

Did you ever let an opportunity slip away from you and afterwards feel sorry for it?

The Sensational Sacrifice Sale of $30,000 worth of good clean merchandise for women and children is your opportunity. You can now buy Coats, Suits, Dresses, Furs,

Shoes, Gloves, Fancy Neckwear and Piece Goods OF ALL KINDS AT A BIG SAVING.

Why pay other stores $25.00 for a suit we can give you for $14.85

Why pay other stores $15.00 for a silk dress we are selling for $9.45

These Prices Should Tempt you Monday:

All wool 36-in. Dress Goods, reg. 75c, sale price 39c
All wool 52-in. $1.25 and $1.50 Dress Goods, sale 98c
27-in. Heavy $1.00 Messalines, all colors 79c
$1.25 Kid Gloves, all shades, 98c

Children's $1.25 and $1.50 Shoes 89c
Children's $1.00 Shoes 67c
1 Lot Rain Coats, $15.00 values $4.95
Every article in the house reduced.

F. E. LIVENGOOD & COMPANY

LOCALS

Dressmaking at 401 West Alta.
I. C. Snyder, chimney sweep, R. 3812.
Fresh oysters, crabs and crawfish at the St. George Grill.
For bottled sodas and beers, phone John Gagen, Main 177.
Wanted—Woman or girl to wait on table. Inquire 125 West Webb.
Pendleton Iron Works can use several tons of scrap iron.
Have your wood saved by the gasoline wood saw. Phone Main 13.
For rent—Furnished apartment rooms. Inquire 502 Water street.
Wanted—Good clean rags at the East Oregonian office.
Wanted—Dressmaking. 510 Jane St., phone Black 2311.
For dry wood and Rock Spring coal, phone Main 438, or Black 3622.
Ladies wanting hair work done, call on Mrs. Cornwell, 617 Cosbie.
If you want dry slab wood, phone Main 8.
For rent—Modern, furnished, four room house, close in. 719 Lilith.
For rent—Nicely furnished front room, close in, to gentleman. 401 W. Court street.
D. N. Reber, M. D. Eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. Office Schmidt bldg., rooms 10 and 11.
Pictures taken at Allen's electric studio from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., Eagle Woodman building.
For rent—6 room house, good condition; light and bath. Inquire 513 Franklin street.
Special Christmas inducements offered at Allen's Electric Studio, Eagle-Woodman building.
For rent—Suite of furnished rooms with board, one block from Main street. 201 Water street. Phone 563.
For Sale—Horseshoe restaurant, corner Main and Alta streets. First class location and doing good business. Good reasons for selling. Inquire at restaurant.

Let the Auto Truck Haul It. Our specialty is quick work. Phone Main 339 for furniture and piano moving short trips in the city or transferring to the country. We haul anything. Penland Bros.

To the Public. I wish to announce that I have taken over the office and practice of Lynn K. Blakeslee, M. D. The office and phone numbers will remain the same as in the past. M. V. TURLEY, M. D.

Bids Wanted. For the construction of a school building and outbuildings in District No. 103 Gibbon, Oregon. For specifications and other information see plans in County School Superintendent's office. Sealed bids must be filed.

Special This Week

McDONALD CANDIES
MONEY COMB CHIPS
SATURDAY SPECIAL
CHOCOLATE CREAMS
PEANUT MARSHMALLOWS AND DELICIOUS LARGE
BAG 10c
F. J. Donaldson
RELIABLE DRUGGIST

by Thursday, December 12 with J. F. Thompson, Clerk, Gibbon, Oregon. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. W. D. BONIFER, Chairman. J. F. THOMPSON, Clerk.

LEFT LONG LIFE RECEIPT.

