Senator George F. Hoar is 75 years old but, as has been his wont in the past, there was no special commemoration of the event. The senator's health is excellent and his zeal in public affairs, so strong a mark of his character, is as unabated as ever.

The day on which the first fruits of the harvest were blessed in the churches, which was celebrated throughout Russia this week, must have been a day of mourning in many of the provinces. The outlook has grown worse almost every week during the last few weeks. Even vegetables, including potatoes, have been largely burned by the scorching heat in some districts. The approaching winter will be one of the gloomiest Russia has ever seen.

No former Astoria regatta has opened as auspiciously as did the one which was heralded at sunrise Thursday morning by the firing of the National salute. Throughout the day, Astorians gave themselves up to the entertainment of the many thousands of visitors and did homage to the queen and her suite. The weather conditions were perfect, with an absolute calm during the morning just adapted for the rowing races and other events requiring still water.

The British bark Borado, bound from Callao for Portland, Or., went ashore at 1:30 Thursday morning nine miles south of the Coquille river. She struck head on and swung around, lay with her bow to the sea. She has about 100 tons of coal forward and some ballast aft.

St. Vilus's

Dance, or chorea, is one of the most pitiable afflictions humanity is called on to endure. That this disease can be cured, however, is proven by the fact that it has been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

When our daughter, Lizzie, had St. Vilus's dance, I happened to get one of your small books and read it. I writes Henry L. Miller, Esq. of New North St. Burlington, Iowa. "Among other things I found that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured patients suffering from that trouble, so I went out and got a bottle. She was very bad at that time and could hardly talk. When I read about your medicine in that small book, I said to myself with the help of God and that medicine we can cure our daughter. We did so. Four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' cured her, and I did not have to take her to the doctor any more. She is well, thank God and the 'Favorite Prescription' for it."

28 LOOSE CARS KILL 28 AND INJURE 13

Supt. Downs of Great Northern and Son.

26 LABORERS THE OTHER VICTIMS

The Bodies Were Consumed in the Flames That Tumbled the Wreck into a Horrible Holocaust.

Kalispel, Mont., Aug. 31.—Twenty-eight wild freight cars going down a mountain at lightning speed crashed into the Great Northern passenger train near Nias on Friday morning, demolishing the private car of Assistant General Superintendent Downs and a day coach full of laborers. Two wrecked cars caught fire and burned up. Downs and his son instantly were killed with their cook. Many laborers were killed and burned. The sleeping special car and the workers' coach were crushed like egg shells. The debris immediately took fire and the unfortunate were caught under the heavy timbers and burned to death. This was the fate met by Downs, his son and his cook. The burning cars destroyed the telegraph wires and it was many hours before relief could be sent for. Soon news of the disaster reached Kalispel and a score of physicians and nurses and a wrecking train were sent to the scene.

Portions of some of the bodies were on the relief train. It is believed that at least twenty of the corpses of the working men were destroyed by the flames. Many of the injured are in a serious condition and cannot recover. Later Report. The list of killed was increased to 36. Twenty-eight bodies were consumed in the wreck. Victims of Newark Wreck. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 31.—E. A. Bradley, the twelfth victim of the Newark wreck, died this morning.

CAPT. FORSYTH ALSO DENIES

Will Challenge Howison. Washington, Aug. 31.—Schley's counsel has determined to challenge the fitness of Admiral Howison to sit as a member of the court of inquiry. The challenge will be made so soon as the formal session of the court opens. They claim they have affidavits showing he has been a most ardent partisan of Sampson as against Schley.

In his letter to Acting Secretary of the Navy Hackett, Admiral Howison said: "The newspaper cutting in question contained a statement that I made a comparison between Schley and Sampson unfavorable to Schley."

"I am sure I could never have said this as he reports, nor said Schley had the reputation of being nervous and hot-headed in the naval academy. "I have no recollection of the gentleman reporting for the Boston Record and I do not approve his public statement as mine. "I cannot say I have not discussed with acquaintances matters published in the newspapers relating to our navy's success, as well as the unfortunate disputes so widely commented on. "If the department feels the cause of the navy and justice would be better served by relieving me from duty on the court, I am entirely ready to withdraw voluntarily or have the department relieve me upon its own initiative. "If, on the other hand, the department, knowing all the circumstances, desires I should perform the duty, am entirely ready to perform it, and can, upon my conscience and oath, do my duty as a member of the court, without partiality, as the law requires."

In reply Secretary Hackett wrote: "The department, let me assure you, has no purpose of relieving you of this duty. It has implicit confidence in your sense of justice and fair mindedness."

