GRESHAM MERCHANT SHOOTS COMPETITOR

Gresham, Ore., Jan. 4.—Robert Simms, a butcher of this city, is in jail in Portland, charged with assault with intent to kill, and Albert J. M. Brown, manager of a competitor's meat market, is in bed though not dangerously hurt, with a bullet hole through his left arm and a bullet in his left side, as the result of a shooting scrape here. Simms, a member of the firm of Simms Bros., has for some time been bitter against Tom Hawkes, owner of the competing shop, resenting the coming here of Hawkes. When some time ago an anonymous letter was received by Simms, advising him to leave town for a time, as he was suspected of a number of petty burglaries, Simms laid the warning to Hawkes or the latter's friends. Last evening he armed himself with a revolver and after taking several drinks of liquor—Dutch courage—he started out on a hunt for Hawkes, making threats that he would kill his competitor.

JOHNSON-FLANN FIGHT SEEMS TO BE CERTAINTY

Chicago, Jan. 3.—It now looks like Jack Johnson meant business. It was announced today that he will sign articles for a fight with Jim Flynn to take place at Winward, Nevada, either in June or July, as soon as lawyers can prepare them and he has refused Jack Curley's offer of $10,000 for his share of the moving pictures.

Although Hugh McIntosh has called the offer of Johnson to fight Sam McVey in Australia for $30,000, possibly Jackson won't accept it, as one of the stipulations is that Johnson is to fight Sam Langford before he returns to the United States.

18 ENTOMBED FAR BELOW RIVER

Workers Imprisoned 20 Hours 1,300 Feet Beneath Hudson.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—For twenty hours eighteen men were imprisoned 1,300 feet beneath the surface of the Hudson river at Storm King, twenty-five miles below here and were rescued. They had been caught in the tube which is being bored under the river bed for the aqueduct of the Catskill watershed to New York City. The men became imprisoned when the shoring which supports the roof of the tunnel gave way and fell, carrying with it several tons of mud and rock, blocking the exit from the tube. It was not until hours later that workmen at the surface became aware that something was wrong below. When the laborers did not return from their shift on time an investigation was started.

STRANGE BEING CAN'T TALK.

Held in Detention Ward, Is Unable to Communicate With Keepers.

San Francisco.—In a cell at the detention hospital there is a man held for examination who can neither speak nor hear, nor write. The attendants and physicians are wondering how they are going to be able to communicate with him. He appears to be a Filipino. He was picked up on the street near Post and Larkin by Policeman Gus Wuth. He is unable to carry on a conversation by means of the deaf and dumb alphabet. From signs that he makes it is believed that he may have been a cobbler. He is believed to have been stricken with an illness lately which robbed him of his speech. Otherwise he appears to be in possession of all his faculties and in good health.

RICHESON MUST PLEAD GUILTY OR STAND TRIAL.

Boston, Jan. 3.—Rumors that District Attorney Pelletier will accept any other plea, from Rev. Richeson, than one of first degree murder, was set at rest today, when the prosecutor said he would not agree to anything but a plea of guilty.

Revolution Continues.

Paris, Jan. 3.—The French minister at Asundon, Paraguay, has succeeded in getting through by a circuitous route a dispatch to the foreign office dated December 28. He says that the revolution continues but without serious fighting. The capital is blockaded and all communication is badly interrupted. The Paraguayan authorities hope to have control of the situation, the minister adds, early in January. This is the only authentic

IRISH AND GERMANS IN U. S. DECREASING

Russian, Hungarian, Italian and Finn Population Gains.

Washington.—The Germans and Irish in the United States are rapidly decreasing in number, while the Russians, Hungarians and Finns have more than doubled in number since 1900. This is what the census bureau says today.

The bureau calls it "a matter of very considerable interest and importance." The census of 1900 reported 1,165,232 persons born in Ireland, and last year the number had decreased to 1,051,409.

Ten years ago the United States had 2,813,413 persons born in Germany and last year were but 2,499,200. The number of natives of Italy went up from 483,963 in 1900 to 1,341,800 in 1910; Austria-Hungary from 636,968 to 1,658,700, and Russia and Finland from 640,710 to 1,706,000.

While the total population of the United States increased about 11 per cent in the last six years, the number of insane people was augmented during the same period by 25 per cent. In 372 institutions canvassed by the census bureau up to January 1, 1910, were 187,445 insane patients or an increase of 37,303 since 1904. Massachusetts led the states with 344.6 insane per 100,000 population, with New York a close second—343.1.

LOOTING BY WELSH RODENTS.

Rats Terrorize Community by Destroying Food and Scaring People.

Cardiff, Wales—Canton, one of the largest districts of Cardiff, is pestered by rats, which swarm everywhere and eat everything. Counters and shelves in grocers' shops meat at butchers' cellars and kitchens, and even bedrooms are not safe. Terrified families hide their heads under the bedclothes at night in a rat pounce on their faces, and children are panic-stricken. This has been going on for over a week, and a great public protest against the inactivity of the authorities in leaving the residents to fight the evil alone is suggested. At a dairy shop one big rat was found to have dined so well that it was too fat to re-enter its hiding place.

"That rat is worth 10 shillings a week to me," said a tradesman. "The rats used to climb on the shelves, eat my jams, spoil my bacon and has and play havoc with my cheese. I put down my average weekly loss at 10 shillings, but since I've had that cat the rats have gone."

Scores of rats were seen holding high revel in a shop late at night, while policemen and late workers looked on through the window. A rat was seen pushing an egg with his paws toward a hole. "Ane day," said the shopkeeper, "I was startled by a stream of water running through the walls; I discovered that the rats had eaten through the lead water pipes."

MASQUERADES MONTHS AS MAN

Dons Dress and Mystifies Police by Claiming to Be His Sister.

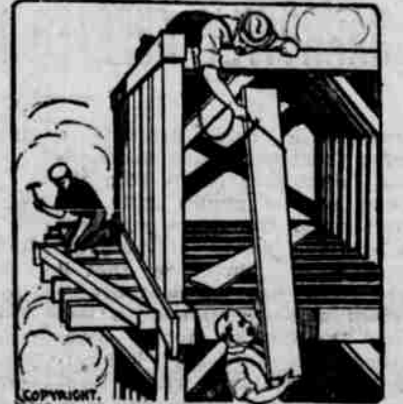

Spartansburg, S. C.—Masquerading as a man for eight months, Mary Owens, who had adopted the disguise in order to trace her husband, mystified the police at Saxon's Mills when she donned a dress and told the officers she was the sister of the man she had impersonated. Under questioning her young brother admitted the dual role his sister had been playing, however, and she finally confessed.

When questioned by the police she told them she had just arrived from Tennessee and explained the shortness of her hair by saying she had just recovered from an attack of typhoid fever. During the eight months she became very popular worker in the mills and was engaged to a 16-year-old girl, who is heart-broken over the revelation.

The management of Saxon's Mills ordered the Owens family to leave the village after the disclosure and they departed presumably for their old home in Tennessee.
