SCHOOL TEACHER OF EARLY DAYS TELLS OF EXPERIENCES IN WORK

MRS. W. B. MAYS READS INTERESTING PAPER BEFORE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

First School Was on Site Where County Court House Now Stands—Colored Man and His Children Were Causes of Some Excitement, But Matter Finally Settled.

Writing history and public speaking are two things of which I have had little experience, although as a single handed talker I can hold my own very well. I wish to say that I feel highly honored by this society, for the kindly invitation extended me to relate some early experiences of the past in Pendleton. While I realize that there are many others much more capable than myself, yet I will gladly do the best I can.

In the year 1871 we crossed the plains with mule teams, our crowd consisting of three families, Captain S. T. Isaacs, L. S. Wood, both Grand Army men, also my brothers-in-law, and my father, A. H. Lansdale, and mother, five sisters and one brother. We were three months on the road. Our first camp in Umatilla county was at the crossing of the Umatilla river then known as the Thomas & Ruckels bridge, near which is Cayuse station. We eventually settled in this county. My first occupation was school teaching, the first term of school was in the old Ninevah Ford school house on the Walla Walla river.

In the years 72-73 I made my home in Pendleton. During that time my home was with the family of Hon. J. H. Turner. He was county school superintendent, also a director in this district and naturally I got the school to teach. It not being the time for the regular district school, it was decided to have me teach a subscription school. Mr. Turner being an official of the county and district, readily consented for me to teach in the public school house, that stood exactly where the court house now stands.

On the morning of school opening Mr. Turner went with me to help select things off right. We found ourselves up against a very "dark" proposition: at once a Mr. Mitchell, a colored man, was there with two little pickaninies ready for school.

Now this was so soon after the civil war that the southern people were not so greatly in love with colored folks, so Mr. J. H., a very strong Missourian, indeed, met the colored folks at the door and in language that would make the Goddess of Liberty on the court house blush with shame, ordered them to leave at once.

The "darkey" was game, declaring it was a public school house and that he could not be prevented from sending his children there. Turner being a lawyer, saw that the "darkey" was right. So they rented a room over the old county jail which now now stands directly east of the Alexander store. There are several living in Pendleton now that really went to fall to school to me. They will perhaps deny it now, but if they do I will call Mrs. J. P. Robinson for a witness. She was one of my brightest pupils.

This school was a good advertisement for me, as I had several offers immediately, one of which I accepted. That was only a school of one pupil but I must say that this school caused me more trouble and worry than all my other schools combined. Even to this day he often declares that he knows more than I do—and at times I will hesitatingly admit that he does.

Now, again thanking your committee, will say that I will be pleased at any time to continue contributions of this character to your honorable society.

Respectfully,
MRS. W. B. MAYS,
Pendleton, Ore.

Colds and Croup in Children.
Many people rely upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of colds and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never tire of recommending it to my friends. I have always given it to my children when suffering from croup, and it has never failed to give them prompt relief." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Dry Resolution Blocked.
DES MOINES, Feb. 8.—Certain members of the senate constitutional amendment committee succeeded in smothering temporarily a joint resolution introduced by Wilson and Thomas, calling for a prohibition amendment to the constitution.

Three different attempts made by the drys to get the resolution out of the committee were promptly blocked by seven members, who voted solidly against any move which would bring liquor before the senate.

Jitney Job "Given" Mayor.
PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 8.—Mayor Albee would like to know why he has been mistaken for traffic manager of the jitneys.

Late at night the telephone at his home rang and the mayor answered. "Is this Mayor Albee?" asked a young woman at the other end of the line. "Well, Mr. Mayor," said the woman, "there are five young women schoolteachers stranded out here in Alberta. Can't you send a jitney for us?" The mayor says he tried to get the jitney headquarters but nobody answered.

MONDAY CHAT NO. 1

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Charles K. Cranston will entertain the members of the Jolly Neighbors at her home on the north hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Knight are the recipients of many congratulations today upon the birth of a baby daughter yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

About twenty-five babies with their mothers gathered Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Temple on Lewis street, the affair being a baby party in honor of Evelyn, Bobbie and Billie Creswell, the little children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Creswell. It was a happy occasion for the little folks who ranged in ages from three months to three years. Each was presented with a toy by the hostess.

Mrs. W. P. Temple left yesterday for Walla Walla and will return tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Roy Alexander arrived home yesterday, from Portland where she had been for a short visit.

John Vert Saturday received a cablegram from his niece, Miss Ethel Wilkie, stating that she and her brother had landed safely in Liverpool after a voyage of a week across the Atlantic.