Queer Formula Supposed to Enable Man to Live 400 Years. Among the many philosophers who have given to the world secrets by which human life might be prolonged was Arnold de Villeneuve, a noted physician of Paris, who was connected with the university of that city. After gaining fame in France he went to Italy, where he passed 20 important years of his life and where he devoted himself to the study of astrology and alchemy. According to the stories of his day he made vast quantities of gold out of lead and copper, and just escaped being arrested and put to death as sorcerer. His fame as a physician gave importance to all that Villeneuve did and said, but when he predicted the end of the world upon a certain date and nothing happened there was somewhat of a change in his popularity. His recipes for prolonging life were most curious and one has been preserved, and is as follows: The person wishing to keep alive for 300 to 400 years must thoroughly rub his body three times a week with the juice of cassia. When he retires to bed each night he must put over his head a plaster made of saffron, red rose leaves, sandal wood, aloes and amber. Upon this mixture there must be poured some oil of roses and melted wax, the whole then spread as a plaster. In the morning this must all be carefully removed, put in a box of lead and kept for use the next night. The food of the man must be looked after in this wise: If he has a temperament that leads him to look on the bright side of things, he must keep sixteen chickens in a yard where there is absolutely pure air and good water, and is to eat one each day. If he has a rather dull and matter of fact temperament, he must keep 25 chickens in his yard; if he is melancholy cast of mind and looks on the dark side of life the number of birds must be exactly thirty, but in any event one a day must be eaten. The chickens are so treated that their flesh gains the qualities that will prolong the life of him who eats them. They are to be kept without food till in a famishing condition, and then fed upon broth that is to be made of serpents cooked in vinegar and thickened with bran. For two months they eat this and are then fit for the table. The drink allowed in this diet is either white wine or a simple claret. By following this rule strictly for two months after the passing of every seven years a man may become the rival of Methuselah himself.

After gaining fame in France he went to Italy, where he passed 20 important years of his life and where he devoted himself to the study of astrology and alchemy. According to the stories of his day he made vast quantities of gold out of lead and copper, and just escaped being arrested and put to death as sorcerer. His fame as a physician gave importance to all that Villeneuve did and said, but when he predicted the end of the world upon a certain date and nothing happened there was somewhat of a change in his popularity. His recipes for prolonging life were most curious and one has been preserved, and is as follows: The person wishing to keep alive for 300 to 400 years must thoroughly rub his body three times a week with the juice of cassia. When he retires to bed each night he must put over his head a plaster made of saffron, red rose leaves, sandal wood, aloes and amber. Upon this mixture there must be poured some oil of roses and melted wax, the whole then spread as a plaster. In the morning this must all be carefully removed, put in a box of lead and kept for use the next night. The food of the man must be looked after in this wise: If he has a temperament that leads him to look on the bright side of things, he must keep sixteen chickens in a yard where there is absolutely pure air and good water, and is to eat one each day. If he has a rather dull and matter of fact temperament, he must keep 25 chickens in his yard; if he is melancholy cast of mind and looks on the dark side of life the number of birds must be exactly thirty, but in any event one a day must be eaten. The chickens are so treated that their flesh gains the qualities that will prolong the life of him who eats them. They are to be kept without food till in a famishing condition, and then fed upon broth that is to be made of serpents cooked in vinegar and thickened with bran. For two months they eat this and are then fit for the table. The drink allowed in this diet is either white wine or a simple claret. By following this rule strictly for two months after the passing of every seven years a man may become the rival of Methuselah himself.

By following this rule strictly for two months after the passing of every seven years a man may become the rival of Methuselah himself.

By following this rule strictly for two months after the passing of every seven years a man may become the rival of Methuselah himself.

By following this rule strictly for two months after the passing of every seven years a man may become the rival of Methuselah himself.

HAWK KNOCKS MAN DOWN.

Allentown, Pa.—To be stretched out by a hawk, like a fighter who has received a knockout blow, was the unusual experience of Nicholas Dotter of Saylorsville. He was picking wintergreen berries for his oil distillery when he received a blow that laid him flat. The blow was accompanied by a mighty swoop, and he knew it came from above. As he looked up he saw a monster hawk, with a spread of wings of fully five feet, sailing away with his hat. After flying about fifty yards the bird dropped the hat and later lighted on a dead tree near by. Dotter believes that the hawk mistook his hat, which is brown, for a pheasant as he was working through the brush picking the berries. Jagged tips made by the bird's talons confirm his story.

