SOCIAL BY EAGLES

INFORMAL BUT VERY ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

An Abundance of High-Class Eatables and Drinkables, a Most Entertaining Program and Unlimited Good Fellowship, All Contributed to the Enjoyment.

The local lodge of the Eagles gave a social time to its friends and members and invited guests last night in the hall. The affair was in the nature of an informal social and a smoker, and all of the guests of the lodge were made to feel themselves perfectly at home and welcome. Pipes and good things to eat and drink were the order of the evening, and when the men in attendance left for their homes it was with the feeling that they had had one of the best times of their lives.

A long and interesting program was rendered by the members of the lodge, assisted by the performers from Shields' Park and the show of the Quaker doctors. Every number was well rendered in full as given below:

Program as Rendered.

Opening address, J. T. Hinkle, worthy president; song, Ed Murphy; song, Tom Jordan; recitation, T. G. Aston; story, Charles Morsie; Dutch song, Besthorn, Rhode, Koeppen and Platzoeder; song, James Sharp; pie-eating contest, James Meanes.

Here an intermission was allowed for refreshments, and after the audience was well rested the program was again taken up, as follows:

Address on the good of the order, Thomas Fitz Gerald; song, Bert Vincent; dance, Dallas O'Hara, Fred Foster and William Bogert; specialties by John Coburn and Messrs. Thompson and Nelson, of the Shields' Park, and Messrs. Morrison, LaVerne, LaGreedy and Walker, of the Quaker show.

The success of the evening was due largely to the efforts of William Bogert, T. G. Aston and A. D. Koeppen, the committee on program and arrangement.
