

COMMITTEES TO HANDLE THRIFT WEEK SELECTED

At a meeting of representatives of twelve of the organizations of the city Friday noon at the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of outlining a program for the National Thrift week which begins on Benjamin Franklin's birthday, January 17, and continues until January 23, the following committees were appointed by David C. Eyre, chairman:

Dr. Henry E. Morris and Allan Kafoury, to arrange for four-minute speakers to speak at the theaters; Miss Flora Case, to arrange for a special shelf of books at the city library on thrift; Rev. W. W. Long, to urge the ministers of the city to speak on some phase of thrift on Sunday, January 21; George Hug and T. M. Hicks, to arrange for essays to be written by the school children on thrift; and George Griffith and Paul Wallace, on publicity.

Each of the organizations through their representative agreed to have special speakers on the days on which they regularly meet. If possible the American Legion, which meets on Tuesday, January 16, will start the week with a thrift program although the day before.

The special days for the week are: January 17, Bank Day; January 18, Budget Day; January 19, Life Insurance Day; January 20, Own-Your-Home Day; January 21, Share-With-Others Day; January 22, Pay-Bills-Promptly Day; January 23, Make-a-Will Day.

Last year the week was observed in Salem with practically every organization cooperating. Posters were distributed about the stores, banks, and other public places urging the spending of time and money wisely. This will be repeated again this year.

One of the features of the plan as outlined today was the placing in newspaper advertising by local stores of a thrift motto with certain suggestions.

COAST BOUND FREIGHT STEAMER GOES AGROUND

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 30.—The freighter Willaet of the Williams Steamship company, bound here from Pacific ports, went aground off Annapolis in a fog Friday. A tug has been sent from Baltimore to her assistance. A radio from the captain said she was in no immediate danger.

Paris.—Reports that the United States would participate in next week's conference of premiers were eliminated by authoritative information that the American administration regards the meeting as a purely European affair.

Grandchild Had Croupy Cough
"My grandchild could get no relief whatever from a very bad croupy cough," writes Peter Landis, Meyersdale, Pa., "until I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar. It's a great help for chest and throat trouble." Coughs, colds, croup, throat, chest and bronchial irritations quickly relieved with Foley's Honey and Tar. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Stood the test of time serving three generations. (adv)

Circuit Court Bailiff Resident of Oregon City More than Sixty Years

It was just 60 years ago next Monday that George P. Litchfield, bailiff of the Marion county circuit court, celebrated his first New Year's day in Oregon.

Mr. Litchfield had just arrived at Grande Ronde, coming direct from Connecticut. He had been teaching school in Massachusetts and New Jersey but in the fall of 1862, when 22 years of age, decided to cast his fortunes in the far distant state of Oregon.

In 1873 Mr. Litchfield was appointed Indian agent at Grande Ronde and served four years. In 1874 he came to Salem and engaged in the grocery, boot and shoe business on the corner of State and Liberty streets, now occupied by the Gardner & Keene jewelry.

In 1889 Mr. Litchfield was appointed special Indian agent by President Harrison, having the honor of being the first agent to serve in a special capacity ever appointed.

In his capacity of special agent, he allotted 33,000 acres to the Sioux Indians in northwestern Nebraska, and also served as paymaster for the several Indian reservations.

For the past 14 years, Mr. Litchfield has served the Marion county circuit court as bailiff. He was born in 1840 and attributed his wonderful health to the fact

BOOZE CRAZED RANCHER KILLS WIFE, NEIGHBOR

Marshfield, Or., Dec. 30.—L. W. Peare, a rancher, aged 57, was held at the county jail today on a charge of killing his wife and a neighbor yesterday, the double tragedy, according to officers, having been due to Peare becoming crazy drunk on moonshine whiskey.

Peare choked his wife to death at their home 14 miles south of Myrtle Point, killed all his cats and dogs, and then went to the home of James Culver, a bachelor, beat him and then blew his head off, according to sheriff's officers.

ADMITS POISONING WIFE
Fairmont, Minn., Dec. 30.—Clarence Hamblen, who has confessed, authorities say, to giving poison to his wife which resulted in her death at Ceylon, Minn., October 9, today remained in his cell in the county jail under escort, following threats against his life by indignant relatives and citizens of the community.

A special grand jury to indict Hamblen on a charge of murder probably will be called shortly after January 1, when a new county attorney takes office. Hamblen was heard and bound over to the grand jury yesterday.

WIFE DEAD; HUSBAND JAILED
Miller, S. D., Dec. 30.—A. J. Ferguson was in jail here today awaiting a hearing on a charge of slaying his wife, who was found dead in her bed Christmas morning. Ferguson was arrested late yesterday and sent to jail in default of $10,000 bonds.

IDENTITY OF BOMBER THOUGHT ESTABLISHED

Marshfield, Wis., Dec. 30.—As a result of an investigation conducted by postal authorities and state officials, an arrest was forecast for late today in the bomb mystery case which cost the life of a woman and the serious injury of her husband.

Mrs. Chapman was fatally injured when she, with her husband, a member of the county board of supervisors and a drainage commissioner, opened a package containing the bomb Wednesday afternoon. She died yesterday afternoon.