PERSONAL MENTION

J. B. Swift of Heppner, was at the St. George last evening.
Pete Murray came down this morning from his home at Adams.
Kyle Long, local auto man, returned this morning from a business trip to Portland.
Herbert M. Boylen, sheepman and rancher of Pilot Rock, spent yesterday in Pendleton.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ellis were passengers on train No. 17 from La Grande this afternoon.
F. R. Childers, sheriff of Union county, was over yesterday to testify in the trial of Lynn Hill.
Mrs. E. T. Wade, who has been visiting the past two months with her son at Bandon, will return home today.
Mrs. Edgar L. Fischer, well known piano instructor of Walla Walla, came over this morning to meet her pupils.
Mrs. Carl Jensen of Pilot Rock, who has been visiting in Heppner, has returned and left this morning for her home.
C. A. Barrett, joint senator from Umatilla, Union and Morrow counties, came down from his home at Athena this morning.
Tom B. Gurdane returned this morning from Portland where he had been for a couple of days on a business mission.
Teddy Houseworthy, well known local bartender, returned this morning from Yamhill county where he had been to attend the funeral of his father.
Rev. J. E. Youel of Walla Walla and Rev. W. W. MacHenry of Baker, who are making a campaign for funds for Albany college, were in the city again last evening.
M. A. Rader, former business man of this city and now located in Medford, is in the city today, having accompanied the body of his father to Walla Walla, where it was buried.

A HARD POSITION FOR A GIRL TO OCCUPY

In the Home Problem department of the December Woman's Home Companion, the following letter is reproduced. "I have been visiting for some months in a large city of the Middle West. My home is on the Pacific Coast. Before I left home I was engaged to a man whom I thought I loved devotedly. Our arrangements were made for marriage in the autumn. Since leaving home I find myself reluctant to settle down in the old flat village life. My fiancé is making preparation for our future home, and can scarcely wait for my return. I am weary of the whole situation, but I can not bring myself to hurt him by telling him the truth and breaking our engagement. What shall I do?"

The editor of the department, Mrs. Virginia Henry, answers her correspondent as follows: "You will hurt the feeling of the man whom you no longer love far less by telling him the truth than you could possibly do by marrying him in your present weariness of the bond. I am afraid that propinquity had much to do with this engagement. Girls are often more in love with love than with the lover. The only honorable course for you is to be perfectly frank, and without delay seek release and leave your lover free. There is little probability that this will ruin his life. It will give him a rough time for a while, but he will find someone else to share his future."

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS" IS ROMANCE OF RING

With Miss Elsie St. Leon in the title role, supported by all of the important members of the original company, "Polly of the Circus" comes to the Oregon theater, Monday night, December 9. "Polly of the Circus" is a comedy drama. Its story is a romance that leads into and out of the sawdust ring. It was written by Miss Margaret Mayo and produced by Frederic Thompson.

The story of the play is unusually attractive. With its novelty it combines cleanliness and wholesomeness. Polly, its central figure, is a young circus rider who is injured by a fall from her horse while the show is in a small middle western town. It is out of the question for her to accompany the circus to the next stop, and she is left at the parsonage, opposite the circus lot, in the household of a young minister, to recover. Polly has known no other life than that of the sawdust ring, and some time elapses before she can familiarize herself with the staid existence of such a community as is now her home. By the time she succeeds in doing this, the sound of the young minister's voice has become the most promising feature of her hopes for the future. He in turn has found the fascination of the unlearned but intelligent and pure hearted sprite from the canvas-topped community almost irresistible. The opposition of his parishioners displays itself in a finally successful attempt to drive the girl from her haven. Learning that the circus is in the neighboring township, she flees the parsonage and returns to the show to take her regular place on the program. The minister awaits her return for a month and then realizing that the happiness of both is at stake, goes to reclaim her. He takes her from the ring in the very midst of the performance. The curtain falls upon the pair standing upon the deserted circus lot watching the twinkling lights of the big animal wagons as they disappear in the distance. A more genuinely refreshing play than "Polly of the Circus" has not visited here in a decade, and theatergoers are already regarding this attraction as the treat of the season.

