BIG RUN CATTLE IS COMING IN PORTLAND

(Courtesy of the Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 24.—Sales of sheep made at North Portland recently were at a reduction of a fraction for some stock but general market showed no change. There was only a very limited run of sheep in the yards overnight and even these were a direct shipment to a local killer.

The market for mutton is losing some of its former extreme strength at points east of the Rockies but prices there continue very favorable.

General mutton market range:
Best lambs $ 6.75
Yearling lambs 5.75@5.85
Old wethers 5.25@5.50
Fancy ewes 4.50@4.75
Ordinary ewes 3.00@4.50

Big Run Cattle Promised.
While there was only a small run of cattle reported in the yards overnight, the market continues very weak and there is no improvement in prospect for the immediate future. A very heavy run of cattle is promised for the opening of the market Monday and in anticipation of this killers have decided bearish tendencies when it comes to buying.

General cattle market:
Best grain fed steers $7.50@7.60
Ordinary grain fed steers 7.35@7.40
Best hay fed steers 7.30@7.35
Poor steers 5.50@6.50
Best heifers 6.75
Best cows 6.70
Medium cows 6.25
Poor cows 5.50@5.65
Ordinary bulls 5.00@5.25

WHEAT PRICES LIFTED

Chicago Market Closes 1-2 to 7-8c Per Bushel Higher; Foreign Prices Are Higher.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Wheat option prices were lifted 1-2c to 7-8c a bushel at the closing compared with Thursday's final figures. The market was under constant strength during the session, opening values being 1-8c to 1-4c higher.

The market was aided considerably by the bullish news from abroad and the report from middle west centers that export business was passing there.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool that the steadiness in American cables and firmness in Buenos Ayres Thursday, together with light Argentine shipments and the sharp advance in spot, stimulated covering by shorts. The advance was checked by the heavy Australian shipments but good support continued.

Wheat.
May—Open 92 7-8, high 93 5-8, low 92 3-4, close 92 5-8.
July—Open 88 5-8, high 89, low 88 5-8, close 88 7-8.

30 Years Passed in Bed.
PARIS, Jan. 24.—The death is announced of Mile. Lecaux, who died in the village of Neuvion, near Laon.

HOG MARKET IS STEADY.

While one small lot of extra good hogs was made in the yards late yesterday afternoon at $8.10, the general market for good stuff is not considered at that figure; in fact, $8.95 more generally represent the actual state of the local swine trade than does the higher figure.

There was a mixed situation in the swine market at eastern centers for the day, but the general tendency of the market was less favorable. Perhaps this was the reason why the nickel advance was paid for one lot at North Portland—trade here goes just contrary to what other markets are doing.

General hog market range:
Top killers $ 8.05
Good and light 7.95@8.00
