The Science of Medicine is Progressive

Judging from the trouble and expense people have in getting satisfactory glasses, there is room for improvement in glass fitting. A glass that was apparently alright at first but later requires changing, is absolute proof that it never was correct.

We use a method of glass fitting that will straighten cross eyes without a surgical operation; the same principles will give you a glass that will never require changing, except for reading from the ages of 45 to 48.

Only one of the various systems can make the above statement good. We are the only refractionist in Oregon using this system.

BLANCHE M'GAUGHEY GIVES UP RIDING FOR HOUSEWORK

DARING YOUNG ROUND-UP PERFORMER MARRIED TO THE DALLIES FARMER.

No more bucking bronchos for Blanche McGaughey, no more the thrills of wild west shows, no more the applause of the multitude at the sight of a pretty girl defying the contortions of a plunging outlaw mustang. It's the quiet life for Blanche from now on. The Pilot Rock girl who has won prizes at the Round-up and other frontier shows and who has toured the country with wild west attractions is going to content herself with cooking three meals a day and doing the washing for a young farmer of The Dalles. For he it is known that the happy-go-lucky Blanche yesterday afternoon at high noon became Mrs. T. A. Sammis, the wedding ceremony being performed in The Dalles.

The wedding notice comes as a surprise to her many friends here and was almost as much a surprise to herself, according to her own admission. She left Pendleton only a few days ago for San Francisco where she was to join the "181 Ranch," a professional wild west road show. She stopped off at The Dalles for a short visit and there Cupid wooed her from the paths of fame to the seclude life of housewife.

The announcement of her wedding came last evening by letter to H. W. Collins, director of competitive events of the Round-up. She had no intention of being married until next October, she said, but the young farmer would not hear of her joining the "181 Ranch." "Men will have their way," she wrote, "and I decided I would not trifles with our happiness by going on to San Francisco." Her husband is connected with the Mt. Hood Orchard Co., owns a fruit farm and is the finest man in the world, and the bride states in her letter. She had a saddle ordered and wanted Mr. Collins to cancel the order as she will have no use for it. Her husband doesn't farm with horses, she writes rather regretfully, but uses a caterpillar and gasoline instead.

THE PEOPLE AT PILOT ROCK JUNCTION WANT ROAD WORK

COMMUNITY MEETING IS HELD TO DISCUSS THE QUESTION MANY ATTEND.

The people in the vicinity of Pilot Rock Junction are very anxious for some road work and a community interest meeting was held Saturday evening. The following report of the gathering has been handed the East Oregonian:

The meeting was called to order by Geo. R. Roberts, chairman and A. McRoberts was chosen secretary. A general discussion ensued as to the present needs for the upbuilding of the community in general. As this immediate vicinity has not had any money from the county court for building roads or repair work and the children from Birch creek have to cross private property to get to school, everyone present agreed to do all they could to have the county court build a road. The chairman appointed E. Caldwell, Henry Forth and J. M. Harrison a committee of three to confer with the court and to take any means necessary towards getting road work started between Pendleton and Yoakum. It was the opinion of all present that if there was not good prospects of getting roads built soon those concerned should put up a building and start a cooperative store.

The next meeting was called for Saturday, February 13th.

Sir Knights Attention.

There will be a regular meeting of Umanilla Tent No. 27 K. O. T. M., held at the Eagle-Woodman hall Tuesday, February 9th. All members are requested to be present.

Old Friends Meet After Many Years

It is always a pleasure to meet old friends. Kit, the Arkansas Traveler, a moving picture billed at one of the local theatres today is familiar to most of us either from having viewed it on the dramatic stage or from reading the book. For decades it was the only production the late F. S. Chanfrau appeared in. The producer Kenean Buell has spared no pains in making this a wonderful picture. It is all there, the marriage of Kit to Mary, the elopement of Mary and the villain Mansel Bond, the death of Mary, the meeting of Kit and his daughter years after on the steamboat, the recognition. The burning of the steamboat and the deadly duel between Kit and Bond underneath the water in which Kit is victorious, the reunion of Kit's daughter and the young man who had been so devoted to her. All will say Kit, the Arkansas Traveler is a mighty good fellow.

Market Makes Big Improvements.

The Pendleton Cash Market has just finished making extensive improvements within its store building, corner Court and Johnson streets. The principal improvement consists in a cold storage plant which will not only keep the meat storage room cool but will also keep the meats within the show cases cool. Ammonia pipes have been run inside these cases and the platters containing cuts of meat will rest upon these frosted pipes. This plant will not only reduce expenses by keeping down the ice bill but has the added advantage of maintaining an even temperature and of making the care of meats more sanitary and convenient. The proprietors of the market have also moved their meat counters to the rear of the store room and are adding to their stock of groceries.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Buys a New Auto.
Mr. John Bain, reservation farmer, has purchased a model C-25 Buick from the Oregon Motor Garage.

Moving to Washington.
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Longmeyer have left for Cunningham, Wash., where they will locate and reside in the future.

Echo People to Marry.
Fred Rauch and Johanna Erdmann, an Echo couple, this afternoon secured a marriage license from the county clerk.

Fixing Alta St. Crossing.
A crew of men began work this morning putting in vitrified brick between the tracks at the crossing on East Alta street where the spur leading to the flour mills intersects the street.

