WM. FITZGERALD,

"The Shoe Man."

Successor to Joe Klien, Main Street.

Money to loan. E. D. Boyd. Mrs. Ruth, the clairvoyant, will remain one week longer. Full life readings $1. Office corner Alta and Crosby streets. The Rosa Rogers restaurant will be sold at public auction on February 8 at 2 o'clock. There will be some good bargains. For particulars see R. Martin. For sale—I have several good dwelling houses for sale cheap, and on easy terms; also a good feed barn in central location and doing a good business. E. D. Boyd. All imaginable kinds of white goods, silk dainties and organdies, for spring and summer wear have been received by the Peoples Warehouse. They should be seen to be appreciated. We invite you to examine our stock of "Sorrisis" shoes, the new shoe for women. Sorrisis shoes are the masterpiece of the shoemaker's art and the standard of the world. Alexander & Hexter. The stars and stripes float proudly above the school house on the hill today in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of John Marshall as the first chief justice of the United States. The month of February started off well as regards a record for snow and weather. On the 2d there fell one-half an inch of snow and on the 3d 5.8 inches, a total of 6.3 inches for the two days. The last day of January witnessed a snowfall of half an inch, so that it looked for a little while as though winter had returned to linger awhile, but there has been no good sleighing this month at yet. The weather for January was common. The maximum marking of the thermometer was 67 on the 13th and the lowest 12 degrees on the 7th.

PERSONAL MENTION.

John Endicott spent Sunday at Adams. Chris Simpson is very sick at his home in North Pendleton. Jesse Shull is sick with the grip at his home on lower Alta street. A. Boyten, of Pilot Rock, is in the city, at the Golden Rule hotel. Charles March, deputy county recorder, is at home sick with the grip. Charles J. Ferguson has returned from Walla Walla and will remain here. William P. Temple has returned from a visit of a week at Portland and Salem. E. A. Dudley, a prominent wheat-raiser of Athens, is a visitor in Pendleton today. T. M. Word, a bustling traveling man of Portland, is a guest of the Hotel Pendleton. E. H. Wilson, of Butter creek, engaged in the stock business, is a guest of the Golden Rule. Clark Wood, editor of the Weston Leader, spent Sabbath with Pendleton relatives and friends. Rev. R. Hargreaves, of Weston, was a guest at the Privett home over Sunday. He preached at the Baptist church morning and evening. Tom Jordan has passed the danger point with his attack of pneumonia at Pendleton sanitarium and was able to receive many callers on Sunday. Lester Lewis, popular and efficient fullback of the Pendleton academy football team has returned from Portland and will make his home in this city. Alex J. Oliver will give a grand masquerade ball at Echo on Thursday evening, February 14. Supper will be served at the Echo hotel. All are invited. William Doyle, colored porter at Privett's barber shop, is sick with the grip and was removed this morning to new quarters in the Penland lodging house. Sam Sloan, of the firm of Bardsley & Sloan, proprietors of the First and Last Chance saloon, will leave tonight for Phoenix, Ariz., for the benefit of his health. A. R. Chinn, a farmer of the Juniper country, is in Pendleton today. He says that some of the wheat on the south slope of the hills in this section of the county has been damaged by the frost. Milton Eagle: Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of Pendleton, has been visiting friends in and around Milton during the week. Mrs. Pierce spent her early childhood days in Milton and has many friends here who are always glad to greet her. She is a daughter of Mr. P. Kudlo. County Judge G. A. Hartman left Sunday night for Salem, with a grip sack full of choice typewritten changes to a number of laws already on the statute books. He is interested in a number of bills and will give the legislators his opinions regarding them in short order. Rev. George E. Varney, of Portland, general missionary for the state of Oregon of the Baptist denomination, will be in Pendleton on Sunday, February 10, and will preach morning and evening. He is one of the ablest men in the state of his denomination, and his sermons will be well worth hearing. Frank J. Parker, formerly editor and owner of the Walla Walla Statesman, was in Pendleton for a couple of hours this morning, as he arrived on the 6 o'clock train from Portland and left on the express for his home. He has been on a visit to Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco and his ranch in the extreme western part of Oregon. John E. Lathrop, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Parsons on Court street, is gradually regaining his health. It is aggravating to him to be so slow in getting stout, but as severe an attack of typhoid fever as he had left him decidedly weak. A little more strength and bright days of sunshine would make a combination that would enable him to be out for a promenade. John S. Hughes returned Sunday morning from a four months' trip and visit to Nevada, Grady and Joplin in the zinc region of Missouri. Nevada was Mr. Hughes' old home. At Grady he visited with his stepfather, Col. John Kingston, superintendent of the Grady Mining and Smelting company, controlling 30 mines, $14,000,000 strong. Mr. Hughes has had the intermittent fever for several weeks and made the return trip by way of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, California, stopped at San Francisco two weeks and visited at Portland.

