BRITISH CRUISER SUNK.

No estimate regarding the probable casualties aboard these ships was offered. The greatest exhilaration throughout England has resulted from the achievement. Everywhere are heard demands that the North Sea fleet "wipe out the enemy's navy now."

LONDON, Jan. 25.—An attempt by a German cruiser squadron to repeat the attack recently made on Scarborough, the Hartlepool and other British coast towns was frustrated Sunday by the British patrolling squadron.

In a running fight the German armored cruiser Bleucher was sunk and two German battle cruisers were seriously damaged.

Britons Suffer Little Damage.
The British ships suffered only slight damage. So far as is known only 123 of the Bleucher's crew of 885 were saved.

A battle occurred also between the light cruisers and destroyers accompanying the bigger ships, but the result of this engagement has not yet reached the admiralty.

The British were superior in ships engaged, weight of armament and speed, and the flight of the German ships into the mine and submarine-infested field possibly saved them from further loss.

German Vessels Formidable.

The Bleucher was a cruiser of 15,550 tons displacement and although commissioned in 1908, was completely re-fitted last year. She was not classed as a battle cruiser, but was in the next class to those formidable fighters.

With her were the Derflinger, Germany's latest battle cruiser, which had just left the bulider's hands, and the battle cruisers Seydlitz and Moltke, the latter a sister ship of the Goeben, formerly of the German but now of the Turkish fleet, which was recently reported damaged by the Russians in the Black Sea.

Germans Protest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Germany protested to the state department against the manufacture of hydro-aeroplanes in the United States for England and Russia. German Ambassador Von Bernstorff submitted a note which declared that the Glenn Curtiss works had sold England and Russia six machines of the hydro-aeroplane type.

Lowell Makes Protest.
Judge S. A. Lowell today filed a letter of protest with the county court against acceptance of any money from Andrew Carnegie for support of a city or county library. He takes the position that Carnegie's money was obtained in a manner that does him no credit and that a monument to him in this county would not be a good thing for the youth. His protest is unavailing as the transactions had already been made.

Two Sentenced to Pen.
Frank Sisco, convicted last week of "strong-arming" J. B. Morehouse and robbing him during the Round-up was this morning sentenced by Judge Phelps to the state penitentiary from one to five years. # SENATE VOTES TO ABOLISH THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 25.—The senate voted 26 to two to abolish the Oregon conservation commission and by a vote of 24 to six passed Langguth's bill providing that women may sit on juries, and defeated Langguth's bill giving minority stockholders in corporations representative on the directors by a vote of 19 to 10.

Five bills passed in the house. One made laborers wages prior liens, another provided an appropriation of $3000 and to exterminate the jack-rabbit pest in eastern Oregon.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Pendleton Beats La Grande.
In one of the closest bowling matches ever held in this city, the Pendleton team Saturday evening defeated the La Grande pin smashers by the narrow margin of six pins, thereby retrieving honors lost recently in La Grande and winning back the $100 purse lost also. The total Pendleton score was 2672 and the total La Grande score 2666. Not until the last bowler had rolled his last ball was the victory won and there was a great deal of excitement among bowlers and spectators. "Speedball" Humphries of La Grande made the highest score of the evening, 602, with Pat McDevitt a close second with 592.

Attorneys Have Encounter.
A little personal encounter between District Attorney Stelwer and L. A. Esteb of Echo furnished some amusement for the court spectators this morning. The attorneys were examining the jurors in the case of the State vs. Gulliford and Kirk. "Would the defense have any effect upon your deliberations," he asked several of the jurors, evidently having in mind the emotion the Echo lawyer sometimes puts into his final argument. The latter was spurred to return the compliment. "Do you believe in hypnotism?" he asked one juror. "Do you believe in personal magnetism or personal beauty as a force?" The juror couldn't quite see the bearing of the questions until Col. Esteb continued, "to be more explicit would the physical beauty of the prosecuting attorney, his winsome smile and his pearly teeth have any effect upon you in considering this case? Would it make any difference to you if you knew him to be of Teutonic birth or any other birth or whether he was ever born at all?"

School Board Again Sued.
Again the local school district and the old board of directors have been made defendants in a suit growing out of the erection of the Pendleton-La Grande match Saturday evening will be rolled. "Speedball" Humphries of La Grande and Loren Hoover of this city will bowl Pat McDevitt and Fred Book, and there is lively interest in the encounter.