Mrs. R. R. Raymond and Mrs. Berta Wombach have returned from Portland where they had been visiting.

Mr. Ray Hinkle of Nye, Oregon, and Miss Agnes N. Pedro of Pendleton, Oregon, were quietly married yesterday morning at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Robinson officiating. Miss Josephine Pedro and Miss Nellie Bartley were the only witnesses at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle returned to Pendleton on the afternoon train to make their home—Walla Walla Bulletin.

Put This Out Now.
If you don't want it today, you may next week. Send this advertisement and 5 cents to Foley & Co., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You receive in return three trial packages—Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds, croup and grippe; Foley Kidney Pills, for weak or disordered kidneys or bladder; Foley Cathartic Tablets, a pleasant, wholesome and cleansing purgative, just the thing for winter's sluggish bowels and torpid liver. These well known standard remedies sold everywhere.—Adv.

AMERICAN WOMAN TO TALK IN GERMAN UNIFORM

Miss Wilma Sanda, an American woman who has lived long in Germany, is coming back to the United States to lecture in favor of Germany's attitude in the war. In order to emphasize her tendencies Miss Sanda will wear the uniform of a German officer; that is, she says she will. She believes Germany is right in its position in the war and she will do all she can to prove this to those who will go to hear her lecture.

We would like to please ALL the people ALL the time, but we cannot, so we vary our picture program as much as possible so everyone can have a chance to see their particular kind of picture at least once a week.

From an artistic standpoint "The Rose of the Rancho" is one of the most exquisite films we have ever shown and every patron, scarce as they were who did not like the plot were delighted with the beautiful scenes.

Tomorrow we show "Spartacus," one of those gorgeous Roman spectacles employing over seven thousand people. This is said to be the equal of "Quo Vadis."

On Thursday we will show "The Battle of the Sexes," dealing with the two moral codes, one for a woman, the other for a man. This is a Griffith production which always means quality.

Some of our customers say, "We are so glad you put on vaudeville." Others say, "I don't care for it." Did you notice that we are not charging anything extra for it and that we only put it on at the end of the picture. Again it is a case of the Alta Theatre Co. trying to please the bulk of the people.

Incidentally, we are not in the business for health alone.
C. M. STYPE, Manager.

Kaiser in the East.

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—The Kaiser left for the eastern war front today. The capture of a thousand Russians along the Baura was announced. Russian attacks in Poland and Prussia have been repulsed. French efforts to gain ground at Massiges and in the Argonne have failed.

Humors Come to the Surface in the spring as in no other season. They don't run themselves all off that way, however, but mostly remain in the system. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them, wards off danger, makes good health sure.—Adv.

Bread Advance Ordered.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 8.—Bread will cost 6 and 12 cents a loaf in Seattle after February 10. Decision to raise the price was made unanimously by the master bakers last night. With flour already $3 a barrel and threatening to go to $3, no other action was possible, according to the bakers, and they say another rise when flour goes up again is not unlikely. The wholesale price of the bread is to be raised from 3.57 cents a loaf to 5 cents.

Bread at Meals Costly.

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—The Allied Association of Restaurant and Hotel Keepers of Berlin have decided henceforth to charge for all bread served at meals. A dispatch received here from Dresden says the municipal council has decreed that all the bread baked in Dresden must conform to the government's standard.

The Berlin stockyards report a further increase in the price of hogs. The highest quotation is 105 marks ($26) per 100 pounds.

Recognized Advantages.

You will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has recognized advantages over most medicines in use for coughs and colds. It does not suppress a cough but loosens and relieves it. It aids expectoration and opens the secretions, which enables the system to throw off a cold. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

SEVERAL BILLS BECOME LAWS

One Signed by Governor Repeals Free Textbook Statute.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 4.—Governor Withycombe signed the following bills:

Senate bill 29, by Leinenweber—To permit cities of the state bordering on navigable rivers to dredge material and sand from the channel and bed of the river.

Senate bill 97, by Hollis—To bond local agents of the state land board.

House bill 13, by Clatsop delegation—To provide bounty on seals.

House bill 152, by committee on judiciary—Repealing free text book law.

House bill 77, by Olson—Conferring right of eminent domain upon gas companies.

S. B. 184, by Languth, amends chapter 112 relating to duties of attending physicians—workmen's compensation act.

S. B. 187, by Hollis and Vinton, authorizes two or more counties to create a road district and build highways under Bancroft bonding act.

