NEWS OF FARM AND RANGE

Farm Fire Near Walla Walla—Fire on the Harvey McDonald place three miles from Walla Walla yesterday burned over a stubble field and destroyed two barns containing 25 tons of hay owned by the renter Jerry Farrell, plows, harrows and other tools, chicken houses and threatened two houses though the volunteer fire fighters saved them. The fire started it is claimed, from a spark from an O-W. R. & N. engine. This is the second fire on the McDonald place this fall, an engine spark several weeks ago burned a small tract of standing wheat. The grain was insured. The loss yesterday was not protected by insurance.

Cattle To East—Cattle shipments to the East from Union county were started today when Tom Proffitt and William Pollman of Baker and F. E. Stillwell of La Grande sent out four carloads of local stock to Kansas City, says the La Grande Observer. At Baker and at Welser enough stock to make up six more cars will be purchased and the train will head straight for Kansas City as soon as the cattle are loaded. But few cattle shipments are sent east from this county, the general trend being toward Portland. Last spring Mr. Stillwell brought in a big lot of Wyoming cattle to feed on the local ranges, and these are now getting ready for the market.

One Third of Crop Harvested—One third or more of the 1914 Umatilla county crop is now in the sack, according to the estimate of E. L. Smith, local Holt combine agent, and he believes a two weeks' continuation of the present weather will see the greater part of the grain harvested. Every day farmers are completing their cutting but there are still many fields standing. Mr. Smith declares the present harvest weather has been the most ideal in his remembrance.

Wants Deed to Farm Corrected—Through inadvertence the warranty deed given by Mary Josephine Duncan to Herbert H. Roberts and wife to 550 acres of farm land in the vicinity of Prospect Ranch failed to mention that the transfer was subject to the conditions of a lease between the grantor and G. L. Goodnight, according to the complaint of a suit filed today against the Roberts by Mrs. Duncan and she asks the court to cause a correction to be made. Her attorney is Judge Lowell.

Sheep Will Be Affected—Not only is the present European situation causing the price of wheat to go up but it will affect the sheep market in the belief of local sheepmen and they are watching developments with much interest.

Climbing Party Menaced—LA PINE, Ore., July 30.—Thousands of tons of lava were dislodged from their bed on the wall of the East Lake crater by a party of sightseers Monday, and slid down the side of Paulina Mountain, narrowly missing several members of the party.

The avalanche was started by one of the sightseers starting a boulder down the hill. Mrs. W. F. Arnold, wife of the editor of the La Pine Inter-Mountain, and Miss Elvira Nims, a teacher, members of the party, were the first white women who ever climbed the peak.

KUBS SCATTER AT END OF SEASON

To all parts of the country King's Kubs are scattering today. The exodus began last night when the majority of the players left Baker. A few are still here but none are counting on remaining here over the winter and by the end of the week it is probable that every one of the players who fought for Baker this year will be gone.

The majority of them will be playing ball for a while. Some will play all winter and others will play only for a few months and will then take a needed rest. Not one but is counting on being in the game again next year and with one or two exceptions the players are counting on being in Baker uniforms when the Western Tri-state season opens in 1915.

Manager Karl King with three other Western Tri-State players is going to Forsythe, Mont. The others are Naughton, Lodell and Schroder of the Pendleton club. The little town in Montana has an independent team and will pay the boys $150 a month each for something more than two months.

Charles Folwider, pitcher, will go to Portland tonight, confer with Fielder Jones and then report to Seattle where he will have tryout with Dugdale. Carl Cellers, pitcher and outfielder, will go to Cottage Grove where he will join an independent club and tour the coast.

Ray Baker, pitcher, will go to his home at Cottage Grove and work with his father in a blacksmith shop, managing a baseball team which will play games once a week.

Harvey Sutherland, pitcher, may go with King to Forsythe and he may report to the Tacoma club for a tryout. His sale is still pending.

Ray French, second baseman, will remain in Baker for a week and will then go to his home at Alameda, Cal., and play independent and winter ball there.

Nick Fuller, first baseman, will go to Seattle where he will play independent ball and work this winter as a pressman.

Leo Tomperi, shortstop, will leave tonight for Phoenix, Ariz., where he has a contract to play with an independent club two games a week at a good salary.

Third Baseman Sigby will go to his home at Portland where he has been called by illness in his family.

Phil Lind, outfielder, will go to his home at Portland and play independent ball.

Phil Nadeau, outfielder, left last night for Portland to work on the police force as a night watchman.

BOXES LA GRANDE GUIDES.

Barrels, Too, Used to Show Traffic Lines to Drivers. LA GRANDE, Ore., July 30.—La Grande citizens awoke to find that the street department, to teach "jay drivers" proper observance of traffic regulations, had put dry goods boxes and sugar barrels at busy street intersections to mark the traffic lines.

Many arrests have been made for driving on the wrong side of the street, for cutting corners, for driving without lights and for exceeding the speed limit set at 15 miles an hour. White crosses mark the center of all intersections on downtown streets, but these have proven inadequate.