Local Market.

Pendleton dealers are paying the following prices for ranch and farm produce: Butter, 40 to 60c per roll. Eggs—25c per doz. Potatoes—50c per sack. Beans—60c per sack. Cabbages—4c per pound. Turnips, 75c per 100 pounds. Turkeys—Alive, 12 1/2c per pound. Geese—$12 per dozen. Chickens, $2.50 to $4 per dozen. Ducks—45c per dozen.

A SUDDEN DEATH AT ALBA.

Mrs. George E. Stocker Dies at Her Home There This Morning. Mrs. Jennie Stocker, wife of George E. Stocker, the merchant at Alba, died at 2 o'clock this morning after an illness of only two or three days. She was stricken with the grip, and is said to have taken an overdose of laudanum in the effort to relieve her pain, and that apparently was the immediate cause of her death. Miss Mae Stocker, who has been in Pendleton this winter, left this morning for Alba on account of her mother's death. D. Kemler, a brother-in-law of Mr. Stocker, was talking with him by telephone this forenoon. Mr. Stocker said the remains would be brought to Pendleton on Tuesday, accompanied by the relatives, but that he had not yet decided whether interment would take place in Olney cemetery, or whether the body would be sent back to the old home in Pennsylvania for burial. Mrs. Stocker was a member of Daphne Circle, No. 2, Women of Woodcraft, in which she carried an insurance of $1000.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Testimony of All Witnesses Concluded in Colter Case. The case of the state vs. John "Scatty" Colter, accused of robbing Thomas L. Edwards of $100 in gold in front of the tamala joint on Court street on the 20th of last December, occupied the attention of court this morning. All the testimony of witnesses was introduced. Court is not in session today, taking a half holiday on account of it being the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of John Marshall as first chief justice of the United States. Argument will be made the first thing Tuesday morning. Mr. Colter made a good witness this morning in his own behalf. Lemar Raddock, for cattle stealing, and John Dyer for robbing the residence of Lincoln Mann, near Mission, each sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, left for that institution this morning in charge of Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely. Marshall Exercises This Evening. The committee having the matter in charge desire a good attendance at the court houses at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The occasion is the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of John Marshall as the first chief justice of the United States. The program as announced Friday's East Oregonian will be carried out, including 15 minute addresses by R. J. Slater, W. M. Pierce, James A. Fee, John McCourt, W. B. Ellis and T. G. Halley. Judge Stephen A. Lowell is at Weston to attend and address a John Marshall meeting under the auspices of the public schools this evening.

How to Wash Woollens.

No part of the laundry work is, as a rule, so unsatisfactory as the washing of the woollen garments. The structure of wool fibre is so different from that of linen and cotton that it should receive different treatment in the laundry. Rubbing and wringing cause the wool fibres to knot thus giving us a thickened and shrunken fabric; therefore woollen goods should be sopped and squeezed to remove the dirt, and the water should be pressed out, not wrung out.—Ladies' Home Journal.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Portland Nabelem & Tillamook railway company in Portland, nine directors were elected. These directors elected the following officers: President, Col. John McCracken; vice president, George T. Myers; secretary and attorney, William Reid.

The annual convention of the Northwest Fruitgrowers' Association, to be held in Portland, February 5, 6 and 7, will be attended by fruitgrowers of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and relieves the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drug-gists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

BAD COLDS

Quinine is ten years behind. Colds do not now have to be endured. MENDEL'S DYNAMIC TABLETS (called dynamic from their energy) crowd a week's ordinary treatment into twelve hours and abort the worst of colds overnight. "It was the worst case of grip I ever had. A half dozen friends had sure cures. Still it hung on. Heard of the DYNAMIC TABLETS. To my amazement they stopped both cold and cough the first night. I endorse and recommend them to the people." BARCLAY HENLEY, ex-Member Congress and Attorney, 101 Sansome street, San Francisco, July 7, 1900. "I live across the street from where MENDEL'S DYNAMIC TABLETS are made. That is how I first took them. They stop colds without notice. I took a dozen boxes with me for self and friends when I went to Nome." H. L. VAN WINKLE, Captain, 2011 Washington Street, San Francisco, August 10, 1900. Sent postage for 25 cents in stamps by INLAND BUREAU CO., 224 Washington Street, San Francisco.
