

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair.

Nowadays we set this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied.

HOG MARKET'S DOWN A DIME

PORTLAND, Ore.—Hog prices took another drop of about a dime today.

There was another big run of ewes reported in the North Portland yards overnight, totals reaching within a fraction of 2000 head while but 340 head came forward a week ago.

General hog market range: Best light ..... $7.00@7.05 Medium light ..... 6.00@7.00 Good to heavy ..... 6.85 Rough and heavy ..... 6.75@6.80 Stockers ..... 6.00@6.40

Cattle Situation Steady. Today, while there was only a very limited showing of supplies in the North Portland market, the cattle trade was quoted just about steady with values holding their own.

General cattle market range: Selected steers ..... $7.75@8.00 Good to prime ..... 7.25@7.50 Good to choice ..... 6.50@6.75 Ordinary to fair ..... 5.75@6.25 Best cows ..... 6.85 Good to prime ..... 6.50@6.70 Ordinary ..... 5.25@5.50 Selected calves ..... 8.00@8.50 Fancy bulls ..... 6.50@6.75 Ordinary ..... 4.00@4.25

Sheep Situation Strong. The real bright spot of the livestock trade is still in the mutton and lamb division at North Portland.

At Chicago there was a steady tone in the sheep trade for the day.

Kansas City sheep market was strong with an advance of a nickel over yesterday.

Omaha sheep market was reported steady to strong this morning with top lambs $8.70 and best yearlings $7.60.

General mutton market range: Old wethers ..... $6.00@6.25 Best yearlings ..... 6.50 Best ewes ..... 5.00@5.50 Best east mountain lambs 7.40@7.50 Valley light lambs ..... 7.25@7.35 Heavy spring lambs ..... 6.75@7.25

Wyoming May Change Capital. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 5.—A determined effort to bring about the removal of the capital of Wyoming from Cheyenne to Casper is to be inaugurated during the coming session of the legislature by Representative Stephen Tobin and Robert Grieve.

The measure would authorize the submission of a capital removal constitutional amendment to the voters at the 1916 elections. To become effective the bill must receive a vote of two-thirds of each house of the legislature and the amendment must receive a majority of all votes cast at the general election.

The advocates of the change contend that Cheyenne is not centrally located and is not as readily accessible to all sections of the state as is Casper.

Fair Coinage Authorized. WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—A memorial issue of gold and silver coins to commemorate the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is authorized by a bill which passed the house. It had passed the senate previously.

The measure would authorize the coinage of $50, $25 and $1 gold pieces, and 50 cent silver pieces. A part of the issue of gold $50 pieces would be after the model of the octagonal coins issued in California in 1851.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contains Mercury. Catarrh will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.

Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

CHICAGO WHEAT CLOSES LOWER

(Wednesday's Market.)

CHICAGO.—Wheat closed 1-2c lower. In a way it was a day of liquidation and evening up by the wheat trade with unusual activity at times and a number of quick turns in the market covering a range of 1-2 to 2c.

There was a claim early that some of the seaboard exporters were trying to resell but not much of that sort of business was confirmed.

A large element in the trade seemed to feel that the recent advance was too fast—that the market was getting away from the exporters and a reaction was in order.

There was a sharp dip in corn of about 2-4c on first trades, with complete recovery to Tuesday prices an hour later. Liverpool spot and futures are higher again.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS YOU, DRINK LOTS OF WATER

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine.

Drinks lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active.

Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

SPORTS

SPORT DOPE.

BY HAL SHERIDAN. (Written for the United Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The grand old dope box gets another shaking up. A careful perusal of the Federal league batting averages for the season of 1914, recently made public by the genial Mr. Gilmore, will shake one's faith in that old adage that "figures don't lie." They must not lie but they certainly mystify when one gazes over the marks set up by some of the batsmen in the third loop last year.

