JUSTICE.

Oh, Justice, guardian of the mighty scale,
Why let the might outweigh the right
And fairness be of no avail?
As slowly might outweighs the right,
Each drop of blood recorded
By your dial,
Art blind in soul, does conscience sleep?
Let might not win by wile!
One stroke of your great guardian sword
Might set the world a-right;
Let bandage lift from blinded eyes
—And see the havoc of the fight.

The ruined homes, the mangled men,
The dead upon the field,
The mothers' honor gone for ever—
Your scales of justice slowly yield.

Oh, guardian angel, wilt thou not heed
And set the scales a-right?
Let us whom only justice wish
Outweigh the Hun who claims the might!
—Harold L. Morris.

TRAIN UP MORE MEN

If the shortage in skilled labor continues to grow more acute it will be necessary to take constructive steps of some sort to remedy matters. The day is fast coming when it is going to be impossible to longer "rob Peter to pay Paul." It does not solve the problem when one establishment or line of business tempts men away from other lines by the inducement of higher wages. It merely makes matters worse, when the whole field is considered.

More attention should be given to training up new material for work in lines where the shortage is serious. It should be possible to do this, in spite of all obstacles, and the government could properly be asked to take a hand as part of its vocational education effort.

to some relative of the soldier or sailor. These messages are not to be forwarded by the chapters.

If the chapters request any information regarding a soldier or sailor, the Bureau of Communication will obtain from the chapter the name of the nearest relative of the soldier or sailor, and advise the chapter that the relatives will be notified direct, as soon as information is obtained regarding the wounded or missing man.

Calls upon sorrowing families, when made in the name of the Red Cross, should be made by members of the Home Service Section in the manner and in the spirit of the letter of instruction from the Director General of Civilian Relief, dated April 1.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the East Oregonian, August 2, 1890.)

L. R. Livermore, W. L. Kidder, Darr Phelps and A. Mansell left for Meacham today.

A Pendleton baker has a pile of bread displayed in front of his shop with a placard reading, "Six Loaves for Ten Cents." There is no need for a man to go hungry in this country.

J. H. Daley, C. H. Carter and Orville White returned last night after a five day's hunt on the reservation near Cayuse. The sport was immense and 34 birds were brought down by the lucky hunters.

Dr. Vincent left Sunday night for Hopper to attend A. D. Johnson who is in a critical condition. Doctor Vincent will visit Yachusa Bay for a couple of weeks before his return.

SMUGGLE BY TUNNEL

BERNE, July 31.—The authorities have discovered a cement tunnel at Kreuzlingen, on the Swiss-German frontier, connecting two houses, one on Swiss and the other on German soil, thru which large quantities of contraband have been smuggled into Germany.

SHIP LOSS OUT

LONDON, Aug. 2.—As an evidence of the efficiency of the convoy system, it is pointed out that the proportion of ships lost to those convoyed has been .59 per cent. In other words only one ship out of nearly 300 has been lost.

Therefore be it "Resolved, That the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense recommend that as an expression of loyalty and respect to the colors and the national anthem the women of the United States shall stand at attention when the flag is passing or the national anthem rendered."

The woman's committee earnestly urges that each and every woman in the United States take special note of this resolution and carry it out implicitly on every possible occasion, with the idea of publicity manifesting her loyalty and devotion to the country.

Germany might have got a few pointers from Spain about the fighting quality of American soldiers. Twenty years ago a Spanish soldier, speaking of the Americans, exclaimed: "They tried to catch us with their hands!"

WOMEN AND THE FLAG

THE Council of National Defense authorizes the following:

Women all over the country have been asking the administration of late for information in regard to the correct way of showing their respect for the flag and for the national anthem when it is rendered in public.

On July 8, the woman's committee adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas it is fitting that civilians as well as soldiers and sailors should adopt some uniform and appropriate manner of expressing their allegiance to their flag when it is displayed and their respect for the national anthem when it is played in their presence; and

NOTIFIES RELATIVES DIRECT

THE acting general manager of the Red Cross has issued the following statement:

The Red Cross Bulletin of July 8 and some division bulletins of later date have carried the announcement that messages containing news of death or injury to soldiers and sailors would be carried to their families by members of the uniformed Red Cross Motor Service. This is inaccurate, and the announcement should be withdrawn.

The War Department requires that all casualty information be forwarded by them, either by wire or letter, direct
