COMMERCE—TRADE

GENERAL MARKETS DECIDEDLY BULLISH.

Sugar Jumps Another 10 Cents—Wheat is 61 Cents With Every Indication of Going to 65 Cents in a Few Weeks—Fresh Eggs Not to Be Had.

With the exceptions of one or two articles there is little change in the local markets.

Wheat remains at 61 cents with no movement whatever and no change is looked for in the local wheat market until after the holidays. Then it is predicted by those closely in touch with the conditions that wheat will reach at least 65 cents and it may go higher.

Sugar is 10 cents higher today than was noted yesterday. One week ago the best granulated was being quoted at $6.70 and today it is $6.30, making a rise of 60 cents within one week. Whether this is the top price it will reach or not local dealers refuse to offer an opinion, but from the way it has gone up within the past three days the indications are that sugar will become much higher yet.

Consumers are already wondering where they are going to come out, as where they were buying 100 pounds three months ago at $5, now they have to pay $6.30 for the same amount and only get 13 pounds for $1.

Beef and pork have dropped slightly, but not to effect the market. Hogs, alive, are $5.50 and $6 instead of $6 straight, while dressed hog meat is 7 1/2 cents a pound. Veal is 8 cents straight instead of 8 and 9, but steers have advanced slightly. From $3.60 a hundred on foot they are now quoted at $4.75. This increase is because of the stalled beef being much better than just off the grass.

There is no chance marked in eggs and butter, although dealers are shipping eggs from Chicago for home consumption. For the past two months it has been impossible for the dealers to get eggs at home to supply the demand. This forced them to resort to shipping in storehouse eggs and Swift & Co., of Chicago, has already shipped several carloads to Pendleton this fall. Eggs still remain at 35 cents a dozen, but those to be had, having to be shipped so far, are not very fresh.

The following shows the prices paid on the local market: Pineapples, $7.80 a dozen. Parsnips, 75c per sack. Cabbage, 2c per pound. Cheese, per pound 25c. Onions, 1 1/2c per pound. Green onions, 25c per doz. Beets, per pound, 1 1/2c. Potatoes, $1 per hundred. Garlic, 12 1/2c per pound.

Pendleton Live Stock and Poultry. Chickens, hens, per dozen, $2.50 to $3.50. Turkeys, per lb., 10c. Geese, per doz., $9. Spring chickens, per doz., $2.50 and $3.

Ducks, per doz., $3.50. Pigeons, per doz., $1.50. Eggs, 35c in trade. Butter, 50c and 80c per roll.

Choice Beef Cattle, Etc. Cows, per hundred, $3@3.15. Steers, $2.75. Hogs, live, $6. Hogs, dressed, 7 1/2c. Veal, dressed, 8c.

Pendleton Retail Grocery Prices. Coffee—Mocha and Java, best, 40c per lb.; next grade, 35c; per lb.; lower grades coffee, 25c to 15c per lb.; package coffee, 15c per lb.

Rice—Best head rice, 12 1/2c per lb.; next grade 8 1/2c per lb. Sugar—Cane granulated, best, $6.30 per sack; do, 13 pounds, $1. Salt—Coarse, $1.25 per 100; table, $2.50 per 100.

Flour—B. B., $1 per barrel; Walters', $4 per barrel. Wheat Market.

Portland, Dec. 11.—There is hardly any news since our last review in reference to the wheat market. Prices are not as firm. The partial decline in European cargo market and Eastern speculative markets has been reflected here. Disengaged tonnage is piling up and the free list in Northern waters is very large, larger than for many years past. About one-sixth of the crop still remains in farmers' hands; the other part of the crop is in exporters' and millers' hands, and they seem to have a surfeit of wheat. Interior warehouses are all pretty well filled up and show that there is plenty of wheat yet to go abroad in exporters' hands. Millers are in the market for choice wheat constantly, and only buy at reasonable prices. Quotations are: For club, 71 1/2c; blue-stem, 78c; valley, 76c per bushel. Receipts coming in daily are quite large.

San Francisco, Dec. 11.—The situation here remains practically unchanged and very little doing. New business is very scarce, and exporters experience great difficulty in securing wheat at ruling figures. Holders do not seem to be disposed in letting go whatever they have remaining of this year's crop. Local prices quoted here for shipping are $1.49; milling, $1.43 1/2 to $1.47 1/2 per cental. Higher prices will have to prevail to secure suitable shipping grades. In the meantime, the market for spot wheat is strong, as exporters have vessels on berth waiting to be loaded.