CANDIDATES WILL BE INITIATED ON MOUNTAIN

ENTERPRISE, Ore., July 30.—Enterprise Lodge No. 94, Knights of Pythias will this year initiate five candidates on the summit of Eagle Cap, the highest mountain in eastern Oregon. Two candidates were initiated on the mountain last year, and the lodge and its visitors reported a very enjoyable trip. It is not a difficult trip to make, and requires only three days. Last year a number of Knights from Pendleton, La Grande, Union, Ontario and Walla were guests of Enterprise Lodge on the trip. This year the invitation is general to all Knights of Pythias and a large attendance is anticipated. The committee reports that the expense of each person for the three day trip from Enterprise should not be over $12 or $15 if a saddle horse is hired at the usual rates. If the trip is made on foot the expense should not exceed $6 or $7. Frank S. Grant, grand chancellor and other well known members of the order expect to be with the party. The start will be made on Wednesday morning, August 12.

PERSONAL MENTION

George Strand was in from his ranch yesterday. Mrs. E. L. Norvell of Adams was a visitor in Pendleton last evening. Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely took the morning train to Hermiston. Elmer Turner, local bottler, made a business trip to Umatilla today. John Spain, well known Union county cowboy, is in Pendleton today. A Nibley, prominent Union county sawmillman, is a business visitor in the city.

District Game Warden E. F. Averill has returned from a visit at Meacham.

John L. Barker of Meacham was down from the mountain yesterday on a brief visit.

Jack Vincent, Athena jeweler, returned home this morning after an overnight visit in the city.

Herbert Boylen, well known stockman of southern Umatilla county, is making Pendleton a brief business visit.

Gunner Peterson and "Louie" Lewis, members of the Pendleton ball team, left last evening for Payette, Idaho, where they will play for two weeks.

Asa B. Thomson, manager of the Echo telephone company and prominent Oregon irrigationist, spent last evening in the city and returned home on the morning train.

William Snider of McMinnville, who has been visiting Bert Jerard, left this morning for Cayuse where he will toughen up his football muscles in the Collins warehouse. He will enter the University of Oregon next fall.

George Pembroke, Pendleton's star catcher, has returned to his home in Portland. He will not finish the season with Helena on account of the refusal of that club to return him to Pendleton at the close of the season.

William Lowell, only son of Judge and Mrs. S. A. Lowell, arrived last evening from the coast where he has been taking his vacation and will leave tomorrow for Boise where he is a member of the local staff of the Idaho Daily Statesman.

Ford Will Bar Aliens. LOS ANGELES, July 30.—Henry Ford, president of the Ford Automobile company, will have none but Americans in his employ.

Hiker Finds Himself Barred.

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., July 30.—To return from a hiking trip barefooted, unshaven and without a change of underclothing to find his wife gone, the house and trunks containing the necessary implements and clothing for making himself presentable securely locked was the aggravating experience related by C. H. Stahlman, supervisor of schools.

Mrs. Stahlman was to have met her husband at Marshfield, but they missed connections.

Judge Lindsey and Only Two Serious Minded Women He Met at Newport

NEW YORK, July 30.—"I cannot help wondering how there can be peace for the people of Newport," said Judge Ben B. Lindsey on his return from the "gilded city." I met only two sincere, serious minded women there, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and her daughter, the Duchess of Marlborough. Newport's society girls to my mind are not one iota better than the poor shop girl who was convicted the other day of stealing $15. That girl had a whole family to support on $6 a week. What responsibilities has the Newport girl? She needs nothing; there is no temptation she must meet. In the same circumstances would she behave differently than the shop girl? Nobody is bad, nobody is good. It is the powers, the circumstances behind us that are good or bad."

YAKIMA BRAVES DO NOT GET FULL PAY

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 30.—Manager Eddie Ford of the Yakima Braves arrived in town yesterday for a visit here. He stated that when the Braves were paid off, 20 per cent of their salary was held back by the club, and therefore he claims the Braves are all free agents. This being so, Yakima can gain nothing from the sale of Peterson, now with the McCredes of Portland.

It is claimed by others however that the Yakima management has the right to fine their players a portion of their salary. Whether they can fine them 20 per cent of their pay for a considerable period is the question. Ford says the Yakima directors had to go down in their own pockets to pay them what they did, and after producing 80 per cent of the salaries due told the Braves "to take it or leave it, as they pleased."

Here's Way to Test An Egg. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—Housewives need no longer fear the contents of an egg. For the benefit of housewives in particular, but also to aid farmers, country merchants, or egg shippers who wish to buy and handle eggs on an accurate quality basis, the department of agriculture has a colored egg candling chart.

The chart tells accurately the condition of an egg before it is opened and with it before her the housewife need not take the word of another as to the quality of an egg. Of course, the egg must be candled first and its appearance compared with the chart before sentence is passed. The chart shows eggs in their natural size as they appear before a candle and also as they are when open. In fact, eggs in all conditions are shown.