Another New Bungalow.
A contract was made here today whereby L. E. Keiser, of this city, will erect a six room bungalow, through Cox & Longman on one of the latter company's lots on Riley street. Mr. Keiser is a plasterer.

Fined for Speeding.
Ralph Temple was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Manning upon complaint of a resident of East Court street that he was driving his motorcycle at a speed exceeding 15 miles an hour. He pleaded guilty in police court and was fined ten dollars.

Woman Dies From Wounds.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Maud Lewis, wife of John Lewis, proprietor of a hotel at Reno, died from bullet wounds inflicted by Joseph Reilly, a metal worker, whose love she spurned. Reilly was arrested. Reilly told the police he loved the woman for seven years and shot her in desperation when his advances were refused.

Collecting Taxes.
The county treasurer's office has been a busy place today as the first rush of taxpayers to pay their taxes begins. All day the force has been busy collecting money or handing out statements. Besides John Beam and R. T. Brown, Treasurer Bradley has William Sutherland assisting him.

To Make Pendleton Headquarters.
S. G. Cohn, well known traveling salesman of drygoods, is the latest of the commercial travelers to become impressed with the advantages of Pendleton as a center from which to travel over the inland empire. Herebefore he has made his home and headquarters in Seattle but has just come to Pendleton, bringing his wife and son, and will hereafter live here temporarily he will stay at the Hotel Pendleton.

Default Judgment Taken.
Default judgments were granted to Western Land & Irrigation Co. yesterday in the eleven cases which it brought against persons who had contracted for land under its ditches and who had not lived up to the terms of the contract. The defendants were Mary-Isabella McLain, William M. Kolash, Carl J. Heinrich and O. H. Grondahl, Silas J. Erffmeyer, the unknown heirs of Alfred C. Astrup, R. R. Tribby, Lewis E. Wood, Frank F. Asmus, Andrew Matson and Barton J. Sweat.

Mail Rates to Germany.
Postmaster T. J. Tweedy this morning received notice from Joseph Stewart, second assistant postmaster general, that mail rates on letters to Germany will be five cents on the first ounce and three cents for each ounce thereafter, until such times as direct service is resumed to that country. Under the direct service, the two cent postage to and from Germany is in vogue but the war has forced the mails into and out of Germany to be routed through other countries.

Water Department Shows Gain.
During the month of January the receipts of the city water department amounted to $2279.55 and the disbursements but $529.10. Of this disbursement, $175.25 was for the cutting of wood at Thorn Hollow, and, as this wood will be sold at profit, the expense of cutting cannot, really be considered a part of the operating expenses. Supt. Hayes' monthly report shows further that the water sales amounted to $2376 for the month and that $427.55 was due from delinquent sales, making a total amount of $2803.55 due February 1. Rebates in the amount of $356.25 were granted. The cash on hand in the sinking fund January 1 was $37,741.47 and the interest $275.20, making a total of $4016.67. Of this amount $700 was loaned. The total loans to date figure up to $31,121. The number of meters in service in the city is 436. Five new connections were made during the month.

Another Bootlegger in Court.
This afternoon Jack Lynch is being tried in police court on a charge of selling liquor to Indians. It is charged that he sold liquor to Toy Toy, Harry Luton and an Indian called "Matches." He had secured six bottles but had only disposed of four of them when caught.

Bootlegging Cases Next Week.
George Fletcher, colored buckaroo, will be the first of the men, alleged to have sold liquor to Indians and indicted by the grand jury, to be tried in the circuit court. Judge Phelps today set his case for next Monday and it will be followed by the case against James Jones. Several of the alleged bootleggers have already pleaded guilty but have not yet been sentenced.

Prisoner Almost Forgotten.
In the stress of court business, one prisoner was almost forgotten. He is George Fay, the man who beat up William Townsend, an aged shepherd, here recently. He was indicted and pleaded guilty to assault with intent to rob some time ago but, by an oversight, the case was not put on the docket and he was almost overlooked. Sentence will probably be passed at once.

Memorials Adopted.
SALEM, Ore., Feb. 9.—The senate adopted Dimick's memorial to congress urging enactment of laws that will remove the limit to the sum that may be deposited in postal savings banks and use the funds as a nucleus for a system of rural credits. A memorial also urged that the interest rate paid on postal deposits be increased from two to three per cent.

DEALER CONTESTS RIGHT OF DYER TO SIGN ORDINANCE

BOWLSBY MAKES APPEAL FOR WRIT OF REVIEW FROM CIRCUIT COURT.

Contesting the right of John Dyer to sign an ordinance as mayor of the city of Pendleton, W. L. Bowlsby, local second hand dealer who was arrested and convicted in police court on Feb. 3, on a charge of violating the ordinance recently adopted for the regulation of pawnshops, has petitioned the circuit court for a writ of review and will fight the case out upon the same grounds laid by Robert Kirkpatrick who claims to be mayor and against whom Dyer brought quo warranto proceedings.

Bowlsby was arrested by Officer Scheer for refusing to allow him to examine a gun in his store as provided by one section of the ordinance. Judge Poe, attorney for Bowlsby, filed a demurrer to the complaint in police