New York, Dec. 11.—Advices from South Africa appear to indicate that the demands for wheat and flour from there will continue several months, as agricultural conditions are unfavorable for the moment, farmers being comparatively scarce and poorly prepared to accomplish anything noteworthy. It will take a long time to recover from the damaging effects of the long struggle. Notwithstanding all the foolish grumbling about dullness, our exports since the beginning of the crop year five months ago, have been far in excess of preliminary estimates. The crop year is not half over, and yet we have already parted with fully two-thirds of our estimated exportable surplus.

Boston Wool Market. Boston, Dec. 11.—There is a strong and active market for all grades of wool, with a decided improvement in prices, dealers reporting an increased business, with an advance in many kinds of wool of 1/4 to 1/2c per pound. Territory wools continue in a very firm position, with an excellent movement. Fine staple territories, 56@60c; strictly fine, 50@55c; fine and fine medium, 56@53c; medium, 45@47c. The market for Oregon wools is steady at revised quotations: Eastern staple, 18@19c; choice, 14@15c; average, 12@13c.

Skins, Hides and Pelts. Hides—Dry hides, No. 1, 16 pounds and up, 15@15 1/2c per pound; dry kip, No. 1, 5 to 15 pounds, 12c; dry calf, No. 1, under 5 pounds, 10c; dry salted bulls and stags, one-third less than dry flint; salted hides, steers, sound, 60 pounds and over, 8@9c; 50 to 60 pounds, 7@8c; under 50 pounds and cows, 7c; stage and bulls, sound, 5@5 1/2c; kip, sound, 15 to 20 pounds, 7c; veal, sound, 10 to 14 pounds, 7c; calf, sound, under 10 pounds, 8c; green, (unsalted), 1c per pound less; culis, each $1.50@2; dry, each, $1@1.50; colts' hides, each 25@50c; goat skins, common, each 10@15c; Angora, with wool on, each, 25@31.

Pelts—Bear skins as to size, No. 1, each, $5@20; cubs, $2@5; badger, each, $5@10; fox, common grey, each 30@50c; do, red, each, $1.50@2; do, cross, each, $5@6; do, silver and black, each, $10@20; fisher, each, $5@6; lynx, each, $2@3; mink, strictly No. 1, each, 50@1.50; marten, pale skin, according to size and color, $1.50@2; muskrats, large, each, 5@10c; skunk, each, 40@50c; civet or polecat, each, 5@10c; otter, for large prime skins, each, $6@7; panther, with head and claws perfect, each $30@50; wolf, mounds, with head perfect, each, $2.50@5; wolf, prairie, (coyote), without head, each 30@35c; wolverine, each, $4@7; beaver, per skin, large, $5@6; do, medium, $3@4; do, small, $1@1.50; do, kits, 50@75c.

A Trade That Didn't Go. Mr. Daniel Sully, the eminent actor, received a letter this summer which has caused much amusement among the managers to whom he has shown it. It reads as follows:

"Dear mister sully— I here you air goin' to rit a nu pla. Last spring I seen a likely young kalf at yore farm. A young feller, who sed he wes a pla riter box bin bordin' with me al sumer and this week he went awa bekas he codn't pa me, he left a pla with me which he sed wes a gude wun. I'll swap it for that kalf I'll bring the Pla tu morro and you kin hav the Kalf redy. Yures trowly, Z. D."

Said Mr. Sully when questioned— "Well if the board was no better than the play—it was pretty bad and the calf is still growing fat at my place."

"Elastic Currency." All this talk about elasticity in our currency system is easy to explain. It proposes that our currency system should be like an accordion—to be pulled out when Wall street wants more money, and to be squeezed together when Wall street wants to contract the money, for Wall street wants to play this "elastic currency" accordion.—Columbus, O. Press.

There are men who have hardly tasted liquor cold, passionless, and yet they would stuff a ballot-box or swindle a widow.

Kind Lady—How did he come to fall? Willie—Me an' him wuz playin' ter see who could lean out de winder der furdest, an' he won.—Detroit Free Press.
