SUFFERED TWENTY-ONE YEARS—FINALLY FOUND RELIEF

Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Injections of morphine were my only relief for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on my second bottle and am feeling like a new woman. I passed a gravel stone as large as a big red bean and several small ones. I have not had the least feeling of pain since taking your Swamp-Root and I feel it my duty to recommend this great medicine to all suffering humanity. Gratefully yours, MRS. JOSEPH CONSTANCE, Rapidus Par, Echo, La.

Personally appeared before me, this 15th day of July, 1911, Mrs. Joseph Constance, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact. WM. MORROW, Notary Public.

A PRINCIPLE THAT IS ENTIRELY WRONG

Voters and Taxpayers, Would You Like for Other Communities in Oregon to Vote Away the Right of Self Government in Pendleton?

Prohibition is always advocated upon the ground that it is right in principle and that it will improve the morals of the community. No good man or woman wants to vote against principle, or cast a ballot that is against good morals. Is the proposed constitutional amendment to make Oregon dry right in principle, and would its adoption be an act of good morals? This is a serious question to every Christian man and woman and to every person who desires to keep his conscience clear. What right has a voter in Pendleton to say that the City of Astoria should be dry if Astoria desires to be wet? What right to say that Salem or Medford shall be wet if the residents of those cities desire their communities to be dry? When Oregon voted wet in former elections, did it result that all the communities of the state licensed intoxicating liquors? Everyone knows that it did not, for under the Home Rule Amendment and the Local Option Law of Oregon, both of which are now in effect, every town and every county can say

For itself whether or not it shall be wet or dry. What then is the purpose of the proposed Oregon dry amendment? Can there be any purpose except that some dry voters in Oregon wish to take away from other voters the right of self-government, and that some dry communities wish to vote away from other counties the right to determine the liquor question for themselves? What other possible purpose can there be? Does any good man or woman, whether wet or dry, believe that it is right to compel some other community to change its views on the saloon question? Where the sentiment in a community is wet, do you think you can vote that county dry and expect juries to convict bootleggers? There is not an officer of the law in the state who will contend that the law can be enforced if it is against public sentiment. Is it good morals for one part of the state to vote another part dry, and then leave the last community powerless to enforce the prohibition laws? Who would contend that because Oregon voted wet in former elections that saloons ought to have been thrust upon every community in the state. Such a result would have been an outrage, and was never even attempted by the most radical opponent of prohibition. Think of this before you vote in favor of the proposed amendment. Why should the prohibitionist be less liberal and less just than the saloon sympathizer? Everybody believes in temperance, excepting a few who are too weak to have beliefs. A great many believe in dry towns; that is the personal privilege of the voter. Vote dry in your own town if you are willing to pay the price in injury to business and property. Vote dry in your own town if you prefer the bootlegger to the licensed saloon. Remember, when you do so, that history has shown that there is more whiskey shipped into dry territory than into wet territory. The liquor is consumed just the same; but whatever you think, Mr. Voter, on this proposition has nothing to do with the proposed dry amendment. You can't expect good morals to flourish on bad principles; good government never came from despotism. Portland will never be a moral city because someone in Pendleton votes it dry. Let us keep our Local Option Law, let us keep and use our Home Rule Amendment, but let us not make the mistake of trying to legislate for someone who doesn't want our legislation. Let us vote at home as we please, but not commit the unpardonable sin of assuming control over the welfare of other people and other communities—(Taxpayers' and Wage Earners' League, by H. E. Bickers, Pendleton, Oregon. Paid Advertisement.)
