

Cottolene

is Sunshine in the Kitchen-

Plenty of sun and air have cured more invalids than have the doctors. Cottolene is a sun-kissed product. It comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South, where the choicest seed is selected, the oil extracted and refined, making a wholesome, healthful, vegetable product that makes "sunshine food."

Lard, on the other hand, never has, never can be anything but hog fat.

You take chances when you use it. It may not injure you; but it may cause indigestion and other troubles.

Cottolene makes food that any stomach can digest, contains no hog fat, and is the most healthful and economical cooking fat on the market.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.
An exceptional good program for Friday's change. Four reels of the best American pictures.

1. "Lady Godiva." Vitagraph. A Saxon legend of the eleventh century. Lady Godiva self-sacrificing devotion to her people and the punishment of "Peeping Tom," who disregarded it.

2. "A Princess of the Hills." Kalem. The old major domo receives word of the near arrival of the young lord of the estates. The sister of the major domo is in love with Don Miguel, but her advances are repulsed. Don Miguel loves a shepherdess and plans to woo her in the bargain of a shepherd.

3. "Uncle's Strategy." Pathé. Two men with grown children meet after a long separation and decide that their children must marry. The young couple do not see it that way. Finally the girl's uncle comes, and being a regular "Mr. Fix It," fixes everything up to satisfaction of every one.

4. "Tracked Down." Essanay. A notorious swindler is arrested by a detective but escapes while being taken to the penitentiary. A few years later the detective meets a man, typically English, who seems strangely familiar to him. The man is the swindler who escaped. He gains an entrance to a home and gets away with the family jewels. After a sensational pursuit he is tracked down and is safe in the clutches of the law.

The Pastime.
The home of good pictures. Friday's change of program.

No. 1. "A Cure for Jealousy." Lubin. Bob was insanely jealous of his beautiful wife; he thought everybody wanted to steal her. Jack Nevins and his young wife visit the Pettibones and Bob's wife sets up a desperate flirtation with the guest. There is war for a few minutes and then everybody has the laugh on Pettibone, who is fairly cured of his foolishness.

No. 2. "The Test." Selig. A strong drama, dealing with a scientific and convincing study in criminology, full of interest from start to finish.

No. 3. "The Strike at the Little Johnny Mine." Essanay. A great sensational strike picture, with all the features that combine to thrill one and win applause—hero, heroine and innocent persecuted, wrongs righted, properly spiced with thrilling scenes and situations.

No. 4. "Roentgen's X-Rays." C. G. P. C. This film is exceedingly interesting in familiarizing the spectator with the mysteries of those invisible rays which penetrate opaque bodies.

No. 5. "Excursion in the Swiss Alps." It is seldom you see a better travelogue than this.

Musical program:

No. 1.—When I Gathered Myrtle With Mary. Waltz. S. Furth.

No. 2.—Put Your Arms Around Me. Honey. Schottische. A. Von Tilzer.

No. 3.—That Dreamy Italian Waltz. Waltz.

No. 4.—There's a Dixie Girl Who's Longing for a Yankee Doodle Boy. March.

No. 5.—Don't Wake Me Up, I'm Dreaming. Waltz.

Cosy.
Friday and Saturday, see the big black bear in the feature comedy.

"Bill Pays His Debts." Lux. Bill found a big bear and took him to his rooms to chase away creditors. One great, big laughmaker.

"Love and Charity." Reliance. De lightful story of Christmas. A poor father, having entered a house to steal presents for his children is discovered, but after telling his story, happiness comes to all.

"The Flag of Distress." The amusing way in which a husband escaped from his wife by means of a distress signal.

"An Indian Maid's Elopement." Bison. Stirring story of the west, abounding in lively situations and exciting events, pictured amid beautiful scenery.

"Henpecked Bertie Goes Fishing." Lux. Watchful wifely was fooled by Bertie and his friend, by means of a dummy. Very laughable.

"I wish I had a Girl." Imp Amusing experience of a hopeless man who wanted a girl.

At the Grand.

Opening tonight:

INDIGESTION IS ENDED FOR EVER

NO SOURNESS, GAS OR DYSPEPSIA IN FIVE MINUTES

A Little Diapepsin Now Will Make Your Out of Order Stomach Feel Fine—Digests All Your Food, Leaving Nothing to Ferment and Sour.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headaches from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50 cent case of Pape's Diapepsin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless nights or headache or stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapepsin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia. There is nothing better for gas on the stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a stomach headache.

You couldn't keep a handkerchief or more useful article in the house.

Proven their ability before to the Pendleton public.

In short this is a very good bill and nobody should miss seeing them.

Loss of Appetite is also loss of vitality, vigor, tone. To recover appetite and the rest, take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, makes eating a pleasure. It also makes the blood rich and pure and steadies the nerves.
