CHARLTON ENROUTE TO STAND TRIAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Smiling, Porter Charlton sailed on the Genoa liner Italia today to stand trial at Lake Como on a charge of murdering his wife. Friends and relatives at the dock bade him farewell.

Sheriff Weilin of New Jersey, surrendered Charlton at the pier to Giuseppe Gentile, Italian counsel general and two Italian policemen.

The prisoner posed for pictures but made no statement. He was not handcuffed. Charlton will travel to Italy in a second class stateroom.

LAWSON READY TO HELP SULZER FIGHT

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 14.—Thomas Lawson, the Boston financier, announced he will be one of 25 men to contribute $100,000 each, if necessary, to comprise a huge fund to be used to back Governor Sulzer in a finish fight with Tammany. Lawson said, "Sulzer has nothing more to lose and he can be the means of freeing New York from the rottenest and most corrupt political gang the world probably has ever known."

MARRIAGES TO WELD ALLIANCE IN BALKANS

LONDON, Aug. 14.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Bucharest asserts that the future alliance in the Balkan states will be cemented by the following marriages:
"Princess Elizabeth, grand-daughter of the king of Roumania, to George, crown prince of Greece; Prince Charles, son of crown prince Ferdinand of Roumania, to the Grand Duchess Tatiana, second daughter of Emperor Nicholas of Russia, and Prince Alexander, the Serbian heir apparent, to the oldest daughter of Emperor Nicholas, the Grand Duchess Olga."

WILEY REFUTES OLD STORY OF ADAM'S RIB

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Addressing 500 suffragettes Dr. Wiley declared he had exploded the tale that woman sprang from Adam's rib. "Biological study refutes the story," said Wiley. "There's no evidence in physiology that woman is an appendage of any archaic male skeleton and I am convinced that woman sprang from the same bioplasm as man."

The supply of talk exceeds the demand.

BIG CONSIGNMENT OF WOOL IS SOLD

ENTERPRISE, Ore., Aug. 14.—Wool which was consigned to a Boston house from Wallowa county early in the season has been sold at good prices, according to late advices from the east. It was practically all fine wool and it netted the growers above 15 cents a pound, nearly 2 cents more than was paid for wool bought outright here in the county.

The fortunate growers were: J. H. Dobbin, Fred W. Falconer, C. D. Daugherty and N. C. Longfellow. Their clips aggregated 275,000 pounds. C. L. Hartshorn's wool, also consigned, has not reached the market yet.

Early in the season the growers and the eastern wool houses were all at sea. They did not know what prices would prevail, and they feared a decided slump from last year's prices because of the tariff talk. Frank A. Clarke, representing Hallowell, Jones & Donald, and the growers discussed the situation and some of the largest sheepmen concluded it better to consign their wool than to try to sell it in the uncertain market. The Boston merchants got the consent of the growers to sell when, in their judgment, the proper price was reached.

Wool sold off a shade after the consignment contracts were signed, but the growers kept their courage and now they have reaped the benefit. After the hard winter with its losses in lambs and in short wool, the sheepmen feel thankful for the satisfactory turn of the market.

PORTLAND POLICE ARREST 10 I. W. W.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 14.—Ten industrialists were arrested at a street meeting last night following a reported invasion the industrialists plan from California and other states. They were charged with disorderly conduct. Sheriff Word was notified that 50 members of the organization are enroute here from San Francisco.

Doing things for effect is seldom effective.

BUCKS UNABLE TO GET GAME

NORTH YAKIMA, Aug. 14.—(Special)—The Braves won yesterday's game twice and did it by real baseball playing both times. Peterson pitched a game no better than two or three others in which he has officiated, but the luck broke with him and his team mates hammered hits at opportune times for the scores that counted.

Pendleton began with one run every other inning up to and including the sixth. That makes three scores. The Braves made several futile tries before the sixth but were prevented by some phenomenal catches by the Buckaroos and by the switch in Russ Hall's decision on Taylor's slide to the plate in the fifth.

It was principally the reversed decision which peeved them, however, for they went up to the bat in the sixth and began pounding Peet's offerings to all corners of the diamond and beyond. Fuller got to first when Lodell dropped Naughton's hurried throw and advanced on Nadeau's Texas leaguer into left. Netzel sent one into left field for which Varian made a one-handed try as he sprinted to the fence.

Grover lifted one over second and Fuller scored on it while Nadeau moved to third. There was a little delay getting the ball back into the diamond and Nadeau sprinted for home and was safe there when Augustus' throw went wide of the plate. Netzel moved to third on it and Grover to second.

Stokke drove one which apparently went into Naughton's hands but which was too hot for him to handle and slipped away and rolled into left field while Netzel and Grover came home. Harrod reached first on a fielder's choice on which Stokke was retired and Taylor hit into a double play, Augustus to Naughton to Lodell, which retired the side.

Three men faced the batter in the seventh and eighth and in the first of the ninth three bad throws by the Braves left Pendleton put Bill Reid over the plate and tie the score.

In the last of the ninth Stokke led with a drive close to the ground that split third base. Peterson scrambled fit it but had no chance to handle it in time. Harrod sacrificed him to second and then Taylor lined one over second base which let Stokke complete the circuit with the deciding score.

LORIMER MAY RUN AGAIN FOR SENATOR

ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 14.—William Lorimer in an address at a Catholic harvest festival at Durand hinted that he might again seek the senatorial toga. Lorimer asserted the country was rampant with socialism. He typified the calls for the initiative, referendum and recall as socialistic fallacies that had developed to the point where they threatened to engulf the country in a sea of misrepresentation that would destroy the very foundation of government.

McArthur Heads Templars.
DENVER, Aug. 14.—The Knight Templars elected Arthur McArthur of Troy, New York, grand master, and advanced other members in the grand encampment a step, Los Angeles and New York are rivals for the next convocation.

LA GRANDE RAIN AID TO PLOWING

LA GRANDE, Ore., Aug. 14.—A soaking rain has been falling intermittently for the past 24 hours, which will aid greatly in fall plowing. The showers at times fell in torrents and caused the streets and gutters to be taxed to capacity with running water. But little damage is reported from the rural districts, a small loss by grain being blown down and some damage by wind to orchards being reported. All harvesting and threshing operations have had to be suspended and probably will not be resumed for a couple of days at least.