S. B. 188, by Strayer, increases salary of county treasurer of Baker county $400 and reduces that of the sheriff.

S. B. 189, by Umatilla delegation, relates to stock running at large in Umatilla county.

S. B. 190, by committee on education, amends section 4, chapter 65, general laws of Oregon, fixing fees for teachers' certificates.

S. B. 191, by Hawley, appropriating $100 for reimbursing Angeline Burch for horses furnished during the Indian war of 1855-56.

VOCATIONAL ASSOCIATION IN CONVENTION AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—With registration and the reception of delegates the annual convention of the Vocational Association of the middle west opened here today at the La Salle Hotel. Many men and women prominent throughout the country as employers, educators, social workers, philanthropists and representatives of organized labor are in attendance on the program to speak either at today's sessions or the session tomorrow. An inspection of exhibits and a luncheon concluded the morning sessions. Topics for this afternoon and some of the speakers were: "Indiana's Lesson," William H. Henderson, assistant professor of industrial education, University of Wisconsin; "The Working of the Wisconsin Law," "The Contribution of Massachusetts," "New York's Experiences With Vocational Education," Arthur D. Dean of New York; A general discussion of the subjects was to be led by S. J. Vaughn, editor of the Industrial Arts Magazine, and Charles A. Bennett, editor Manual Training Magazine.

Michael J. Collins, president of the Chicago board of education, Charles H. Winslow, Washington, D. C.; Edwin G. Cooley, Dr. Ella Flagg Young, and Prof. Frederick W. Roman, of the University of Syracuse, were scheduled to speak at this evening's session.

HERE TO REGULATE COMMERCE.

Sir Richard Crawford.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Sir Richard Crawford has taken up his duties as commercial attaché of the British embassy. He will deal with commercial aspects of the war. One of the first developments will be the conclusion of arrangements between American wool interests and London whereby wool may be brought into this country.

Food Control Wanted.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—In view of the increased cost of food, which is due almost entirely of high freight rates and the congestion of goods at the docks, members of the corporations of Glasgow, Liverpool and other cities in the kingdom proposed today the passage of resolutions for the framing of a petition to the government in favor of government control of foodstuffs, coal and the shipping services.

While the resolution was defeated, those present at the meeting where it was presented expressed strong views that immediate action by the government was necessary, as wheat, flour and coal are daily increasing in price.

The entire question of food prices will be discussed in the house of commons next Thursday, when Premier Asquith has promised to make a statement on the situation. Meantime a committee has been appointed to inquire into the congestion of goods on the docks. The labor party has drafted a resolution for introduction in the house of commons, insisting that the rise in prices is not justified by economic influences of the war and asking the government to fix maximum prices.

"Eliza" the Ice Act Saves.

BAKER, Ore., Feb. 8.—By emulating "Eliza" in her "crossing the ice" act, John Benson, a trapper, of Robbette, is alive to tell of a thrilling crossing of Snake river on Tuesday. Benson was trapping near Robbette when he saw a coyote in one of his traps on the Idaho side. He crossed Snake river on the ice, skinned the coyote and started back. When midway in the stream the ice began to break and only by jumping from cake to cake, and sometimes by waiting for the cake he was on to float near enough to another that he might jump, was Benson able to reach shore again.

Big Terminal Planned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—That the Southern Pacific is preparing to carry out the plan for a deepwater terminal at Channel street, where the largest ocean carriers may discharge their cargoes alongside the company's freight tracks and warehouses practically in the heart of the city, is the information which has become known from authoritative sources. The "Channe," used principally by lumber schooners now, is neither good, dry land nor clean, deep water. It looks like a bubbling mud bank, smells like a sewer and is officially called a street. The plan is to make it a deep waterway, 300 feet wide between bulkheads and with a depth of 30 feet at low tide. The estimated cost of the entire work is $3,000,000. Liners from the orient or Europe by way of the Panama canal, would be able to tie up alongside the railroad terminal yards, which would rival the great New York Bush terminals.

Two of Them Are 52.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Asher C. Hinds of Portland, Me., and J. M. C. Smith of Charlotte, Mich., one of the three Smiths who represent Michigan in congress, today celebrated their 52 birthday anniversaries.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.

"Coming events cast their shadows before." This is especially true of bilious attacks. Your appetite will fail, you will feel dull and languid. If you are subject to bilious attacks take three of Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as these symptoms appear and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Second German War Loan Likely.

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—If, according to the Overseas News Agency, a second German war loan probably will be issued at the beginning of March and on favorable terms as the conditions of the money market are exceptionally good.

BIGGEST INDOOR MEET RUN OFF IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—The east's biggest indoor athletic meet was to be run off under the direction of the Boston athletes and amateurs from the eastern clubs were to compete.
