Accidental thief returns car with apology, gas money

PORTLAND (AP) — A Portland woman says her red Subaru was stolen from her driveway — and then reappeared with an apology note and gas money. Erin Hatzi tells The Oregonian/OregonLive that her husband noticed the missing Subaru Impreza on Tuesday night and she posted security camera stills on Facebook, asking for help finding her car. Police caught a woman returning the vehicle to Hatzi's driveway Wednesday evening. The accidental thief had instructions from a friend to pick up a different red Subaru in Hatzi's neighborhood and returned when the friend said it wasn't her car. Police told Hatzi that some older Subaru keys are interchangeable, making it easy for the woman to make off with the wrong car.

has been sentenced years in prison.

The Herald and News reports 31-year-old William Parkerson made no statement in court Wednesday.

Parkerson shot Klamath County Sheriff's Deputy Jason Weber in the face during a traffic stop. He was arrested after a nearly 18-hour manhunt, and a jury found him guilty of attempted murder and assault.

Psychiatrists testified that Parkerson exhibited symptoms of anti-social personality disorder including aggression, deceitfulness and a lack of remorse.

Weber resigned from the sheriff's office in January to accept a position with the Oregon Liquor Control Commission. He asked Judge David Hoppe to impose the 30-year maximum.
