires. It will obey orders from the land or it will act on its own judgment, according to the necessities of the situation. It will carry an unlimited quantity of explosives, which can be aimed with unerring accuracy. Progress has achieved wonders during this century. The fact that it can find no substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, proves the inestimable value of the Bitters. So long as constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles continue to affect mankind, so long will the Bitters stand as the one sure cure for them.

SUMPTER CITY ELECTION.

J. H. Robbins vs. Thomas McEwen for Mayor is the main issue.
 Sumpter will hold its annual municipal election next Monday. The time of battle has been drawn. The principal fight will be for the mayoralty. J. H. Robbins, president of the First Bank of Sumpter, is the non-partisan citizen's candidate; Thos. McEwen, president of the Sumpter Transporting and Storage Co., is the standard bearer of the opposition.
 Besides mayor, three councilmen, recorder and marshal are to be elected. The retiring members of the council are: Al Miller, P. D. Healy and J. T. Parkinson, neither of whom are candidates for re-election. The hold-over councilmen are A. W. Ellis, William Stinson and W. W. Looney.
 Aside from the two candidates for mayor, petitions for the following had been filed up to 1 o'clock Wednesday: Council—T. D. Bellingier, J. B. Stoddard, R. L. Noll and H. Griffin. Treasurer—W. R. Hawley and C. S. Durgan. Recorder—E. L. Manning, A. J. Larm and E. C. Robin.
 Marshal—Ed Rand, John Austin, Geo. Baker, J. W. Feagle and Max Schuepfer.

Pacific Fraternal Relief Society, PORTLAND, ORE., Charter Perpetual

The object of this Society is to furnish to its members a weekly indemnity for loss of time by reason of sickness or accident, also to those who may desire a funeral benefit may be added for a small additional cost. Men and women between the ages of 15 and 50 are eligible, provided they be of good moral character, and their application shows them to be in good health. Benefits are payable not to exceed eight weeks in any one sickness nor to exceed 100 weeks during any one year. Members are entitled to weekly benefits three months after date of certificate and funeral benefit one year after.
Why you should become a member of the Pacific Fraternal Relief Society.—Be cause sickness and accident are afflictions common to all. Because it insures you against loss of time in case of sickness or accident, indispositions that always come when least expected. Because where it is possible that you should never be disabled by sickness or accident, it is worth more than it costs to know that you are protected. Because it is not large sums of money or great fortunes that promise the greatest amount of happiness, but it is the little steady cash that is on hand at the right time. Because by making a small monthly payment into the Pacific Fraternal Relief Society you can acquire for yourself and those dependent upon you a financial benefit that will take the place of your weekly earnings, at the time of your adversity and thereby protect yourself, your family, your career, your insurance and your peace of mind. Because no person whose time is his capital, can afford to let that capital go unguarded. Therefore, accept today this grand and important protection—tomorrow may be too late.
 Persons engaged in extra hazardous occupations will not be admitted to membership.
Table of Benefits and Monthly Payments:—Class A, $10 weekly benefit, $1 per month; Class B, $20 weekly benefit, $2 per month; Class C, $30 weekly benefit, $3 per month; Class D, $40 weekly benefit, $4 per month; Class E, $50 weekly benefit, $5 per month. Certificates for weekly benefit for more than $5 will not be issued to women, nor to anyone under 18 years of age.
Funeral Benefit.—Members desiring the Funeral Benefit of $50 may obtain the same by paying in addition to their monthly dues as follows: Ages 15 to 30 inclusive, $1 per year; ages 31 to 40 inclusive, $1.50 per year; ages 41 to 50 inclusive, $2 per year.
Cost to Become a Member.—Membership fee, $1; certificate fee, 50c; total, $1.50.
Local Officers.—President and general manager, W. E. McMartin, Portland, Ore.; Big Yak Mining & Milling Co. vice-president and general organizer, J. E. Simmons, Portland, Ore.; secretary and treasurer, Jack Kemp, Portland, Ore.; room 205 Alaskan Bldg. counsel, Henry H. Taylor, Portland, Ore.; room 214 Chamber of Commerce. Financial records furnished to members.
