LOCAL WOMEN NEED NO EASTERN GUIDE

CHAMBERLAIN WORKER DENOUNCES EFFORT TO INJURE CANDIDATE.

(By Will M. Peterson.)
The women of Oregon are the best, the noblest, the bravest of this world. They constitute the wives and widows of the pioneer men who left their homes in eastern states, penetrated the jungles in early days and bore the hardships and privations incidental to the carving of our state out of a wilderness of virgin territory; the daughters and granddaughters of the brave men and women before whose pioneer axes giant forests fell in laying the foundation of this grand domain; the women of other domains who have come here with the noble purpose of making their homes and becoming a part of the finest citizenship in the world. They are the cream of womanhood, the salt of the earth, the very elect of Divinity. In intelligence, ideal citizenship, force of character, they have no superiors. I have been over the United States, have met women of other countries, have read the history of other nations, and I have never found, by observation or reading, nobler women anywhere than in Oregon; yet, this world is blest with noble womanhood everywhere.

The women of Oregon know their people. They know how to vote, how to exercise functions of government, how to manage their homes, how to conduct their affairs, how to raise their children, how to demean themselves. They know the years of active, earnest effort on the part of George E. Chamberlain, Dr. C. J. Smith, and other good men and women, regardless of party politics, to obtain the right of suffrage for them. They know how to appreciate kindly acts and noble deeds done in their behalf and they are never guilty of ingratitude, treachery, or infamy, and all of the hired assassins of character imported among us can not, in a thousand years of vituperative effort, cause them to do wrong, to stab a benefactor in the back. They need no hired emissaries from eastern states to instruct them in matters of suffrage or anything else. It is a brazen insult to their intelligence to have officious intermeddlers, imported busybodies now among us, endeavoring to tell them how to vote. The woman who comes here from elsewhere to interfere with our good women, to attempt to teach them how to vote, is certainly possessed of gall, wormwood, brass, and is unconsciously suffering from a highly developed case of megalomania—commonly known as swelled head. The man who aids or encourages such a woman to come among us is no gentleman. He, too, insults the intelligence of the citizenship.

Oregon is not a heathen country. It needs no foreign missionaries, no officious intermeddlers to tell its people how to vote. The women of Oregon know whether they want to vote for Chamberlain or Booth, Smith or Withycombe, wet or dry, and they will exercise their right of suffrage freely, fearlessly and well. These emissary women, hired to come to Oregon, had as well enter our homes and tell our wives how to cook, how to keep house how to raise their children, as to undertake to tell them how to vote. Every attempt to do any one of these things is a gross insult and should meet with instant rebuke by our people.

All honor to the noble womanhood of Oregon! Republican or democrat, wet or dry, Christian or non-Christian, it is the crowning work of nature and nature's God, the keystone in the arch of the civilization of the world.

It coaxes back that well feeling, healthy look, puts the sap of life in your system, protects you from disease. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has no equal as a tonic for the whole family. Tallman & Co.—Adv.

"DRYS" SUPPORT SMITH.

Cal Stewart, who lives four miles west of Albany, said: "I am going to vote wet. I don't look like a fool, do I? Nobody with any sense would vote anything but wet. I have been voting a straight ticket ever since 1861, so I guess I will vote for Withycombe and Booth."
"I am a republican," said another man, and I live six miles east of the courthouse, but I don't know whom I shall support for senator and governor. I am a dry."
Too Busy to Talk.
G. D. Burdick joined the conversation. "Of course, the state will go dry," he said. "Smith is going to be elected governor. Most of the women are going to vote for him because he stands for law enforcement."

We stepped out of the way to let a mud-splashed vehicle drive in. The driver was Ed School. "I am going to vote for Smith for governor and Chamberlain for senator. You can tell by my name that I am a German. At least 75 per cent of my people are going to vote for Smith."
The next man who drove in was about 50, and said he was too busy to talk. "I am hungry and I haven't time to tell you my name. I am going to vote for Smith and Chamberlain."
Felix Dodele of Walls, Benton county, declared for Withycombe and said "that timber business is very harmful to Booth's candidacy."
C. M. Westbrook, also of Benton county, said: "I am voting wet. Withycombe and Booth are my candidates."
D. S. Smith, ex-sheriff of Linn county said: "Smith will run far ahead of his ticket in this county. Most of the women will vote for Smith, because of his stand on law enforcement."

