

Construction on medical building begins

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

100 YEARS AGO January 25, 1917

• National Pay Up week, February 19 to 24, is to be made a feature in the commercial life of towns of the county this year. Merchants in Enterprise and Joseph will join in the movement to make this week memorable for the settlement of accounts. Everybody will be asked to pay what he owes to stores and individuals.

• O.M. Heacock has built two towers 80-feet high at his residence on River Street. The building of the towers is a step preparatory to the establishment of a radio station. His principal object in putting in the wireless station is to be able to get the correct time for his jewelry business. The time will be received twice daily, at noon and at 10 o'clock p.m. from Mare Island, California, and North Head, Utah.

• The triangular debate between the high schools of the county was won by the Joseph school, which therefore will have the honor representing the county in the Eastern Oregon contest. The question debated was "Resolved that Oregon adopt the essential features of the Standard Bill of the American Association for Labor Legislation."

• Enterprise needs a good, stiff dog tax to eradicate the nuisance of numerous bands of worthless curs that roam the principal streets at all hours, to say nothing of the consequent danger from rabies.

70 YEARS AGO January 23, 1947

• The Auto Body and Paint shop located in the former Ward building on the east side of the courthouse was gutted by fire last Friday afternoon and three cars were burned. The fire apparently started when some paint thinner caught fire.

• Construction work on a new medical clinic building to be erected on Main street in Enterprise, just east of the library, will be started just as soon as the weather permits this spring. The building will contain offices for four doctors and also rooms for lab technicians, x-ray, operations, therapy and numerous other procedures.

• A large crowd attended the annual potluck dinner of the Joseph Chamber of Commerce held in the Joseph community hall. An award was presented to Max Wilson who bears the honor of being Joseph's outstanding citizen of 1946.

• The state highway commission has notified the Enterprise Chamber of Commerce that guard rails will be put up on Minam hill. When the highway commission will do the work, and whether guard rails will be erected around Wallowa Lake has not been ascertained.

• Ed Benteen is in the hospital suffering from first degree burns extending from his feet to his neck following the explosion of a kerosene can and the burning of his home Monday morning. He walked 2 miles through 8 inches of snow with his burned feet wrapped in burlap sacks to get to his car in which he was taken to town.

truck driven by Tom Hughes for Timber Transport almost collided with the home of the late Louis Audet last Friday as it traveled toward town from the Crow Creek area, stopping a bare 30 feet from the house after plowing through a portion of the front yard.

• Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crow that their son, Capt. Myron Crow, has received the Distinguished Flying Cross. He is a Forward Air Controller, serving in Viet Nam.

• Photo caption: Sandy Womack was crowned "Chapter Sweetheart" of the Wallowa High School chapter of the FFA at a special dance in the ag shop last Saturday night. Placing the crown on her head is Tom Frazier, chapter president.

• Photo caption: A dance combo, which was organized four months ago at Enterprise High School, has gained in popularity in this area and will soon make their TV debut. The group of three young men, known as "The Re-Actions" are David Morgan, Andy Gilbert and Henry Kinsley.

• Photo caption: "The Phantoms" provided music for the FFA dance at Wallowa on Saturday night. This group has been a popular band at other dances in the area. Members are: Greg Allen, John Raines, Mark Mason and Mike Mason. The Mark boys are identical twins and Mark might be Mike or vice versa.

25 YEARS AGO January 23, 1992

• A 1940s vintage asphalt plant, located along Golf Course Road on the outskirts of Enterprise, has produced over $180,000 in profits for the county and city of Enterprise over the past 10 years. The county wants to terminate its agreement with the city for joint operation of the plant and has purchased a newer, EPA-approved plant, which will begin operations this spring.

• Photo caption: Proprietor Cathy Neal and employees Donna Goebel and Cissy Shelton are enjoying the roomy new office building of Silver Creek Financial Services in Lostine.

• The Lady Savages placed no fewer than five players in double figures as they hammered out a 73-41 victory over Elgin. Monique Renoe topped with 18 points, Shelley Anderson and Julie Findley nailed 14 apiece, Amy Zollman scored 12 and Erika Black had 10.

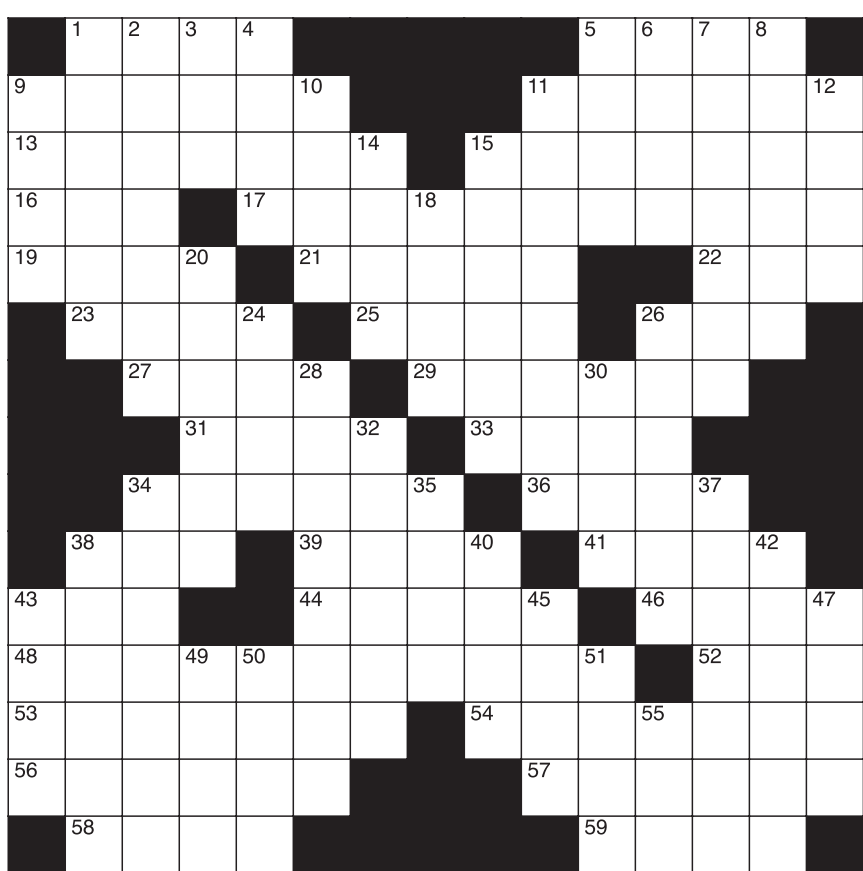

• Leah Salmon scored 16 points and Samantha Roberts added 11 as the E-Gals beat Union 45-31.

• Angela Severin hit on 10 of 20 field goal attempts and was 7 for 12 from the free throw line as Wallowa notched a 50-37 win over Prairie City.
