Much That Every Woman Desires to Know

About Sanative Antiseptic Cleansing

And about the Care of the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands.

Too much stress cannot be placed on the great value of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent in the antiseptic cleansing of the mucous surfaces and of the blood and circulating fluids, thus affording pure, sweet and economical local and constitutional treatment for weakening ulcerations, inflammations, itchings, irritations, relaxations, displacements, pains and irregularities peculiar to females. Hence the Cuticura remedies have a wonderful influence in restoring health, strength and beauty to weary women, who have been prematurely aged and inviolated by these distressing ailments, as well as such sympathetic afflictions as anemia, chlorosis, hysteria, nervousness and debility.

Women from the very first have fully appreciated the purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy which have made the Cuticura remedies the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world. Millions of the women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for annoying irritations, and ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

The Chemewa Indian Band, the cut of which is here presented, will reach this city Sunday evening next and will be here the entire week following. This band needs no introduction to the people of this state, as it is too well known throughout the Northwest to require comment. Several years ago the band was organized under the present management and since that time has made a name for itself on the Western coast. When the government provided for an instructor in band music at the Chemewa school, the position was offered to Mr. Stoudermier, who was at that time the leader of the old Salem Military Band. The offer was accepted and since that time Mr. Stoudermier has been with the boys at the Indian school and out of the abundance of material there, has selected a band second to none on the coast. There are 27 pieces in the aggregation, and all of them are well trained and accomplished musicians. Mr. Stoudermier is well known in the valley as a cornetist, and plays with the band. Pendleton may rest assured that the city will be well supplied with a fine grade of music, well played during the week of the carnival.

A WAITING EMPIRE

JEFFERSON MYERS RETURNS FROM CENTRAL OREGON.

People are Waiting for Railroad Facilities—San Francisco Enterprise Crowding into the Interior—Portland May Lose the Trade Through Inactivity.

The following interesting interview with Hon. Jefferson Myers, appearing in a recent number of the Oregon Daily Journal, is of such vital importance to Oregon, that the East Oregonian takes pleasure in running it in full that it may have the widest possible publicity. The Journal says: Jefferson Myers, president of the Lewis and Clark state commission, returned from an interesting journey through Central Oregon and will attend a meeting this evening in J. Couch Flanders' office, at which time the commission will consider plans for the administration building. In the event the plans are satisfactory and arrangements may be made to that end, bids for the construction will be advertised for at once, and the building made ready at the earliest day possible. It is regarded probable at headquarters on Front and Pine that the new structure will be occupied about June 1, 1904, by both the commission and corporation. The fair officials are anxious to get into their new quarters so soon as possible and be upon the ground where the work is to be done in preparation for the exposition.

President Myers returns from his trip through the interior impressed by the promised future of that region, and enthusiastic over the attitude assumed by the people there. "These people in the interior country," said he today, "are of a kind to make one glad he has gone to see them. I found them more willing to supply exhibits, and they even refused to accept money to pay for the freighting of the stuff across the mountains to the railroad. They donated the exhibits and pay the carriage 150 miles by team.

They Want a Railroad. "Those folks want a railroad. They assert that they will not be able to develop their country until they have been given rail transportation for their grains. They appear to prefer that the survey of the old Oregon & Pacific, now the Corvallis & Eastern, be extended.

"Portland must get rail communication with that region, else San Francisco will capture all the trade of that part of Oregon. Were the Oregon & Pacific extended to the foot of Mount Jefferson, it would then be 30 miles shorter by team from the end of the road to Prineville or Burns, than it is to Shaniko. Now they have to pull over the Blue mountains, 5,000 feet high. Last year 2,100 cars of 30,000 pounds each were freighted by team to Burns, and the same quantity to Prineville.

"I would urge Portland to get into that region with a railroad soon as possible and prevent the capture of the trade by California merchants.

Products Will Be Exhibited. "The products of the interior will be well well represented at the St. Louis fair and at the Lewis and Clark exposition. There will be apples, peaches, plums and cherries, besides other things. The fruit interests me, for the reason that in Burns it is grown at an altitude of 4,200 feet above the sea, yet I saw a cherry tree in the yard of Professor Flinn of that place that has grown 5 feet 10 inches this year. He has strawberries yielding at this time. There will be grains and fruits and vegetables.

Harney, in my opinion, is the most wonderful valley undeveloped in the entire West. One stands upon a hill near Burns and sees for miles and miles a continuous succession of haystacks reaching far down toward the Narrows. Vast quantities of livestock are sustained on this hay.

Cattle Are Low in Price. "Cattle raisers there are discouraged.

They also fear a hard winter with much livestock dying from scarcity of food. They believe relief will be afforded in part by the ingress of a railroad, and they look towards Portland for that relief. Portland is the natural center for them, and yet the southern half of the district trades mostly with California, because of easier access to those markets. Although, without it, they are prosperous, the counties are out of debt, have surpluses on hand, and there are good wagon roads throughout the whole interior, as good as could be looked for.

Fair Benefit to Country. "The people of the interior appear to believe they will receive more benefits from the exposition than will the cities and towns and older sections of the state. They have the largest proportion of public lands owned by individuals, and not yet improved, and the attention drawn to Oregon by the fair will operate to increase the opportunity to dispose of those unoccupied lands. They are simply waiting for requests to aid the fair, and respond enthusiastically to all appeals."

"Buried at Sea." "Buried at Sea," which comes to Frazer theater Oct. 3, is one of the greatest comedy-dramas ever written by Theodore Kremer. It is a powerfully sensational play, appealing to the sympathies of the audience, and painting in vivid colors the scheming adventures and the conscienceless villain, who administers poison in order to win a fortune, with a woman whom he pretends to admire, solely to possess her wealth. Through the entire play runs a merry thread of humor and funny situations, and no one need hesitate, thinking from the "title" that it is a gruesome affair, as the burial at sea is merely one of the many incidents throughout the play, and the scenic effects will be the most gorgeous ever seen in this city.

"Captain Bob." "Captain Bob" will be the play in which S. Miller Kent will be seen during his engagement at the Frazer Theater on Oct. 1. "Captain Bob" is a comedy drama, the scenes being laid in Mexico and South America. Mr. Kent will carry the entire production, and Mr. Nathaniel Roth, under whose management Mr. Kent will be this season, has surrounded him with an excellent company of players.

LEACH SANATORIUM

WILL BE PUT THROUGH TO AN IMMEDIATE FINISH.

Building Will Be 40x50 Feet and Three Stories in Height—Will Be Furnace Heated and Modern in Every Respect—The Excavating Is Completed.

C. E. Troutman will start the rock work on the new sanatorium into being by Mrs. S. W. Leach. The building will be 40x50 feet in dimensions and will have two stories and a basement. It will be furnished in a modern manner, and will be the only sanatorium of the kind in the eastern part of the state.

The excavation for the place has been made for some time, and the work has dragged along, as Mrs. Leach was undecided as to when to build. Now, however, she has been given financial backing sufficient to enable her to carry out her plans at once, and the work will be rushed through to a finish. The building will cost $4,000 when it is completed.

Mrs. Leach is a magnetic healer, and places great faith in herbs and botanical remedies. She employs the vapor bath and medicated steam, and these, in conjunction with the other tenets of her peculiar faith make up her treatment.
