"On the Stroke of 12."
The sensational comedy drama, "On the Stroke of 12" begins an engagement at the Frazer Tuesday, November 11th the management of this enterprise promise a well-written drama, quick 'n action and relieved by a great variety of telling incidents. The cast this season has been selected with care and with a new scenic equipment. It should duplicate in the West its success in the East. The comedy incidents of the drama have not been slighted, but on the contrary, form the greater portion of the action. A novel Hebrew character, a negro servant and an Irish hostler are the leading comedy parts, and their lines and business are spirited and full of quick humor.

Don't Want Railroads.

Morocco threatens rebellion if railroads are introduced. We grumble because they are not built fast enough and do not run cars enough when built. That's the difference.—Exchange.

COLD IN HEAD

NOW FOR SEWERAGE

PENDLETON IS ON EARTH FOR PROGRESS.

The Health and Pride of Her People, and Her Position at the Front, Demand Improvements.

"We have been ready for this glad news for a coon's age," said a prominent citizen to an East Oregonian reporter today: "We were put upon earth to help make progress. We don't want to lag in our part of the work. The health of Pendleton families and the pride of Pendleton citizens, say that we need and must have a sewerage system in exact proportion to our business importance. Our streets are filled with wagons, loading Pendleton supplies for the interior districts. Our hotels are thronged with visitors and homeseekers, anxious to settle among us and put a shoulder to the wheel. Our own county comes to town to live and trade and be entertained. We want the conditions here to be equal to or better if possible, than in our sister cities and localities. That is why we want sewerage—a thorough, up-to-date, extensive system, that will leave no ground for doubt about the absolute healthfulness and cleanliness of our city."

Now for the work in hand. The preliminary step has been taken. The foundation has been laid for the task and Pendleton must put on her working clothes and begin to dig the trenches for the sewerage system.

The council's committee on sewers reported in favor of submitting the question to the people and the necessary steps toward holding a special election in the near future are now being taken. The people will vote for sewerage. It is already a certainty that the taxpayers of this city will unanimously decide that we shall have this improvement.

Although the sanitary conditions are not bad, considering the length of time that Pendleton has been a city, the time has come when we must provide a means of escape for the accumulation of filth. Our natural drainage and the uniform cleanliness among our people, have kept conditions fair. But the widening out of our borders and the filling up of the vacant spots with dwellings and business houses and the increasing population, demands some certain means of cleansing.

Actor and King.

Weedon Grossmith, the English comedian, who has opened the new Princess theater in New York, occupies a unique place in British society. The Grossmiths are a theatrical family, having been identified with dramatic art in Great Britain for several generations. Weedon Grossmith and his brother George, are personal friends of King Edward. They were guests at Sandringham when the king was the prince of Wales, and their intimacy has not lessened since he ascended the throne. There are a few other actors in England, who likewise enjoy friendship with royalty, but none to such a degree as do the Grossmiths.—Exchange.

Fabulous Wealth.

The U. S. geological survey reports show that in 1901 the precious minerals mined in the U. S. amounted to $495,000,000. The Sumpter district was not counted in this, but sufficient is known to show that on the mother lode alone over four million dollars were produced. This year the production will be far greater. The South Pole mine has about 5000 feet of ground on the richest part of the lode and within 12 months will add to production of that camp.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

E. S. Avey, editor of the Elam Echo, was bitten Tuesday by a dog that had symptoms of the rabies. The poor brute had been confined by some heartless person on the store top on Main street until he was almost dead from hunger and thirst. When Mr. Avey attempted to rescue him he bit him savagely on the right hand tearing almost all the flesh from the middle finger.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me must settle by October 10th or their accounts and notes will be placed in the hand of an attorney with instructions to collect. E. L. SMITH.

The Arkansas girl who wrote to her faithless lover, "When these riches you I will be no more except a cold clammy corpse," possibly thought it would be impossible to recover from such a bad spell.—Denver Post.