SOME GRAFTERS GRAFT $25

A Harvest Hand, Alex. Sietzki, Has the Familiar "Con" Experience. Yesterday morning a harvester calling himself Alex Sietzki came into town from the Casey ranch to buy some clothing and incidentally to get a few drinks. He visited the different saloons and by the middle of the afternoon had obtained a very comfortable jag. He was free with his money and took every opportunity to exhibit the contents of his pocket book.

Harvest sharpeners are numerous and in the course of his rounds, Sietzki became acquainted with two of them. During the conversation which followed he confided various facts concerning his career up to date and found to his agreeable surprise that his new friends were intimately acquainted with his former employer and had worked for him. When Sietzki had become very much intoxicated, one of the sharpeners suggested that if he, Sietzki, had any money about him it might be well to deposit it in a safe place and condescended to take charge of it himself. The victim agreed and passed over his purse containing $25. The arrangement was that the money should be returned in the morning when he had become sober. The "con" men pleaded an engagement and left Sietzki leaning almost helplessly on the bar. It dawned slowly on his fogged brain that something was wrong. He found a policeman and reported the circumstance.

Up to the present time, no trace of the grafters has been discovered. Chief of Police Heathman investigated the matter this morning, but was unable to discover any evidence that Sietzki had been held up. The victim, however, still holds to his story that he gave his money to a man who failed to keep his promise to return it.

NORMAL SCHOOL REGENTS

Will Meet on Monday to Transact Many Items of Business. R. Alexander, president of the board of trustees of the Oregon State normal school at Weston, expects to call to order on Monday a meeting of the board to consider a number of important items of business. One of the most important is the resignation of H. W. Monical, professor of sciences and vice president of the school. Mr. Monical tendered his resignation sometime ago, and has gone east to remain. His departure is regretted very much by the members of the board and the friends of the institution, who regarded him as a competent teacher. A successor will be selected, perhaps on Monday.

The board will also consider matters relating to the new hall now under construction, and its fitting. The hall will be a handsome structure, and place the school in a much better position to handle the work of the year. Regent J. H. Bailey is absent in the mountains, and Regent J. W. Serber is ill at his home in La Grande.

COLUMBIA WON FIRST RACE OF FINAL SERIES

Old Boat Beat the Constitution at Newport.

RIVALRY IS NOW VERY INTENSE

New York Yacht Club Members Secretly Fear the Columbia Will Win the Series Now On.

Brenton's Point, R., Aug. 31.—Columbia wins the first of the final series of races to determine whether the Columbia or Constitution is to be the defender against Lipton's challenger, Shamrock II. Two more races are scheduled for the final series.

Brenton's Point, R., Aug. 31.—The first race of the trial cup series to select a defender for the international contest was sailed over the Newport course today. Constitution and Columbia with eight victories to the credit of each will be pushed to their limit. The rivalry between the syndicates owning the boats has become intense. While the members of the New York Yacht club fondly cherish the desire that Constitution will be selected, they feel a secret dread that Columbia may win the series and make it necessary for the cup committee to select her. A fine 17-knot breeze blew and the sea was smooth when the yachts started.

SOME GOO GOO EYES IN PARIS

French War Minister and U. S. Naval Commander Felleitate Each Other. Paris, Aug. 31.—The visit yesterday of General Andre, the minister of war, to the United States training ship Hartford, which had put into La Rochelle to witness the Astoria regatta, was a very interesting one. After an inspection of the cadets who were drawn up on deck and being shown over the vessel, General Andre was entertained at luncheon. He expressed keen satisfaction at being aboard an American ship and said he hoped the visit would contribute to the tightening of the bonds of friendship uniting the sailors of the two nations. Commander John M. Hawley of the Hartford in response thanked General Andre for the honor of his unexpected visit and promised to inform his government of it. The ship's band then played the "Marseillaise" and "America." A banquet was given in the evening at which all the admirals and generals were present and to which the American officers were invited.

An Important Man.

A man vastly important in Oregon and who has seldom received much public attention is H. L. Pittock, business manager of the Portland Oregonian, of whom the Astoria Daily News thus speaks: Henry L. Pittock, business manager of the Oregonian, was on board the Harvest Queen yesterday afternoon, though not one of the royal party. Mr. Pittock is the man to whom, more than to any one else, the Oregonian owes its proud present position in the northwest. He is a little fellow, weight 150 pounds, but he is all man. His high personal character has been the anchor of the Oregonian through its entire career. Long life to H. L. Pittock.

The largest prison in the world is at Fresnes, France, eight miles from Paris.