This is the only company presenting this charming and fascinating play in this country.

"THE RED ROSE" IS BIG MUSICAL COMEDY

Manager Welch of the Oregon theater, announces the coming of "The Red Rose," the big musical comedy that achieved such remarkable success at the Globe theater, New York. Messrs. Harry B. and Robert B. Smith have provided a book of genuine humor and Robert Hood musicals has furnished twenty-four musical numbers of more than ordinary excellence. Miss Zoo Barnett, the young prima donna who attracted considerable attention in seasons past on account of her work in "King Dodo" and the original company of "The Sweetest Girl from Paris," heads the cast and has the greatest opportunity of her career in "The Red Rose," which is being produced under the personal direction of John C. Fisher, the veteran producer of "Florodora," "The Silver Slipper," "San Toy" and other well known successes. This in itself should be sufficient guarantee as to the worthiness of the cast and production. Miss Barnett is seen surrounded by a company numbering some sixty-five persons, prominent among whom are Big Brown, Maurice

Round-up Pictures

Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 7 and 8, are the last dates on which the 1912 Round-up pictures can be seen at the New Grand theater. That the pictures are the best that ever have been exhibited is conceded by all moving picture experts and critics.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our kind friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and assistance rendered; also for the beautiful floral offerings during the illness and sad death of our beloved son and brother. MR. AND MRS. W. M. ELY AND FAMILY. Many a man who has more money than brains is on the ragged edge of bankruptcy.

Darcy, Russell Lennon, William H. Conley, Walter H. Catlett, Charlotte Philbrook, David Reese and others. A large and stunning chorus is seen to advantage in the various songs and dances. Some of the most popular numbers are "Come Along Ma Cheri," "Queen of Vanity Fair," "Men, Men, Men," "Bohemia," and "The Students' Guide," which creates something of a sensation during the all summer run of this popular musical play in New York.

AT THE CHURCHES.

German Lutheran. Services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.—Rev. Christian Mack, pastor.

Christian Science. Services are held at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. Subject of lesson—sermon, "God the Only Cause and Creator." Webb and Johnson streets.

The Baptist Church. Corner E. Alta and Johnson streets. There will be preaching services by the Rev. Frank H. Farley Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30. This will be his last Sunday in Pendleton. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. at 6:30.

First Presbyterian. Alta and College streets. Rev. Sherwood L. Grigsby, pastor. Services as follows: Sabbath school and Bible classes at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Subject of the morning sermon, "Stewards of the Manifold Grace of God." Night subject, "Help for the Helpless."

Church of the Redeemer. The Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7:30 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Divine Service and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermons "The Holy Scriptures." Mr. Chauncey Haines will preside at the organ.—Charles Quinney, Rector.

Methodist Episcopal. Webb and Johnson streets, N. Evans, pastor. Rev. E. R. Martin district superintendent of the American Sunday school union, will deliver an address on "The Challenge of the Farm" at 11 a. m. The pastor will speak at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 10 a. m. Epworth League 6:30 p. m.

First Christian. Main and Jackson streets. Tolbert F. Weaver, minister. Preaching, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject, "Life's Daily Register." At the evening service Mr. E. R. Martin, superintendent of the American Sunday School Union of this district, will speak on "Our Neighbors of Tomorrow." Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m. Miss Daisy McPherson will sing a solo in the morning and Mr. Gray will sing one in the evening.

DO YOU OWN A HYOMEI INHALER FOR CATARRH?

Then you ought to know that druggists everywhere will furnish you with a bottle of Booth's HYOMEI for only 50 cents. Pour a few drops of HYOMEI into the inhaler and start this very day to breathe the soothing, healing vapor and destroy the Catarrh germs. With every package of HYOMEI comes a little booklet which explains how easy it is to end the misery of Catarrh, Croup, Sore Throat, Bronchitis and deafness caused by Catarrh. But best of all Tallman & Co are authorized to refund your money if HYOMEI doesn't do just what it is advertised to do. If you haven't the HYOMEI inhaler, ask for the complete outfit, $1.00.