

Christmas is a Delightful Institution

It is the season of the year when the BEST that is in us gets the upper hand; when the HIGHER IMPULSES of the heart triumph, just for a little while perhaps, over the harsher, less agreeable qualities in our nature--when the PURSE STRINGS of the CLOSE FISTED and SPEND-THRIFT alike loosen in the common cause of disseminating happiness and good cheer--the joy of GIVING far out weighs the pleasure of receiving especially if one's gifts be of practical, useful character, of lasting, rather than temporary benefit. You'll find such gifts here. An immense store full of them

MORGAN MUST DIE FOR CRIME

Condon, Ore., Dec. 9.--Bob Morgan, who, on the night of October 16 last, shot and killed Birdie Hart on the streets of this city, in a fit of jealousy, and was captured south of Fossil several days later, was found guilty of murder Saturday in the first degree, after the jury had considered the case for 18 hours. Judge Parker announced that he would pronounce sentence next Monday. Under the verdict Morgan will be sentenced to death.

Morgan, a young Kentuckian, and the family of the girl were friends before they came from Kentucky to this state. He had long been an admirer of the girl and wished to marry her, but she refused him. On the night of the murder she was walking down the street, when he stepped up to her, spoke a few words censuring her for rejecting him, then drew a revolver and shot her to death. Bystanders attempted to prevent the killing and to catch him, but he dangerously wounded one man and escaped in the darkness. The entire county was aroused and after several days he was arrested in Wheeler county, 20 miles south of Fossil.