Athletes who clubbed out three hundred and better averages in the National and American league slumped down in the two fifty class in the Fed league. And on the other hand some who could not even pile up two hundred mark in the Johnson and Tener circuit slugged for three hundred and more in the third league. That's where the dope box gets a shaking up.

The case of Josephus Tinker is one of the glaring kind. Along with his woes as manager of the Cincinnati Reds in 1913 Joe managed to eke out a puny average of .317 against National league pitching. Well, Joe himself and several others thought what he would do to the twirlers in the Federal league would be a shame. It was not the kind of a shame that was predicted. Tinker managed to amass an average of just .259 in the Gilmore circuit—a fall of 58 points from his work in the National league.

Danny Murphy, once a star in the Athletic outfield, was a little more consistent. He walloped the leather for .322 with the Athletics in 1913. Last year with the Brookfeds he clubbed out a mark of .311. Art Criger, in the International league in 1913, pounded .292. Last season with the Feds he dropped to .282. George Stoval, in his last year in the American league, had a mark of .287. As the leader of the Kansas City Fed tribe in 1914 he could pile up an average of but .270.

Those named are some of the ones who went down the ladder. There are on the other hand some who went up even farther than the others descended. Of these Hal Chase stands out the most prominent. In 1913 in Ban Johnson's loop, the first sacker who once was the pride of Gotham slammed the ball for an average of .257. Last season, with the Buffalo Feds he returned to his form of former days with the Yankees by chalking up an average of .354.

Steve Yerks was another who found the brand of pitching on the Federal league to his liking. Last season with the Pittsburgh Feds he slammed the ball for an average of .333. His mark in the American league in 1913 was .267, giving him a gain of sixty-six points.

Frank LaPorte, formerly of the St. Louis Browns and the Washington Senators, batted .260 in the American league, with Indianapolis, the Fed league pennant winners last season. He was good for a mark of .311.

Art Wilson, when he was with the giants in 1913, couldn't even top the two hundred mark, his average being .190. With Tinker's shifted crew last season he chalked up .287, a gain of nearly one hundred points.

New York's premier fistic promoters are preparing to go out of business. They say they can't continue longer while the top-notch boxers demand as much for their services as they do now.

It is a recognized fact that boxing bouts no longer draw a crowd unless two well known stars are performing. Jimmy Johnston, manager of the association that conducts shows in Madison Square Garden, has made an effort to stage nothing but high class shows all winter. His shows have been the best quality but to date very little profit has been made. The boxers are getting most of the money.

Champions and near champions are demanding all the way from $5,000 to $15,000 for meeting a very ordinary opponent in a ten round no-decision bout. The promoters have been meeting these demands but the signs are that they won't continue to do so much longer.

Associated with the Greyhound is Jack Fay, alias "The Pale Face Kid," an unsmooth crook; F. Crawford Alexander, alias "Whispering Alex," a suave, gentlemanly, intelligent card sharp and forger; "Deep Sea Kitty," an adventurer.

The various preconceived plans of the quartette all go astray because of the timely intervention of the police, until finally suspicion is aroused that Claire, the Greyhound's wife, has had a hand in frustrating their plans.

Claire, awakening to the fact that her final endeavors to reform Fellman are of no avail, determines upon suicide. "The Greyhound," before leaving for Europe, entered into a death pact with his wife, who still loved him. Claire drinks the poison potion, while Fellman leads her to believe that he had taken his. However, the dose is not fatal, and merely renders her unconscious. Fellman, believing his wife dead, decides to go to Europe in quest of a party he has learned from a pal is going abroad.

In the meantime McSherry, formerly a professional gambler, now reformed and in the employ of "The Eye," a former sweetheart of Claire's arrives with a message from her brother—realizing her trouble, he devotes his energies to helping her.

Learning of Fellman's brutal treatment of Claire, McSherry vows vengeance and follows Fellman like a Nemesis.

"Whispering Alex" is apprehended for forgery. Kitty resolves to reform, and Claire, happy under her brother's protection, in England, is visited by McSherry. The future of both seems in a fair way of spelling happiness.
