THERE'S NOTHING LOST.

There's nothing lost. The tiniest flower
That grows within the darkest vale.
Though hid from view has still the power
The rarest perfume to exhibe;
That persume, borns on zephyr's wings,
May visit serie lone sick one's bed,
And, that the calm affection brings,
Twill scatter gladness round her head.

There's nothing lost. The drop of dew what tremel s in the rose-bad's breast Will zeek its home of ether blue And fall again as pure and blest; Perchance to revel in the spray, To cool the dry and parching soil, To mingle in the bountain spray Or sparkle in the bow of God.

There's nothing lost. The seed that's cast By careless hand upon the ground Will yet take rost and may at last A green and glorious tree be found; Beneath its shade some pligrim may Seek sholtur from the heat of noon, White in its boughs the breezes play, And song birds sing their sweetest tune,

There's nothing lost—the slightest tone Or whisper from a loved one's voice

May melt a heart of hardest stone,

And make a suddened breast rejoice;

And then, perchance, the careless word Our thoughtless lips too often speak, May touch a heart already stirred And cause that troubled heart to break.

There's nothing lost. The faintest strain of breathing from some dear one's lute In memory's dream may come again Though every mourning string be mute. The music of some happier hour. The harp that awells with love's own words May the'll the soul with deepest power, When still the hand that swept its chords.

Then let us make the plan our own
For Heaven's teachings are the best;
The blessing that is wisely used,
Increases and we're doubly bles'd!
And be our lot with rich or noor,
By sunshine warm'd or tempest tosa'd,
So guide our hands that we may say,
"Thero's nothing Wasted, nothing Lost."

LATEST EASTERN NEWS. Washington, June 18.—The Government, has received documentary proofs incontrovertible of the guilt of Jeff. Davis in the matter of inhuman and most brutal treat-ment of Union prisoners. When disclosed to the public, as facts will be given in a few days, they will asteund the civilized world. The British Government has withdrawn its recognition of Confederate vessels of war, and issued orders prohibiting them to enter any British ports. France has also removed restrictions on naval intercourse, and has withdrawn from the Confederate character as belligerents.

Washington, June 20 .- Gov. Holden has is sued his first proclamation to the people of North Carolina. He informs them that a convention to alter and amend the State Constitution, and to provide for the election of a Governor and Legislature to set the civil machinery in full operation, will be held at as early a period as practicable. Undoubted loyalty to the National Government will be required of delegates to the convention, and of all persons who rule. Those desiring to vote will be required to take the oath of allegiance, and prove their good will to the National Government. The Governor appeals to the people to renew with cheerfulness their civil pursuits and their interest in the prosperity of the State and Nation, and reminding them that all the happiness they have, or that they can hope for, for themselves or children, is indissolu-bly bound up with the Union. In announc-ing to the colored people that they are now free, he informs them that it rests with themblessing or an injury. He counsels them to cultivate habits of order and industry.

New York, June 30.—The Washington special says that thirty-four warrants for pardon were issued to-day by Secretary of State. All parties citizens of North Carolina, none of them being of note. Cairo, June 12.—The United States transport Kentucky, with 900 passengers, princi-Shreveport for New Orleans on the 9th. About nine o'clock on the same night it was discovered that the boat was taking water rapidly, and before she could land she sunk in twenty feet of water. The loss of life must have been terrible, the boat being crowded and sinking inside of three minutes. It is supposed that 250 persons have perished. She had 2,500 horses on board, all of which were The passengers lost every thing. The poroled prisoners or boord were principally members of Missouri regiments. The officers of the steamer were saved .- Ore-
