

Bead shop to open at Plaza

A new business will be opening soon at the Warm Springs Plaza.

Bridgette Whipple will be opening a bead and traditional crafts supply store at the Plaza February 1.

The shop will have beads, traditional art and craft supplies such as buckskins, and basketry supplies, said Whipple. There will also be shell items, she said.

Whipple is an anthropologist with the tribal Culture Resources Department. She will have two employees who will operate the shop.

The store will be at the east end of the Plaza, suite number five. The space next door is a business office of Denny Leonard, and the next space is Quilts & More, operated by Eraina Palmer.

The Warm Springs Ventures enterprise manages the Plaza, and occupies the space to the west. The area that was the Indian Trail restaurant is still vacant.

Sandra Danzuka, Ventures administrative officer, said it will be nice to have more retail business at the Plaza.

"This is the ideal location, right off the highway," she said.

Powwow

The 2006 Lincoln's Birthday Powwow will be at the Simnasho Longhouse on Feb. 10-12. For further detailed information you can contact Tom "Mackey" Begay at tribal prosecution, 553-3300.

Project Graduation 2006

Parents of the Madras High School Class of 2006 are still in the process of planning the annual drug and alcohol free graduation party. This year the event will be held June 10, graduation day. The purpose of this event is to provide students with a fun, memorable and safe graduation celebration that does not include drugs or alcohol. If you would like more information, contact Janelle Pugh at 475-4418.

Museum seeks summer intern

The Museum at Warm Springs is seeking applicants for the 2006 intern program.

The internship is an opportunity for Indian undergraduate college students to explore careers in anthropology, art, culture and heritage, education, museum program development, and public program development.

The intern will work with the museum's Education Program in a ten-week summer program with a $520 payment every two weeks. Application requirements:

Letter of application expressing your interest and how you can contribute to the museum; proof of enrollment in a higher education institution; proof of Native American heritage via enrollment document; two letters of recommendation, one specifically from your college, university or school of higher education.

The intern is responsible for his or her own housing. The intern is required to take a UA test, as the museum has zero tolerance for alcohol or drug use at the work site. For information call the museum Education Program at (541) 553-3331, ext. 407, or send e-mail to: temnsh@redmond-net.com. Letter of application and required documents are due by May 26.

Mail to: The Museum at Warm Springs, P.O. Box 909, Warm Springs, OR 97761.

No school day activity at museum

The Museum at Warm Springs is hosting a No School Day Craft Activity Day from 1 to 3 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 27. Wear an old t-shirt and there is no fee. Come to the museum's Education Room and have some fun. For information call 553-3331.
