COMMITTEE OF 100 BELIEVES THAT PROHIBITION WILL CARRY HERE,

PORTLAND, Ore., March 21 .- The Oregon dry campaign was launched at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Portland, called by the committee of 100 which will have charge of the effort to secure the adoption by the people of the constientional amendment providing for state-wide prohibtion,

Hudson R. Hastings, chairman, formally read the amendment submitted

"Article I of the constitution of the state of Oregon shall be and hereby is amended by adding thereto the following sections, which shall be desigmated section 6 of article I:

"Section 36. From and after Janmary first, 1916, no intoxicating, liquors shall be manufactured or sold within this state, except for medicinal purposes upon prescription of a licensed physician, or for scientific. sucramental or mechanical purposes.

"This section is self-executing, and all provisions of the constitution and laws of this state and of the charter and ordinances of all cities, towns and other municipalities therein, in conflict with the provisions of this section, are hereby repealed.

The meeting was characterized by enthusiastic belief that the state is going dry this year by popular vote. Speakers were Dr. Robert C. Coffey. Rev. Luther R. Dyott, representing the Ministerial association and pledging the assistance of every minister of the association; O. Jentegaard of the Good Templars; Mrs. F. S. Myers, president of the Portland Parent-Teacher association; J. B. Newell, of the Prohibition party; Mrs. Lulu Lovland Shepard of Salt Lake, president of the Utah W. C. T. U., whose prediction "Oregon is going dry" was received with applause; A. F. Flegel. Mr. Hutton of the Anti-Saloon league, and Harry W. Stone, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.
