HAVE "MOVIE FEVER" BAD.

These Patrons Pay by the Week on Book Accounts.

Millville, N. J.—The popularity of moving picture and vaudeville shows is greater than ever before, and three competing amusement houses are filled nightly.

Employees of the mills and factories have opened "book accounts" at the places and settle for their week's entertainment at the end of the week.

In several cases old soldiers and soldiers' widows have accounts and pay their bills from the pensions when they arrive.

Many who are scarcely able to provide themselves and their families with the necessities of life are seen almost every night among the pleasure seeking throngs.

No one is immune from the "movie" fever, although the churches have given a variety of entertainments the business of the playhouses is steadily on the increase.

Blister Paws Smothering Live Coals on Rug, Then Awakens Master.

Louisville, Ky.—After extinguishing a fire caused by hot coals falling from a grate, a prize winning collie owned by W. J. Atkinson, awakened its master to have a look at his blistered paws.

The dog sleeps on the rug in front of the grate and during the night live coals fell on the rug. Mr. Atkinson was aroused by the dog whining and scratching at his bedroom door.

He arose and followed the dog to where it indicated the burned places in the rug with its nose. Then the dog exhibited its paws which had been blistered in beating out the blaze.

LEG WORTH $12,500 AN INCH.

Stockman of Missouri Sues Railroad for Accident He Sustained.

St. Joseph, Mo.—M. C. Gray of Nodaway county values his left leg at the rate of $12,500 an inch. Because he has lost two inches of the leg in an accident, which resulted in shortening the leg, he asks $25,000 damages against the Burlington Railroad company.

The engine of a Burlington train ran into a caboose in which Gray was riding at Villisca, Ia., which resulted in the injuries. The case is to be heard in the federal court here.

According to the petition, the locomotive was run without due care or caution, negligently and carelessly, with undue and unreasonable great swiftness and suddenness against the caboose.

Gray is a stockman and was on his way to Chicago with a load of cattle when the accident occurred.

AGED WESTERNER FINDS SWEETHEART OF YOUTH

Romance of Half a Century Has a Pathetic Ending at Wooster, Ohio.

Wooster, Ohio.—Half a century ago when David W. Hartzler was a young man of twenty-one years, he loved Miss Lizzie Fordenwald, aged twenty. But they had a lovers' quarrel and Hartzler went west. In a few years he forgot and married. He accumulated a fortune. Miss Fordenwald did not know where he was, but during the fifty years remained unmarried.

Three years ago Hartzler's wife died. He then thought of his first sweetheart, and some time later wrote her a letter. After several weeks of waiting he received an answer. The writing was a little shaky, but he recognized the hand.

A month ago the old man went to Smithville and found the home of his old sweetheart. He saw an old woman with wrinkled face and white hair but when she smiled the years seemed to drop from her and his, and mist filled his eyes and hers, and there was no old woman nor old man.

Three weeks ago they stood together and a preacher, who had not been born when they first learned to love, united them in marriage.

"The years I've waited seem only hours now, Dave," said the old woman.

But a few mornings later the old man found, when he awoke that his wife was still sleeping. Her hands were cold and stiff and he could not wake her.

HORSE INJURES A CHILD.

Eleven-Year-Old Tas Jaw Fractured when he Caresses Animal's Nose.

Philadelphia.—Love for animals cost 11-year-old William Robinson of Germantown, serious injuries which may prove fatal.

As he patted the nose of a horse that was tied to a pole near his home the animal jumped at the lad with both front feet. The lad was hurled to the pavement. His screams attracted the attention of his parents.

He was rescued and taken to a hospital, where it was found that his lower jaw was fractured. The boy's face was covered with deep lacerations.

Perhaps a woman changes her mind frequently to keep from wearing it out.

CANCER KILLS 40,000 A YEAR.

Annual Loss to Nation $208,000,000, Says University Professor.

Boulder, Colo.—One death in seven is due to cancer, according to Dr. Clay E. Giffin of the University of Colorado, in a talk to the university scientific society.

Dr. Giffin further asserted that 40,000 persons died annually from cancer in the United States. He explained that this meant a loss of $208,000,000 every year and that $500,000 spent in educating the people concerning cancer would save $17,000,000 the first year.

Cancer paste, X-ray and operations are the three ways of treating the disease, he says. If taken in time and treated, the doctor said, the chances of death are three in 100-600, but if neglected, soon offers only one chance in three.

SEES THUG KILL HUSBAND.

Long Beach Man Returns Home With Wife and is Shot by Burglar.

Long Beach, Cal.—Thomas Borden a member of the Long Beach police force, was shot and almost instantly killed by a burglar whom Borden and his wife encountered at his home on returning from church. As they started to enter their home, a man emerged and without warning opened fire. Three shots were fired and one bullet took effect, penetrating Borden's brain. The burglar ran down the street and was pursued by a passing citizen, who was forced to give up the chase when the burglar shot him in the foot.

WANT CAR STEPS LOWERED.

Missouri Women Flatly Refuse to Change Style of Skirts.

St. Joseph, Mo.—If a movement started by an East St. Joseph women's club is successful, the steps upon the city's street cars will be lowered at least one foot.

A petition for the change is being circulated by the club members, and when it is believed the petition has a sufficient number of signers, it will be presented to the street railway company. If the company declines to act, the women are in favor of taking the matter up with the public utilities commission.

Such a thing as asking that the women change their style of skirt is regarded as absurd. The women insist the style of street car steps should be changed.

Hug Keeps Dance Alive.

Denver.—"If the hug were taken out of dancing it would not last long, but would die a natural death," said Father Benedict in a lecture to young women.

"Married women do not dance with their husbands, but with other women's husbands," he said, "and married men do not dance with their wives, but with other men's wives."

"After telling you beloved that there is great danger in kissing, transmitting germs," he continued to the young women, "allow him to kiss you twice in one evening, once when he comes and once before he leaves. It is not necessary that he should kiss you 100,000 times in an evening, though he may be engaged to you."
