The New Six-Thirty Franklin $2450, Weight 2725 pounds

Did you ever weigh the radiator, water, pump, piping, fan and other things that make up the cooling system of a water-cooled car?
The direct-cooled Franklin does not carry any of these things. This is one of the reasons for its extra light weight.

Why pay for carrying useless weight?
Did you ever stop to consider the trouble you have with water-cooling? Its liability to freeze in winter and boil dry in summer? Don't let them fool you-- Franklin Direct Cooling is Better!!!

We will enter our FRANKLIN in a cooling test with any water-cooled car, and win!!!

J. A. GILMORE, PRESIDENT OF FEDERAL LEAGUE

Joseph A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League of Baseball clubs, has organized baseball—meaning the American and National leagues more frightened than it has been since the organization of the Ban Johnson circuit. Mr. Gilmore has been running about the country signing star players as managers for different cities in his league until the older magnates don't know just what will happen next season.

Already he has taken Mordecai Brown, the former great pitcher of the Chicago Cubs of the National league, and Otto Knabe, second baseman of the Philadelphia National league club. So far he has not broken into the American league clubs and they have had no trouble with him.

At this time the Federal league is in a chaotic state and it is impossible for Gilmore himself to say in how many cities they will begin the next season. Nevertheless, there have been indications that he has money behind him. Knabe has been guaranteed a better salary in Baltimore than Philadelphia would pay him, and a guarantee company has undertaken to assure Tinker his salary of $12,000 will be paid for three years.

Pastime Tuesday Wednesday
The Pastime presents for this change of pictures "The Open Door, or Home Again After Many Years," a Selig melodrama featuring Frank Newburg, assisted by Adele Lane and Lafayette McKee. The story is in two parts and depicts how the photograph of an unknown waif, taken when he is sent to an orphan's asylum, is preserved by him, so when eighteen years later, he happens through the door of his old home he establishes his identity. A striking story filled with human interest.

The story of a professional crack-man's wife is depicted in "For Her Government." It is made by the Bio-graph company and features Claire McDowell, Harry Carey and James Cooley.

"The Education of Aunt Georgia," Vitagraph comedy. Her niece has courage and a mind of her own. Her nephew asserts his independence.
Auntie is convinced and consents to their marriage. Maurice Costello and Mary Charleson are the principals.

when it was believed by the person who took it that all the money it contained had been removed.

The purse was found by Gustav

BIG WHEAT DEAL AT 76 CENTS SATURDAY

MARTIN, BANISTER, CORKLE AND GORDON SELL CROPS TO HIGH BIDDERS.

Twenty-Five Thousand Sacks Turned Loose—With Little Wheat Left Market Is Slow.

With 25,000 sacks of wheat selling at 76 cents there was some activity in the local wheat market late Saturday afternoon. Those who sold were Frank Martin, J. M. Banister, Mack Corkle and Jessie Gordon and the wheat was taken by the Pacific Coast Co., Puget Sound Co., and Roland Oliver.

Of the wheat sold, Mr. Martin had 6000 sacks, Mr. Banister 10,000 sacks, while the remainder was held by Messrs. Corkle and Gordon, who left their wheat with Martin and Banister to sell. The two men listed all four lots with every wheat buyer in the city and bids were submitted on the various lots, the highest bids being accepted.

Aside from the above combination sale there was little if any selling here Saturday. In fact the market is extremely slow owing to the fact there is but little wheat left in the hands of the growers.

MIKE GIBBONS AND BOB McALLISTER, CLEVEREST MIDDLEWEIGHT T.S. MAY DECIDE CHAMPIONSHIP

Bob McAllister and Mike Gibbons, the cleverest middleweights seen in the ring since the days when Sam Langford belonged in that class, may settle the middleweight championship of the United States, and of course of the world, within a very short time.

Their contest of ten rounds in New York is hardly to be considered as sufficient of a test to determine definitely which is the better man.

McAllister's recent showing with Batting Levinsky, Dan Moran's dashing light-weight, brought him to the front with a bound. He showed cleverness sufficient to make him a contender in his class. On the other hand Gibbons has proved time and again that he must be considered Gibbons should have been the middleweight champion long ago. Had he been properly managed he would have acquired the title. There isn't much doubt that he could have disposed of Frank Klaus, Jack Dillon and a few other runners-up. But for some reason Gibbons' manager has not pushed him to the front.

The only other man who figures with McAllister and Gibbons in the class is Chip, the new Pennsylvania middleweight, who knocked out Klaus twice.
