

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied.

SPORTS

FIGHT DOPE.

(By Hal Sheridan. Written for the United Press.) NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The year 1914—the grandest little twelve month period of upsets the world of sport has ever known—is not likely to see a recognized and undisputed middleweight champion.

One match wouldn't make one, anyhow. It will take several clashes and some very decided beatings to develop a middleweight who stands out clearly enough to have the sash that once adorned Stanley Ketchel wound around him.

Hog market at North Portland retained its strength today and values were well sustained at the extreme mark. Little stuff was offering for sale at the opening of the day's trade and this forced buyers to take hold more quickly.

Local Playhouses

WHAT the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions

Orpheum — Thursday and Friday. King Baggot and Ariene Pretty are featured in a stirring two part Imp drama, "The Silent Valley."

The night of the show just as the girl starts to dance Joe rushes up picks her up and carries her off to his cabin. She faints and when she revives he tells her his life story. His loneliness and everything. He repents and lets her go, but the flame of love has been kindled and the next spring she returns as his bride.

"Cupid Victor." Eclair. Mildred, a charming young sculptress, is featured by a crowd of Bohemian hangers-on who sponge on her hospitality and compliment her work, which is really poor. She encourages them while she repulses Bob who really loves her, but will not tell her her status are good. Cupid takes a hand and she has three wonderful dreams which show her things in their true light and her humbled head bows on Bob's shoulder.

"Universal Ike, His Legacy." Universal Ike and Louise elope and to escape the old folks have to climb upon the roof of the hotel by the fire escape. But the preacher marries them before they get down.

DOROTHY DONNELLY IS BILLED Creator of Madame X to Be Seen in "The Thief" at the Pastime.

Dorothy Donnelly, the creator of "Madame X" begins today at the Pastime a three-day engagement in "The Thief," Henri Bernstein's greatest play.

The play is one of the thrills from the start, telling the story of love and sacrifice in a wonderfully charming way. The heroine, a young woman of weak character, but with infinite capacity for love, centers her affections upon a man of social position. Without beauty or wealth she fails to attract his attention, and in order to do so steals large sums of money from her friends to buy beautiful clothes.

Her thievery is discovered and the blame laid on the man, who, knowing the truth, is silent to shield her. The love, however, which led her astray has changed her character and in a moment keenly dramatic she confesses.

Miss Donnelly holds first rank among the movie emotional actresses. In "The Thief" she has made an exceptional success of her role and has been ably supported by an all star cast. The gowns that she wears in the play and which are shown on the screen cost $5000 and were selected especially for the part from the stock of the best modistes in New York, London and Paris.

W. H. H. Darby is Dead. SALEM, Ore., Dec. 23.—W. H. H. Darby, a resident of Oregon for 64 years, died at his home in this city, Mr. Darby came to Oregon in 1850 and lived at Sublimity 41 years. He engaged in the mercantile business and for a number of years conducted a farm in the Waldo Hills country. He moved to Salem 15 years ago.

Mr. Darby is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Darby, and seven children, as follows: W. H. Darby, Salem; W. F. Darby, Arizona; John Darby, Shaw; B. L. Darby, Glendale; Mrs. B. B. Starn, Toppensish, Wash.; and Mrs. R. W. Logan, La Grande. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. M. Hilda McKinney, of Turner, and a brother, John Darby, of Eldorado Springs, Mo.

Cosy—Wednesday and Thursday. The Musical Theos, in a novelty musical act, will be the vaudeville attraction for these two days. This is really a pleasing act.

The Garrison Sisters in a novelty posing act will open Thursday night in an act that is a distinct novelty on the vaudeville stage and one that features "The most perfectly formed girl in the world." We know you will like these acts.

"Not of the Flock." Two reel Domino. A story of the church and the dance halls, in which a brave little girl fought alone against great temptations and her final triumph and ultimate happiness.

Mutual Weekly No. 100. A big bunch of war news in this issue; millions of Christmas gifts leave New York for the children of the warring nations; U. S. cruiser Tennessee fired on by Turks; British ship "Good Hope," sunk by the Germans off the coast of Chile; Yale-Princeton football game; the latest dance, the much talked about "Fox Trot," other events.

"The Housebreakers." A detective burlesque with many laughs.

CREPT ALONG LEDGE TO CATCH HIS WIFE LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 23.—Sue for divorce filed by Harry Eisenberg against Mrs. Ella Hartsook Eisenberg cause much comment here because of the sensational nature of the charges in the complaint.

Eisenberg went to San Francisco December 5, where his wife already had gone to take charge of the photographic studio of her brother, Fred Hartsook. In his suit he alleged that he crept along a window ledge of the Alpine hotel, three stories above the street and entered the rooms of Peter Zanetti, a real estate dealer, who is named co-respondent. He alleged that Mrs. Eisenberg was there, and that he and Zanetti engaged in a fight.

Mrs. Eisenberg is in San Francisco. She is expected to return soon to answer her husband's charges.

"WHO ARE YOU?" "I'M JUST YOU," HE SAID CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 23.—Prince Kampenpetch of Slam promised reporters before he departed for San Francisco that he would have his brother, the king of Slam, issue a royal decree changing the name of Captain Yoo of the imperial army of the country made famous by twins. "And who are you?" reporters politely asked Captain Yoo when the party arrived.

"Yoo" responded the captain. "Who?" asked the reporters. "Yoo," he repeated. The questioning was developing into a burlesque when the prince appeared. He spelled Yoo's name.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

EAT LESS MEAT, ALSO TAKE GLASS OF SALTS BEFORE EATING BREAKFAST.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. He urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

BABY BORN ORPHAN IS THRIVING

Miss Mager, born an orphan Monday afternoon, her mother dying fifteen minutes before she was brought into the world. NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The Mager baby, born in Beth David Hospital fifteen minutes after the death of her mother, Mrs. Sadie Mager, is thriving under the watchful care of the staff physicians and nurses of the hospital. May 10, 1912, ten minutes after his mother died. He is today as strong a hungry, lively baby she is, and the physicians who performed the wonderful operation have found it necessary to supplement the milk with a little boiled water. There is but one child living in the United States today who was born after the death of his mother. He is Reuben Litvitz, son of Samuel Litvitz, who lives at No. 2049 Sixty-first street, Brooklyn. Reuben was born in Nordham Hospital on May 10, 1912, ten minutes after his mother died. He is today as strong a hungry, lively baby she is, and the physicians who performed the wonderful operation have found it necessary to supplement the milk with a little boiled water.