Prediction is Made.
P. P. Nutting said: "Linn county will go dry by 1909 to 2009, and Smith will get most of the dry strength. I hear many republicans say they are going to support Smith because he is outspoken and not a trimmer. They think Smith is dependable and will stand by his principles and pledges. Withycombe is losing strength all the time."
W. R. Blyeu said: "Smith stands for law enforcement, and, irrespective of politics, the women are going to vote for him. The thing that is hurting Dr. Withycombe is that people think him too easy going and that he will accordingly let all kinds of extravagant legislation go through. Taxes are high enough now and the people want a governor who will stand up and fight, using the veto fearlessly. The chances for Smith and Chamberlain are mighty good in Linn county."

What Would You Do?
There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

The smartest tunics reach almost to the skirt edge.
Straight band shapes are among the new collars.
Fancy fillet meshes are the most fashionable veillings.

For Glove Button.
When a glove button will not stay fastened, or as sometimes happens, the bottom part of the button pulls off, try this: Take an ordinary placket fastener and sew on a little to one side of the glove button, which is left on for appearance sake.

BOSTON TO HAVE NEW $3,000,000 HOTEL
BOSTON, Oct. 21.—Further announcements are expected here shortly setting forth in detail the plans for a new hotel that will cost more than $3,000,000 and will sound the death knell of the famous old Boston theater which for years has been a landmark of downtown Boston.

It has already been announced that negotiations were nearly completed for the purchase and lease of several desirable lots on Washington, Tremont and Mason streets, including the Boston theater property.
Unusual interest is being taken in the proposed new hotel, not only because it will mean the elimination of one of the oldest playhouses in the country, but if present plans are carried out, it will be the biggest hotel in the city, will touch three main thoroughfares and will furnish a great, modern hotel with moderate priced rooms with special accommodations, including sample rooms, for traveling salesmen.

YOUTHS ARE ARRESTED AT ECHO FOR RUSTLING

ARTHUR GULLIFORD AND CARL KIRK CHARGED WITH CATTLE STEALING.

(Special Correspondence.)
ECHO, Ore., Oct. 20.—Till Taylor was here yesterday and arrested and took to Pendleton with him Arthur Gulliford and Carl Kirk on the charge of stealing cattle. It appears that six head of cattle belonging to Mr. Nelson were missed from the Cunha pasture ten miles south of Echo on Friday night. Sheriff Taylor was notified and arriving on the scene he easily tracked them to the Gulliford farm five miles west of town where the cattle were found. This is the second time young Gulliford has been in the toils of the law on a similar charge. Kirk is a Ukiah boy.

On last Friday night the L. O. O. F. hall was broken into by noobs about 11 o'clock after those serving the harvest home supper had departed. A quantity of victuals were taken. The city marshal chased three men from the building and captured one, but on account of insufficient evidence he was liberated the next morning.

C. E. Cameron of Holdman, was transferring business here yesterday. Mrs. Ralph Honney of The Dalles is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey.

C. R. Lisle of Portland is among those registered at the Hotel Echo. Mrs. Alice Long, who has been visiting her brother, Hume McCormick of this place, left Monday for California.

Kansas Sanitary State.
TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 21.—Kansas ranks unusually high as a sanitary state, because of the large number of cities with sewer and water systems, according to a report issued by Alvah J. Smith, city engineer of Emporia. There are but seven cities in Kansas with population of 1000 which have no water works system and not a town of 2000 is without a city water

SORE ERUPTION ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

Started with Blisters. Itched So Could Not Sleep. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In Three Weeks Was All Healed.

Route No. 3, Box 67, Little Falls, Minn.
"Our little boy was taken sick with a fever and after the fever he broke out with a sore eruption all over his body. We could get nothing to help him. The sores were large and red and bleeding. They started with blisters as if he were burned and when they broke they would bleed and they itched so that he could not sleep for some time. We had him all tied up with bandages and then we had to soak them off every day.

"We bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which soon gave him relief. We used the Cuticura Soap to wash him with and used the Ointment afterwards and in about two weeks he was able to sit up. Now he is as well as can be for in three weeks he was all healed by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) George Wolters, Jan. 29, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail

are always aggravated during damp, changeable weather and ordinary treatments are often useless.

Such conditions need the oil-fool in Scott's Emulsion to reduce the injurious acids and strengthen the organs to expel them.
Scott's Emulsion, with careful diet for one month, often relieves the lame muscles and stiffened joints and subdues the sharp, unbearable pains when other remedies have failed.
NO ALCOHOL IN SCOTT'S

supply. The state ranks sixth in the number of towns with sewers systems and fourth in the number of sewage treating systems, with other states in the country. Mr. Smith's figures show that 87 per cent of Kansas people living in towns of over 1000 population have the privilege of connecting with sanitary sewers.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.
