SUB IRRIGATED ALFALFA

Attained Height of Six and One-Hait Feet on the Aeils Farm Every Inch Edible.

Milton, July 15—Alfalfa six and constain feet high is the plenomenal growth attained from good planted this spring on the Aells farm, near this city. The farm is now owned by the Walla Walla Walla Company The wonderful screet for this patch

The wonderful growth of this patch or alfalfa is due to sub-irrigation; that is, the roots of the plant were at all times immersed in water from an irrigation ditch which percolated through the soil. The sample brought in was in full bloom, the little blue flowers showing along the branches for three or four feet—over a greater area thus the height of the ordinary
